Text in red is unsubstantiated at this printing, or claimed but not supported by proof, or is a question I am asking for possible future answer, or is in some other way to be considered temporary. An advantage of electronic publishing is that I can continue to improve and update the text while the mass of valid information is made available now. It is important therefore that citations mention the version number, that red items not be cited, and that the color be preserved.

LINEAGE LIST NOTATION

This document is written in "Register format," a format popular with scholarly genealogists named for the New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) and its learned journal the NEGHS Register. To facilitate stepping "backward" through the genealogy, I utilize one small addition to standard (actually "modified") Register format. A leading subscript to a person in a lineage list is the person number for that individual in this work. For example, Caleb Smith[6] Riggs ($_{70}$Joseph[5], Joseph[4], Edward[3], Edward[2], Edward[1]) was son of person 70, Joseph[5] Riggs ($_{37}$Joseph[4], Edward[3], Edward[2], Edward[1]), who in turn was son of person 37, Joseph[4] Riggs, and so forth. This technique may be applied to any person in a lineage list. However, to reduce visual clutter, I will use it here for at most one person per lineage list, usually the first.

A superscript asterisk () indicates the first person in a lineage list who is not genetically related to the next older person in the list. For example, Skylor Nathan[13] Knoll (Martha Jane[12], Edward Clark[11], Theodore Dalzel A.[10], Edward[9], Elias[8], Elias[7], Preserve[6], Zebulon[5], ?Joseph[4], Edward[3], Edward[2], Edward[1]) was an adopted son of Martha Jane[12] Riggs. Note also the question mark (?) in this lineage list, indicating that the father-son relationship of Joseph[4] and Zebulon[5] has not been proved.

It is traditional in American genealogy to label the immigrant's generation as no. 1. The generation preceding his is A, preceding A is B, and so forth.

Methodology and Style Notes

Unsourced material. Some claims without accompanying sources are important to preserve, as hints to future researchers or simply to indicate that I am aware of commonly claimed dates, names, or places, but am not certain of them. I enter these in footnotes and not in the main text or in red. I do not always explicitly flag these claims as unsourced, but they should be understood as such by their presence in the footnotes only or the red. This type of information often comes from compiled, but unfortunately unsourced, genealogies that have the appearance, to me at least, of being well researched and based on solid evidence. The footnote hint might inspire a future researcher to find the elusive evidence, whereas I had not done so by the time this book went to press.

Census litany. Rather than trying to be creative on each of dozens of census readings, I have chosen to state them with a common "litany." To make census litanies easy to spot, I usually introduce each one with the year. For example, a reading from the U.S. census for 1900 will begin "In 1900 . . . ."

Online sources. I have made much use of online sources, usually secondary, such as the listing of gravestones in a particular cemetery. The problem with this practice is the supposed ephemeral nature of the web. Many online sources may simply disappear from the web over time, or change addresses at least. Very notable exceptions are the many databases available from major servers, such as <Ancestry.com>, which I assume, with some trepidation, will be permanently available by some means. The URL for a website is identified by enclosing < > brackets. When a URL needs to wrap at the end of a line for good visual appearance, I have inserted a hyphen in an appropriate location. This line-breaking hyphen should be omitted, of course, when the URL is used as an internet address.

Abbreviations. I use abbreviations. With one exception, I always abbreviate state names and month names. The exception: I do not abbreviate state names in the main text that stand alone. However, state names in footnotes are always abbreviated, except in the titles of books.

I do not abbreviate anything in a quotation. An abbreviation in a quotation is present in the original.

I use succinct forms for the sources in footnotes. The bibliography should be consulted for full expansion of a source reference. See the abbreviations section of the front matter for the full list of abbreviations used in the census references. In all cases, the census was read from <Ancestry.com>, and the roll numbers correspond to the microfilm series used by that organization.

Verb tenses. Past tense is normally used, but a record is described in the present—e.g., Joe Gopnik was born in 1836, but a death certificate for Joe Gopnik states that he was born in 1836.

Abraham[1] Rutan of Early New York (c1679) and New Jersey (1699)

Progenitor of the Rutans of the United States and the Ruttans of Canada

Preface

On 6 Jan. 2025, I submitted a 69-page paper titlee "Abraham[1] Rutan in America, Revisited," to the New York Genealogical & Biographical Society Record (the NYG&B Record). It appears as of this date (21 Feb. 2025), that article will be publish in that fine old journal. In order not to cannibalize it, I urge the reader to consult it for the latest descriptions of the first three generations. The third generation in the article is essentially just a listing, so the fleshing out in this book begins with the sketches of the persons of that generation. I do maintain some notes and figures for the early family sections that do not (or will not) appear in the Record paper.

Portions in red are not yet fully vetted. In fact, there are several glaring holes in the following presentation. The text in red seeks to explain what explanations are missing. I do not allow printing of this document since it is so incomplete. I offer it, in its unfinished state, so that others can track my progress while research time passes measured in years.

Possible French Origins

[For full details, see section of the same name in the Record article.]

