A RIGGE FAMILY OF HAWKSHEAD

1 The first few lines of the will of Edward Ridge/Rigge of Cambridge, 1582

I. WILL OF EDWARD RIDGE, CAMBRIDGE, 1582

Following is a transcription of the last will and testament by Edward Ridge of Cambridge University<sup>1</sup> on 27 May 1582, proved 15 June 1582.<sup>2</sup> For easier reading I have initiated a new paragraph at each occurrence of the word “Item,” or equivalent event. I also number them. These paragraphs and numbers do not exist in the original.<sup>3</sup>

In the name of god amen : the xxviith daie of May Anno Domini A thowsannde fyve eightie twee. I Edward Ridge of Cambridge in the Countye of Cambridge and Dioces of Elye Bachelo<sup>r</sup> of lawe, beinge of bodye weake, but (thankes be to my Lord god) of perfecte remembrance, Doe ordeyne and declare this my last will and testamente in manner and fourme followinge.

<sup>2</sup> I was unaware until years after writing this paper of the analysis of the same will in this reference: H. S. Cowper, “The Will of Edward Ridge, of Cambridge, 1582,” article VIII in W. G. Collingwood (ed.), Transactions of the Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archaeological Society, Vol. IV, New Series (Kendal, 1904), 146–53. It does not include the full transcription. Cowper is an author noted elsewhere in this paper for his work in Hawkshead.

neye w<sup>ch</sup> [which] sholde have bene paide unto the saide Danne his wiffe deceased, by some of her frendes in the Northe, if she had lyved. The saide Testator made protestacion that the saide monneye never came to his hande yet for that she was his kynswoman, he bequeathed to the saide Danne fortye shillings, in the p[re]sence of goodwife Woode, Marye White and Thomas Tooleye.

Probatum fuit suprascriptum testamentum apud London. Coram venerabili viro magro willmo Drury lectum doctore curie prerogative cantuarien commissario etc decimo quinto die mentis Junn anno domini milimo quincfentesimo octogesimo secundo [15 June 1582] Juramento willmi Foxton executoris etc Cui commissa fuit administracio bonozum etc De bene etc Jutat.

From the 1582 will above we deduce that Edward Ridge of Cambridge had the following relatives in the “Northe,” namely Hawkshead (or Hawxsyde, as Edward called it):

1. James Rigges (item 20, but Rigge in items 3, 7, and 21), brother, with four daughters, unnamed (item 15), and son, William (item 20).
2. Alexander Rigges (item 16), brother, with sons, Edward (item 15), William, and James (item 16).
3. Robert Braythwate (items 7 and 19), brother-in-law, with three sons, Thomas, William, and Christopher (items 13 and 19). Robert Braythwate was to discharge funds to Agnes Brathwate (variously Braythwate) that would have gone to her sister, Margaret Brathwate, deceased (item 7). I assume these to be probably two daughters of Robert’s, Agnes and Margaret, the latter deceased by 1582.
4. Robert Rigge of Rogergrownde, cousin (items 3 and 21).
5. William Sowrey, cousin (items 3, 7, and 21, Sowreye in text preceding item 44).
6. John Sowrey, cousin (item 12).

FROM THREE 16TH-CENTURY WILLS

And the following appear to have been also Edward's relatives, although no relationships were specified in his will:<sup>5</sup>

7. John Elrowe, with daughters, Agnes and Elinor (items 4 and 5).
8. Christopher Braythwate, his (unnamed) wife, and five (unnamed) children (item 6).
9. Rollande Braythwate, and his daughters, Agnes Brathywate, Isbell Brathwate, and Elizabeth Brathwate (item 10).
10. John Braythwate (item 14).
11. William Braythwate of Satterhowe, and his (unnamed) wife, and (unnamed) children (item 18).
12. Brian Makrell, bequeathed a dwelling in Kendall (item 8).<sup>6</sup>
13. George Makrell, bequeathed a dwelling at Skelloth, and his (unnamed) children (item 9).<sup>7</sup>
14. Leonard Benson, his (unnamed) wife, and (unnamed) children (item 11).
15. William Satterforthe, and his (unnamed) wife, and (unnamed) children (item 17).