One of the various Rutan sources gives this putative descent: (1) Claudin Rutant, resided in Saint-Mihiel in 1598, married Catharine, and had two sons, Blaise and Claude; (2) Claude Rutant, baptized 19 Oct. 1590, Saint-Mihiel, was a woolen draper and cloth merchant, died 2 Sept. 1658, Metz, married 28 Jan. 1615, Metz, Sara Vigeny, and had Judith, Marie, Jean, Daniel, Abraham; (3) Daniel Rutant, baptized 27 Dec. 1620, Metz, married 30 Nov. 1642 Anne De Bize, and had Daniel, Sara, Paul, Abraham, Abraham, David; (4) Abraham Rutan, baptized 10 June 1658, Metz, came to America.[1]

Another source gives this putative (and slightly different) descent: (1) Claudin Ruttan, born about 1564, Saint-Mihiel, died about 1613 there, married about 1584, Catharine; (2) Claude Ruttan, born 19 Oct. 1590, Saint-Mihiel, died 2 Sept. 1658, Metz, married 21 Apr. 1613, Metz, Sarah Bigene; (3) Daniel Ruttan, baptized 27 Dec. 1620, Metz, died 23 Apr. 1663, Metz, married 30 Nov. 1642 Anne De Bize; (4) Abraham Rutan, baptized 10 June 1658, Metz, died 19 May 1713, New Barbadoes, Bergen Co., N.J.[2]

The baptismal record of Saint-Mihiel, Meuse, France, is online and has this record for Claude "Ruttan," baptized 19 Sept. [not Oct.] 1590, son of Claudin Ruttan and Katherine:[3]

2. 10 Generations of Claudin Ruttan, persons 1, 3, 7, 14; essentially the same as Ruttan, A Part of the Ruttan Family, 10, which mistakenly has Claude baptized in Metz, although clearly marking the true copy of his baptism record as from St. Mihiel.

Top of page is labeled "1590 octobre." I cannot fully read nor translate this item but it is roughly: "[C? L?]e 19 [?] [?] baptise Claude fils a Claudin Ruttan et Katherine sa fe [femme] parein [Gergin?] goubaux marein marguerite [?] [H?]ictor Thomas." N.B., this line occurs before the listings for Oct. begin, so is for 19 Sept. 1590, not 19 Oct. 1590, an error passed down by several genealogies. 10 Generations of Ruttans translates this as: "In the year 1590, the 19th of October, was baptized Claude son of Claudin Ruttan and Catherine his wife, godfather Georges Gouboux, godmother Marguerite daughter of Hirton Thomas" ("certfied conformed, St. Mihiel, the 11th of March 1907, the Mayor, O. Charron"). That sentence translates (using an online English-to-French translator) to: "En l'an 1590, le 19 octobre, fut baptisé Claude fils de Claudin Ruttan et Catherine son épouse, parrain Georges Gouboux, marraine Marguerite fille de Hirton Thomas." This more-or-less matches the image snippet above, starting from "le 19" on. Ruttan, A Part of the Family of Ruttan, 6, page image 15 of 257 at <familysearch.org>, reproduces the true copy from which 10 Generations

Despite the page being labeled "1590 Octobre," the listings for October do not begin until past midway down the (leftmost) page. Hence, all reports of 19 Oct. 1590 (even the impressive image in H. Ruttan, certified by the mayor of St–Mihiel) are errors for 19 Sept. 1590.[4] The following record, from Metz, 21 Apr. 1613, is the marriage of Claude Rutan, clothier, son of Claude Rutan, furrier, [formerly?] of St-Mihiel, to Sara Bigene, daughter of Jean Bigene, clothier, of Metz:[5]

And the following record, from Metz, 28 Jan. 1615, is the baptism of Sara, daughter of Claude Rutan:[6]

So one of the two cited Rutan sources (three actually) has child Sara's baptismal date as the marriage date, and neither lists child Sara. This is not a complete analysis of these sources, but presents the gist that there are minor discrepancies in all of them.

Metz is an ancient city (3,000 years of history) located now in the far northeast of France near the point where France, Germany, and derived its information. The certification is invalid, as pointed out above.

4. As if further proof were needed, an index to the Eglise catholique: Paroisse de Saint-Mihiel (Meuse) church registers has "[1590] 19 7^{bre} Rutant Claude" [FHL 1352913, DGS 8106673, image 130 of 668 (↗)]. This index uses these months or abbreviations: Janvier, Fevrier, Mars, Avril, Mai, Juin, Juillet, Aout, 7^{bre}, 8^{bre}, 9^{bre}, and X^{bre}. There are many Rutants listed in this index.

5. Image attached to Sarah Bigene, 1590–1644, 9K8Y–5Z5, at <www.familysearch.org/memories/memory/158694288>, cropped to just the one record (no. 609). Top of page is dated 1613; two entries above no. 609 is the date "Le 21 avril." I cannot fully read nor translate this item but it is roughly: "609. Claude rutan drapier fils de [?] Claude rutan pelletier [?] [vinant?] [?] a S^{t} mihiel a sara bigene fille de Jean bigene drapier [?] metz."