---

<sup>5</sup> The will states in item 3 that 60 pounds were to be taken to "the Northe partes to be distributed amonge my poore kynffolkes there, . . . within one half yeare after my decease." Items number 4-20 (ignoring item 10 which specifies a one year wait) account for about 60 pounds (plus a variable amount depending on the number of children in items 9, 11, and 17). Hence I believe these items are those devoted to Edward's poor kinfolks in Hawkshead. Items 21-49 do not concern relatives, except that there are two unnamed "kynswomen" mentioned in item 24.

Recordes hereth Thomas Satterthwate Willm Rigge sonn of Alexander Leonard Rigge Miles Pepper and Cuthbert Birkhead.

From the will of 1584, we determine that James had these relatives:

1. Edward Rigge, of Cambridge (James mentioned Edward's 1582 will), brother (item 4).
2. William Rigge, son (items 2, 3, 7, 11, and 12), with a child (item 7).
3. Leonard Bensonne, son[-in-law] (items 3 and 11).
4. Margrett Rigge, wife (items 2, 5, and 11).
5. Margrett Rigge, daughter (item 3 and 12).
6. Agnes Makreth, daughter, and husband of William Makreth, with a son (item 6).
7. James Bensone, his daughter's son (item 9).

10. William Rigge, son of Alexander.<sup>10</sup>
11. Leonard Rigge.
12. Ronalde Makreth.

<sup>12</sup> Nearly every monetary amount appears to be preceeded by what looks like a v—, which I take to be a marker device indicating an amount of money to follow. Treating it as a v leads to such “numbers” as vj and vx. The monetary amounts in items 2 and 13 do not have this marker.

Unfortunately, Margaret Rigge did not identify which persons in her will were relatives, so we can only guess from her data. Let us consider the circumstantial case that she might be the wife of James Rigge who wrote his will in 1584:

1. She is named Margaret Rigge, has no husband apparently, died after James's will of 1584, and lived in Hawkshead.
2. The wife of a James Rigge died in 1586 (see the genealogical summary).
3. She mentioned in the same item James Rigge and Edward Rigge. This might seem to argue against her being James's widow, since both James and Edward of the two preceding wills were presumably deceased by the time of Margaret's will. However Alexander Rigge had sons James and Edward.

FROM THREE 16TH-CENTURY WILLS

4. Both the wills of James and Margaret Rigge share these names in common: Leonard Benson, William Macreth, Ronald Macreth, Cuthbert Birkhead, Elisabeth Rigge, Thomas Satterthwaite.
5. Both the wills of Edward and Margaret Rigge share these names in common: Christopher Braithwaite, and perhaps Brian Macrell/Macreth, if those two surnames are variations of the same name, Leonard Benson's wife.

IV. GENEALOGICAL SUMMARY

Combining the wills above, the first two principally, yields the following family structure, making the assumption that “cousin” usually meant nephew or niece in the 16th century:<sup>13</sup>

First Generation

1. —<sup>1</sup> RIGGE, born say 1495.

Children (in arbitrary order):

- i EDWARD<sup>2</sup> RIGGE, born say 1520 (supposing he entered Cambridge in 1540 at age 20), wrote his will 27 May 1582, Cambridge, formerly of Trinity College. It was proved 15 June 1582.

According to the Alumni Cantabrigienses:

Rydge, Edward. B.A. 1544-5; LL.B. 1555. Of Isleham. Will proved (P.C.C.) 1582 and (Peterb.) 1584; ‘bachelor of laws and notary public’ (formerly of Trinity; leaves a legacy to the College). (W. M. Noble.)<sup>14</sup>

- 2 ii JAMES RIGGE, born say 1522, married MARGARET —, and had at least four daughters and one son.
- 3 iii ALEXANDER RIGGE, born say 1524, had at least three sons.
- 4 iv [DAUGHTER] RIGGE, born say 1526, married ROBERT BRAITHWAIT, and had at least three sons and perhaps two daughters.

<sup>13</sup> I have taken the spelling Rigge as representative for the set of variations {Ridge, Rydge, Rigge, Rigges}, Braithwaite for {Braythwate, Brathwate, Braithwaite}, Sowrey for {Sowrey, Sowreye, Sawrey, Saureye}, Macrell for {Makrell, Macrell, Macrelle}, Macreth for {Makreth, Macreth, Macrethe, Makreath} (which might be the same surname as Macrell), Benson for {Bensone, Bensonne, Benson}, Satterthwaite for {Satterthwat, Satterthwate, Satterthwaite}, Hawkshead for {Hawxsyde, Hauxhead, Hauckshead, Hawkshead}, Rogerground for {Rogergrownde, Rogergrounde, Rogerground}. I have similarly fixed on Margaret for {Margarett, Margaret, Margrett, Margreate}, Agnes for {Agnas, Agnes}, and Brian for {Brian, Bryan}.