Luxembourg join. It lies in the region of France known as the Alsace-Champagne-Ardenne-Lorraine region, often just called the Alsace-Lorraine. (At the FHL, use location France, Moselle, Metz.) It lies about 20 miles south of Luxembourg and 20 miles west of Germany. St. Mihiel (or Saint-Mihiel) lies in the same region, about 30 miles southwest of Metz. St. Mihiel lies about 30 miles northwest of Nancy. (At the FHL, use location France, Meuse, Saint-Mihiel.) Mannheim, Baden-Württemberg, Germany, lies about 100 miles or so east of Metz (slightly north of east).

THE ULSTER ERA—ESOPUS AND NEW PALTZ

[For full details, see section of the same name in the Record article.]

IDENTIFYING MARIE PETILION

[For full details, see section of the same name in the Record article.]

Another binding circumstance:

On 22 Aug. 1680, at Utrecht, Long Island, Barendye, a child of Arend Pral and Maria Pral was baptized, as recorded in the Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church register, with Isaak Sie and Hester Sie as witnesses.[7]

That is, a child of Arent Prall and his wife, Maria Billiou was baptized with Marie (See) Petilion's brother Isaac See and his wife, Hester, as witnesses. This ties the history of Wiltwyck (Kingston) and Long Island together. Recall that Marie Billiou, daughter of Peter and niece of Patentee Louis DuBois, married 1670 in Wiltwyck to Arent Jansen Praal, who would proceed to become an early settler of Staten Island in 1672. And Louis DuBois godfathered Daniel[2] in New Paltz in 1684.

7. Baptisms from the records of the Dutch Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of the Town of Flatbush, Kings Co., New York, 1:17, image 20 of 695 (↗), FHL 17663, DGS 7856435, "[date] Aug. 22, 1680 at Utrecht [child] Barendye [parents] Arend Pral | Maria Pral [witnesses] Isaak Sie | Hester Sie."

The See family is part of this bit of history too. We have proposed here that Marie Petilion, wife of Abraham[1] and mother of Daniel[2], was the daughter of Marie See and Jacques Petilion. Marie See is said to be the sister of Isaac See, who proceeded to be a settler in Philipsburg, N.Y.[8]

Glenna Hill's Record article 114 (1983): 96,[9] on the See family, has Isaac Sy granted land on Staten Island, 194 acres, on 29 Sept. 1677. Then sometime after 1684 (p. 97) they leased land in the Manor of Philipsburg. "The early member register of the Philipsburgh church lists #3 Isaac Sie Senr. And #4 Esther, his wife, #5 Isaac Sie, Junr., #46 Peter Sie and #47 Pironella, his wife, #48 Jacobus Sie and Catharine, his wife." In this same list of early members, #44 was Poulus[2] Rutan and #45 was his wife Angelica. So Isaac Jr., Peter, and Jacobus See were children of Isaac See Sr., who was brother of Marie (See) (Petilion) De Vouw. Marie Petilion, daughter of Marie (See) (Petilion) De Vouw, was Abraham[1]'s wife and Poulus[2]'s mother (and also Daniel[2]'s mother).

This appears in the Record article: Jaques Petillon married Marie Sy in Mannheim on 14 May 1661 [10, image 636 (↗)], transcribed by the author: "Jaques Petillon j. homme natif de Sailly en Flandres demeurant a Manheim et Marie Sy j. fille native de Guampe au pais Reconquis ont été maries en cette Eglise le 14 May 1661," and translated by him: "Jacques Petillon young man native of Sailly in Flanders residing in Mannheim and Marie Sy young woman native of Guampe in the Reconquered country have been married in this Church 14 May 1661." Sailly is near Lille in northern France, making Jacques Petilion a Walloon. The author has not identified Guampe.

8. Glenna See Hill, "New Information on the See and De Vaux Families," NYG&B Record 110 (1979): 100–101, however there is not a record proving Marie was Isaac's sister. In this article (p. 101), Riker is cited as claiming Marie was Isaac's daughter, but Hill disproves this by an age argument. So the sisterhood must be an assumption based on the Sees and De Vouws arriving together.

9. Glenna See Hill, "The See Family of Calais, France and the Manor of Philipsburgh," NYG&B Record 114 (1983): 96, "Governor Edmund Andros arrived in America from England on the ship Diamond, 22 October 1674...On board were several French refugee families among whom were Isaac See and Nicholas De Veaux and their families...The writer has never found any primary documentation to substantiate Riker's statement as to the ship Diamond's passenger list."

Placeholder. This is related obviously to the above: André Petillon and Marie Macheu had a child Marie, born 22 Feb. 1660 and baptized in Mannheim 26 Feb. 1660 [58, image 520 (↗)], with Jacques Petillon and Marie Si, jeune fille, as godparents. From the paragraph just above, we learn that these godparents married the next year. These were, of course, the parents of Marie Petilion of this book, wife of Abraham[1]. Here is my transcription of this item: "Andre Petillon et Marie Macheu Sa feme [the underline should be an overline] ont fait Batiser leur fille nomée Marie née le 22me fevrier 1660 et a esté Batisée le 26me dito et avens Pour Paraine Jacques Petillon et pour maraine Marie Si Jeune fille."

As is this: [43, image 652 (↗)] "André Petillon vef de Marie Machu et Sara Sy veve d'Isaac Gueman, ont recu la benediction nuptiale en notre Eglise le mecredy 24 Janr: 1677." My translation: André Petillon, widower of Marie Machu, and Sara Sy, widow of Isaac Gueman, received the nuptial blessing [wed] in our Church on Monday 24 Jan. 1677. This might be the marriage of brothers Jacques and André Petilion to sisters Marie and Sarah See. N.B., on the same register page is the marriage of Nicolas de Vaux, widower of Susanne Francois, to Suzanne Planq, widow of Jeremie Dubois, on 25 Apr. 1677.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE CHILDREN

This conclusion is reinforced by David Riker's Genealogical and Biographical Directory to Persons in New Netherland, Vol. 3,[10] which has these details for Tunis Janszen Pier, a Dutch person who arrived about 1665, settled in New York City, Bergen, and Second River (Belleville), N.J., died 1729 near Belleville, N.J., married 6 October 1684 "Bgn [Bergen], Catrina, d/o Thomas Fredericksz en (Cadmus). His surname is often mistaken as Spier." Riker lists seven children, not necessarily in birth order, quoted from Vol. 3 as follows:

+ 3 ii PAUL [PAULUS][2] RUTAN, married (1) MARIE-ANGELIQUE [ENGELTJE] DAVID [DAVIDSE], and had five children, married (2) ELIZABETH [LYBETJE] FOSEUR [FOSHAY etc.], and had five children.

4 iii DAVID[2] RUTAN, baptized 17 Apr. 1688 at New Paltz, Ulster Co.

5 iv ESTER [ESTHER][2] RUTAN, died 5 Aug. 1690, aged about 6 [sic] months.

+ 6 v PETER [PIERRE][2] RUTAN, married (1) GERTRUDE VAN DER HOEF [HOEVE] [HOEVEN], and had four children. This is my line. He married (2) ELIZABETH (—) VAN SICKLE.

7 vi HESTER[2] RUTAN, baptized 3 June 1694, Dutch Reformed Church, Kingston, Ulster Co., N.Y. She was not mentioned in her mother Mary's will of 19 Feb. 1712/3, when she would have been 18, almost 19, based on her baptism, which suggests that she probably had died before then.

However, there was a Hester Rutan, unidentified, who witnessed the baptism of a son Jacob of William[3] (Paul[2]) on 13 May 1753 at the Dutch church in Schraalenburgh.[13] The other witness was Jacob Rutan, who was not designated her husband as typical of this register. He was perhaps Jacob[3] (Paul[2]), William[3]'s brother, of whom we also have no further record than his baptism.

And there was a Hester Rattan, unaccounted for, who godmothered a son Paul of Eva[3] (Paul[2]) on 12 Feb. 1758 at the Dutch church in Acquackanonk.[14] The godfather was Thomas Steg. Recall that a Thomas Stegg was a neighbor of Abraham[1] in the 1699 deed. Eva[3] was half-sister of William[3] (and Jacob[3]).

Second Generation

2. DANIEL[2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married ARMTIE [HEREMPJE] HANSE SPIER.

Children:

+ 13 i ABRAHAM[3] RUTAN, born say 1712, probably at New Barbados Neck, Bergen Co., married SARAH [SAARTJE] VAN GELDER, and had at least four children.
+ 14 ii CATHARINA [TRYNTJE][3] RUTAN, born say 1716, probably at New Barbados Neck, Bergen Co., had a child probably out of wedlock, married CONRAD LEIN [LYN], who accepted her "alias Rutan" child probably born out of wedlock, and had 11 more children.
+ 15 iii JOHN [JOHANNES][3] RUTAN, born about 1725, "Roozendaal," married (1) AELTJE [AALTJE] VAN HOORN, and had nine children, married (2) ANTJE (NIX) BROUWER, and had one child.
+ 16 iv LEAH [LENA][3] RUTAN, probably born 1729, Second River, N.J., and baptized 9 Nov. 1729, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J., married JOHN [JOHANNES] MEYER, and had at least three children.

[For full details, see sketch of the same person in the Record article.]

3. PAUL [PAULUS][2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married (1) Tarrytown, N.Y., MARIE-ANGELIQUE [ANGELICA] [ENGELTJE] DAVID [DAVIDSE]. Paul married (2) ELIZABETH [LYBETJE] FOSEUR [FOSHAY etc.].

Children of the first marriage, to Marie-Angelique:

+ 17 i ABRAHAM[3] RUTAN, baptized 2 Aug. 1709, Philipsburg (Tarrytown), N.Y., married AELTJE VAN TESSEL [VAN TEXEL], and had four children.
+ 18 ii WILLIAM [WILLEM][3] RUTAN, baptized 8 Nov. 1710, Philipsburg, N.Y., married MARIA [MARYTJE] DEMAREST, and had at least nine children. Several of his children removed to Canada to form the Canadian branch of the family, denoted by the Ruttan form of the surname.

19 iii JACOB[3] RUTAN, baptized 25 Mar. 1712, Philipsburg, N.Y.