<sup>14</sup> John Venn and J. A. Venn, Alumni Cantabrigienses (Cambridge: University Press, 1924), 457. Note that the will was apparently proved again in 1584.

FROM THREE 16TH-CENTURY WILLS

- 5 v [SON] RIGGE, born say 1528, had at least one son. The son was a “cousin” of Edward, so it is possible that he was son of James or Alexander.
- 6 vi [DAUGHTER] RIGGE, born say 1530, married – SOWREY, and had at least two sons, accounting for Edward’s two Sowrey “cousins,” and assuming they were brothers.

Second Generation

2. JAMES<sup>2</sup> RIGGE (1<sup>-1</sup>) of Sowrey, born say 1522, signed his will 19 June 1584, Hawkshead, died 1584, Hawkshead.<sup>15</sup> He was mentioned as “my brother James Rigge” in the 1582 will of Edward Rigge. He married (say 1550) MARGARET –, who was alive in 1584 in her husband’s will. She was probably the Margaret, wife of James, who signed her will in 1585/6 and died in 1586, Hawkshead.<sup>16</sup>

Children (in order of appearance in James’s will):<sup>17</sup>

- i WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> RIGGE, born say 1551, who had at least one child by 1584.<sup>18</sup>
- ii MARGARET RIGGE, born say 1553, unmarried in 1584 in her father’s will.<sup>19</sup>
- 7 iii [DAUGHTER] RIGGE, born say 1555, married LEONARD BENSON, and had at least one son.
- iv AGNES RIGGE, born say 1557 (based on age 17 at marriage), married 1574, Hawkshead,<sup>20</sup> WILLIAM MACRETH, and had at least one son. It is possible that the son was Ronald Macreth, mentioned (without specified relationship, but between two grandchildren) in James's 1584 will.<sup>21</sup> If so, then he could not be the same Ronald Macreth who was a supervisor of James's will or of Margaret's.

- v [DAUGHTER] RIGGE, birth order unknown. She was the fourth (unnamed) daughter mentioned in her uncle Edward's will of 27 May 1582, but there was no mention of her (explicitly) in her father's will of 1584. The parish records of 1582–1584 list only two burials of women who might have been she, both in 1582: Cathren Rigge and Agnes Rigge.<sup>22</sup> There was an Elisabeth Rigge mentioned in James's will (but listed after two, perhaps three, grandchildren),<sup>23</sup> and there was also an Elisabeth Rigge in Margaret's will of 1585/6, but with no relationship supplied in either case.

3. ALEXANDER<sup>2</sup> RIGGE (1<sup>-1</sup>) born say 1524.

Children, all born before 1582:

- i EDWARD<sup>3</sup> RIGGE, born say 1552.<sup>24</sup>
- ii WILLIAM RIGGE.<sup>25</sup>
- iii JAMES RIGGE.<sup>26</sup>

4. [DAUGHTER]<sup>2</sup> RIGGE (1<sup>-1</sup>) born say 1526, died before the 1582 will of Edward Rigge. She married ROBERT BRAITHWAIT. He was mentioned as "my brother in lawe Robert Braythwate" by Edward Rigge in his 1582 will.<sup>27</sup>

Children:

SON, who was mentioned in Edward's and James's wills and twice explicitly called a son in James Rigge's will of 1584.<sup>35</sup>

Known child:

8. ROBERT<sup>3</sup> RIGGE (<sub>3</sub>[son]<sup>2</sup>, -<sup>1</sup>), of Rogerground, born say 1554. Probably he who wrote his will in 1588, buried 1588 in Hawkshead,<sup>37</sup> and who married MARGARET —.<sup>38</sup> Margaret was perhaps she who was buried in Hawkshead in 1591 or 1592.<sup>39</sup>

Children (from the 1588 will):

- i JOHN<sup>4</sup> RIGGE, born say 1580.<sup>40</sup> A John of Rogerground was buried in 1601, Hawkshead.<sup>41</sup>