20 iv JACOB[3] RUTAN, baptized 25 or 26 May 1714, Philipsburg, N.Y. He was possibly the witness at the baptism of brother William[3]'s son, Jacob[4].[15]

21 v DANIEL[3] RUTAN, baptized 19 or 20 June 1716, Philipsburg, N.Y.[16] Oddly, the handwritten register has his father incorrectly as Daniel, but corrected to Paul in the printed version.

Children of the second marriage, to Elizabeth:

\+ 22 vi MARIA [MARYTJE][3] RUTAN, born in Philipsburg, baptized 19 Apr. 1720, Philipsburg, N.Y., married JOHN [JOHANNES] MANGEL [ROLL], and had three children.

\+ 23 vii EVA [EVAATJE][3] RUTAN, baptized 27 Sept. 1724, Hackensack, N.J., married HELMICH [HELMERICH] PETERSE VAN HOUTEN, and had five children.

24 viii JOHN[3] RUTAN, born 19 Oct. 1729, baptized 23 Nov. 1729, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J. Presumably died young.

\+ 25 ix JOHN [JOHANNES] P.[3] RUTAN, baptized 8 Aug. 1731, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, Bergen Co., N.J., married CATHALINE [CATHALYNTJE] SPIER, and had at least two children.

\+ 26 x DAVID[3] RUTAN, baptized 25 Oct. 1740, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., married CATHARINA BORD, and had at least four children.

6. PETER [PIERRE][2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married (1) 7 Nov. 1713, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, Bergen Co., N.Y., GERTRUDE VAN DER HOEF [HOEVE] [HOEVEN]. This is my line.

Known children of the first marriage, to Gertrude (with births after Rachel's estimated at 2-year intervals):

+ 27 i RACHEL[3] RUTAN, born in New Barbadoes Neck, Bergen Co., N.J., baptized 15 Apr. 1719, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City, married ABRAHAM VOLK, and had at least two children.

8. SUSANNA[2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married JOHANNES PIER.

Known children:

31 i JACOB[3] PIER, born 7 May 1725, baptized 13 July 1729 (with Cornelis[3]), Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J.

On a plaque in the vestibule of the Belleville church are listed its Revolutionary War Patriots, 62 of them, including "Jacob Pier" as the 11th name in the right hand column.

Stryker's Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War, p. 719: "Pier, Jacob. Captain Abraham Lyon's company, Second Regiment, Essex." So Jacob served as a Private in the Essex County Militia.

Pat Hatcher's Abstract of Graves of Revolutionary Patriots lists Jacob Pier, at the Dutch Ref Ch Cem, Belleville NJ 27. There is also a John Peer listed in the same place.

32 ii CORNELIS[3] PIER, born 25 June 1729, baptized 13 July 1729 (with Jacob[3]), Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J.

Possibly the Cornelius Peer, of Hanover Township, Morris County, who signed his will 29 April 1807, proved 21 May 1807. It mentions his wife Jenny, his son Peter Peer, daughter Polly Peer, and wife's daughter, Suckey Peer:

> 1807, April 29. Peer, Cornelius, of Hanover Twsp., Morris Co.; will of. Wife, Jenny, in addition to her right of dower, use of household goods and furniture, during her widowhood. After wife's decease household goods to be divided between son, Peter Peer, daughter, Polly Peer and wife's daughter, Suckey Peer. Son, Peter, home farm of 107 acres. Daughter, Polly Peer, the back lot of 16 acres. Executors—son, Peter Peer, and friend, Silas Cook. Witnesses—George Davenport, Abraham Peer, Moses Peer. Proved May 21, 1807.
> 1807, May 18. Inventory, $452.91; made by Phinehas Farrand and Nicholas Hiler. | File 1337 N.

33 iii SAMUEL[3] PIER, born 9 Nov. 1731, baptized 14 Nov. 1731, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J. Samuel Rattan and Maria Stoutenburg stood witness, but not identified as husband and wife.

The following might be the Samuel[3], son of Thomas Pier and Maria[2] Rutan. On 14 Sept. 1818, Samuel Peer of the Township of Pequannock, Morris Co., N.J., signed his will, and it was proved 1819 and inventory taken 1819. It mentions "my daughter Susannah [var. Susan] Peer," "my two grand sons Samuel Peer and Jacob Peer [no parent named]," "the heirs of my daughter Elizabeth, dec'd," "my daughter Catherine," "the heirs of my daughter Jane, dec'd," "the heirs of my son Jacob, dec'd," "the heirs of my daughter Rachel dec'd." The will was contested by Jemima Cook, Susanna Cook, David Hiler, Catherine Harriman. Since Jacob is the only son named, then the two grandsons must be his sons (assuming no daughter married a Peer).

34 iv JANNETJE[3] PIER, born 10 Jan. 173[5/]6, baptized 13 June 1736, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J.

35 v ?JOHANNES [JOHN][3] PIER, possibly the John Pier, yeoman, of Essex Co., N.J., who signed his will 11 June 1778, proved 27 June 1778, which mentions "my Eldest son Jacob," "my beloved Wife Dirickge," "my Children namely, Jacob, John, Cornelius, and Peter Peir," appoints wife Dirickje executrix and "my loving friend John Spier, and William Elsworth Jun^{r}" executors, witnessed by Garret Abeel, Jacob Van Wagener, Mathias Everse. If so, then the following is relevant:

> 1784, May 15. Spier, Cornelius, of Essex Co., farmer; will of. Wife, Susannah, £15 yearly. "My full request to my three daughters, hereafter mentioned, that in respect to a certain bond due from John Pier, my son-in-law, to Antje Basset, wherein I became security, that they the said Derrickye, Rachel and Garretye, shall pay their equal proportion to the discharging of said bond." Grandson, Jacob Pier, son of my daughter Derrickye and John Pier, deceased, because he is my eldest grandson, 40 shillings. Daughter Derrickye, widow of John Pier, deceased, the farm of 84 acres where I live; also land in the mountains of the Notch, about ½ a mile from said farm, of about 30 acres, which I bought of Abraham Smith; also ½ of a lot next thereto, which I bought of Harp Van Ryper, of about 20 acres; and to pay £15 to my wife as long as she lives. Daughters, Rachel, wife of Thomas Doremus, and Garritye, widow of Brant Jacobusse, 50 acres at the Plain, which land I had of my late father; also ½ of the land in the mountains of the Notch. Executors—son-in-law Thomas Doremus, and daughters Derrickye and Garritye. Witnesses—John Spier, Thomas Van Ryper, Charles Slade Fulwood. Proved Nov. 15, 1785. | Lib. 24, p. 341.

In which case, John Pier married DERRICKYE SPIER, daughter of Cornelius Spier. Note that Cornelius mentions "my late father" in his will. There is the following will, of 1767 in Essex Co., of a Frans [Francis] Spier, proved 1771, with eldest son Cornelius:

> 1767, Dec. 30. Spier, Frans [Francis], of Horse Neck, Essex Co., yeoman; will of. Eldest son, Cornelius Spier, 100 acres of land to be alotted to him, in the Great piece, and in the purchase of Horse Neck, over what I shall give him. Rest of real and personal estate to my 8 children, Cornelius Spier, Garret Spier, Jacobas Spier, Henry

> Spier, John Spier, Mary Spier, now the wife of Peter Mourisson, Helena Spier, now the wife of Henry Mandivildt, Sarah Spier, now the wife of John Wouterson. Executors—sons, Cornelius, Gerret and John. Witnesses—Henry Vander Hoof, Henry Fransco, Cornelius Low, Jr. Proved Jan. 8 1771. | Lib. K, p. 306.

9. MARIA [MARYTIE][2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married 26 Aug. 1721, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, Bergen Co., N.Y., THOMAS PIER.

Known children:

+ 36 i CATHERINE[3] PIER, born sometime after her parents' marriage of 26 Aug. 1721 and before sister Sarah (since Catherine is the eldest daughter in her father's will), married (according to that will) ROBERT SANDFORD [SANDVOORT], and had 11 children (possibly about half of them with another wife).

+ 37 ii SARAH [SAARTJE][3] PIER, born 28 Mar. 1729, baptized 1 May 1729, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J., married CHRISTIAN LOWRIER [LAURIER], and had three daughters.

+ 38 iii JANETTIE [JANE][3] PIER, born 10 Jan. 173[1/]2, baptized 10 Jan. 173[1/]2, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J., married — FREDERICKS, and had children.

+ 39 iv TEUNIS[3] PIER, born 3 Sept. 1734, baptized 10 Nov. 1734, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J., married ELINOR [NELLY] [NEELTJE] VREELAND, and had five children.

40 v SAMUEL[3] PIER, baptized 10 July 1737, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J. Witnesses were Samuel Rutan and Maria Stoutenburgh. Not mentioned in his father's will of 4 Feb. 1781. He might be the Samuel[3] son of Johannes Pier and Susannah[2] Rutan (q.v.).

+ 41 vi RACHEL[3] PIER, born 5 June 1740, baptized 29 June 1740, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), Essex Co., N.J., married DANIEL VREELAND, and had four children.

[For full details, see sketch of the same person in the Record article.]

11. SARA[2] RUTAN (1*Abraham*[1]) married CHARLES MORGAN, son of Thomas Morgan. See appendix G.

Children:

42 i MARIA[3] MORGAN, baptized 9 May 1725, Dutch Reformed Church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y.

43 ii THOMAS[3] MORGAN, baptized 11 Dec. 1726, Dutch Reformed Church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y. He must have died young. Witnesses were Thomas Morgan and Magdalena Staats, who had several children baptized about the same time as those of Charles Morgan, presumably Thomas's kinsman, and Sara Rutan, all in the same church.

N.B. This is the only baptism in this family in which Charles Morgan, the father, is designated Charles Morgan Jr.

44 iii ABRAHAM[3] MORGAN, baptized 28 June 1730, Dutch Reformed Church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y. The baptism of a child of Arent Praal and Marytje Bouwman was recorded just two items removed (on 7 June 1730) from Abraham's baptism.

45 iv CHARLES[3] MORGAN, baptized 30 July 1732, Dutch Reformed Church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y. "Jan Rol" [John Roll] was a witness.

46 v THOMAS[3] MORGAN, baptized 7 Apr. 1735, Dutch Reformed Church, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y.

Placeholder: Thomas Morgan married (licensed) 9 Mar. 1758, New York (province), Martha Spragg.

Placeholder: On 13 Nov. 1745, Jacob Spragg of Richmond Co., N.Y., "Victular," signed his will, and it was proved 18 Mar. 1745 [sic, therefore 18 Mar. 1745/6]. It mentions "my Son Joseph," "one Negro boy named Will," "the Rest of my Children (Viz[t]) Abigail Spragg Marg[aret? page edge torn] Spragg Sarah Spragg Martha Spragg Jehonah Spragg Phebe Spragg," "my beloved Wife Dorat[hy?, page edge torn] Spragg as my Executrix and John le Conte Esq[r] as my Executor." Witnesses: Nicholas Larzelere, Nathaniel Britton, and Daniel Stillwell. The wife's name is clarified in the proof to Dorathy (var. Darathy) Spragg.

12. SAMUEL[2] RUTAN (Abraham[1]) married 2 Sept. 1733 MARIA STOUGHTENBURGH.

Known children:

47 i MARIA[3] RUTAN, born 14 June 1747[17] (Figure 20, Bible records).

\+ 48 ii HENRY [HENDRICK][3] RUTAN, born 4 Mar. 1749, married (1) ANNETIE [ANN] —, and had one child, married (2) FRANCES [FRANCYNTJE] TOERS.

\+ 49 iii SAMUEL[3] RUTAN, born 3 July 1752, married MARIA [MARITJE] BRUYN [BROWN], and had at least four children.

Third Generation

The Daniel[2] Branch

13. ABRAHAM[3] RUTAN (3Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born say 1712, probably at New Barbados Neck, Bergen Co., N.J. He married 22 Feb. 1734, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J., SARAH [SAARTJE] VAN GELDER, who was baptized 24 May 1710, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, Bergen Co., N.Y., daughter of Jacobus Everse Van Gelder and Susanna De Vouw. Both Abraham[3] and Sarah were living in Rempug (probably Ramapo) at marriage.

From an article on the Van Gelders in the NYG&B Record:

> Sarah[3] [daughter of Jacobus[2] Van Gelder] bap. in Hackensack Dutch Church May 24, 1710. Wit: Jan Clase Romein & Lamentje, his wife. She is no doubt the Sarah Van Gelder who was one of the sponsors at the baptism, Oct. 6, 1725, of Philip, son of Johannes Van Deusen and Geertje Minthorne. (Rec. v.30, p.208.) On Feb. 22, 1734, she was married in the Acquackanonk, N.J., Dutch Church to Abram Ratan. . . .

Repeated from Abraham[1]'s sketch for convenience: Abram [Abraham[1]] Retan witnessed the baptism 21 Sept. 1707, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, of Maritie, daughter of Jacobus Van Gelder and Susanna De Vouw—that is, the baptism of Sarah Van Gelder's sister. The other witness was Margrita, second wife of Nicolas De Vouw. Recall that Susanna De Vouw was half-sister of Marie (Petilion) Rutan by our reckoning.

Baptisms witnessed by Abraham[3] Rutan and Sarah his wife:

1. 8 June 1735, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, of Abram, son of Willem Van Voorheese and Maria Van Gelder, Sarah Van Gelder's sister.[18]

18. Records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Hackensack, 169 (↗), "[child and date] Abram. | June 8. [1735] [parents] Willem Van Voorheese. | Maria Van Gelder. [witnesses] Abram Ratan and wife."

2. 25 Feb. 1741, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.Y., of Catryntje, daughter of Joseph and Sara Meeks.[19]
3. 18 Feb. 1754, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.Y., of Abraham, son of Johannes and Aaltje Rutan. Johannes was Abraham[3]'s brother John[3] Rutan (q.v.).[20]
4. 9 May 1762, Dutch Reformed Church, New York, of Maria, daughter of Martinus Esterle and Gouda Baers.[21]
5. 19 July 1767, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.Y., of Abram, son of Abram D. Brouwer.[22]
6. 1 Sept. 1769, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.Y., of Abraham, son of Johannis P. and Cathalyntje Rutan. Johannes P.[3] was son of Abraham[3]'s uncle Paul[2].[23]

So we have records for Abraham and Sarah Rutan of this sketch up to at least 1769. Sarah would have been 59 years old if she were born in 1710.

From Bergen County, New Jersey, Deed Records, 1689–1801, compiled by John David Davis:

> 1 Jul 1766, Abraham & Sarah Rutan, yeoman, of Saddle River, Bergen Co., New Jersey to Johannis van Winkle, yeoman, of same, £300, 100 acres . . . corner to Hannes Bricker. Signed Abraham (x) Rutan and Sarah (x) Rutan. Wit: Isaac Kingsland and Guilliam Bertholf.

23. Paramus, Bergen County, New Jersey, Dutch Reformed Church, Baptisms, 1740–1850 (Newark: 1935) (↗), 7 (↗), "[1769] Rutan, Johannis P. and Cathalyntje—Abraham—Sept. 1. | Wit: Abraham and Saartje Rutan."

Now we turn attention to the correction of an error in the Van Naerden genealogy, in a line from it that I quote again here for convenience:

> + 262. i. Abraham <Daniel> Rutan, who was born about 1710 and married Sarah <Jacobus> Van Gelder Rutan/Peterson.

This suggests that Sarah married a second time, to a Mr. Petersen. From the Hendrick Van Gelder family:

> She [Sarah who m. (1) Abram Ratan] is presumably the Sarah Van Gelder, widow of John Peterson, who, in her will dated Sept. 22, 1798, proved Mar. 19, 1799, left property to seven children, all by her second husband: " . . . all the remainder of my estate to my seven children, John, Cornelius, Peter and Sarah, wife of Teunis Kranck, Mary, wife of William Waterhouse, Elizabeth, wife of John Payne, and Nelly, wife of Abraham Presher." (NYW:15–150.)

But this makes no sense. If Sarah was at least 59 years old while still married to Abraham, then she would have been childless in any future marriage. She could not have married John Peterson and had seven children by him. This paragraph must "presumably" refer to a different Sarah Van Gelder.

Here is my reading of that will. Clearly this Sarah Van Gelder's first husband was Mr. Peterson:

On 22 Sept. 1798, "Sarah Van Gelder late Sarah Peterson widow" signed her will (as Sary Vangelder with her mark), and it was proved 19 Mar. 1799 in the City and County of New York. It mentions "my sons John Peterson, Cornelius Peterson and Peter Peterson," "my seven children the said John, Cornelius and Peter and Sarah the wife of Tunis Kranck, Mary the wife of William Waterhouse, Elizabeth the wife of John Payne and Nelly the wife of Abraham Presher." Executors: sons John and Cornelius Peterson. Witnesses: Peter McCarlen, Thomas Dawson, Peter Peterson.[24]

Known children (the first two males were probably named for the two grandfathers, Daniel[2] Rutan and Jacobus Van Gelder, and the first female was named perhaps for the maternal grandmother, Susanna De Vouw):

+ 50 i DANIEL[4] RUTAN, baptized 26 Jan. 1735, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, married MARGARITE [MARGRIETJE] STAGG [STEGG], and had at least five children. I think this probably should be: married WILLEMINA BOGERT, and had at least one child.
+ 51 ii SUSANNA[4] RUTAN, born at Paramus, N.J., baptized 3 Oct. 1736, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, married (1) GILLIAM [GUILIAM] DEMAREST, and had at least one child, married (2) ABRAHAM VANDERBEEK.
+ 52 iii JACOB [JACOBUS][4] RUTAN, baptized 25 Dec. 1738, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, married WILLEMPJE [WELHIMINA] BOGERT, and had at least three children.
+ 53 iv CATHARINA [CATRIENTYE][4] RUTAN, baptized 2 May 1741, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J., married JOHN [JOHANNES] POST, and had at least three children.
+ 54 v ?ABRAHAM[4] RUTAN, born say 1743, married SARAH WEBBER [WEBBERS], and had at least two children.
+ 55 vi JOHN [JOHANNES][4] RUTAN, baptized 28 Jan. 1753, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., married (1) SARA SPIER, and had one child, married (2) ELIZABETH LAKE, and had six children, married (3) RACHEL —.

14. CATHARINA [TRYNTJE][3] RUTAN (2Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born say 1716 (based on being about 16 at son Conrad's birth), probably at New Barbados Neck, Bergen Co. She married say 1735 (to accommodate son Conrad's illegimate birth about 1734) CONRAD LEIN [LYN], who was born about 1703/4 (see Jones item below), Germany, son of Conrad and Maria Margretha (—) Leyn, and died after he signed a codicil to his will on 2 June 1763 in Saddle River Pct., Bergen Co., and before his estate was proved on 12 Oct. 1769 (q.v.).

Hank Z. Jones, FASG, an expert on Palatine family immigration states this about Conrad (Sr.):

Conrad Lein aged 56, Maria Marga. Lein aged 46, Juiliana Lein aged 18, Margareta Lein aged 14, Anna Maria Lein aged 12, Abraham Lein aged 10, and Conrad Lein aged 7, were in N.Y. City in 1710/11 (Palatines In N.Y. City). Conrad[1] was mentioned in a vague reference in N.Y. Col. Mss. Vol. 57, p. 189b dated 1712. Conrad Lynus bought or leased 200 acres of land in 1713/14 on the Ramapo Tract in Bergen Co., N.J., and he bought several purchases of wheat, rye, peas, sugar, as well as a cow, horse, and a wagon that yr. (Ramapo Account Book). Conrad Lein and his wife Margretha with 6 ch. were at Hackensack ca. 1716/17 (Simmendinger Register). Papers in the estate of Conradt Lyne of Bergen Co., N.J. were issued 1 May 1738 and an inventory made of his personal property (N.J. Wills: Lib. C, p. 194). The ch. of Conrad[1] Lein and his wife were:

1) Anna Juliana[2] . . .
2) Margaretha[2] . . .
3) Anna Maria[2] . . .
   Abraham[2] . . . md. Maria (—) and had issue: . . . ii) Maria[3], bpt. 1743 . . .
5) Conrad[2] (Palatines In N.Y. City). He md. Catharina Rutan, a wid. (HJ) . . .[25]

Notice particularly the "(HJ)" notation in item 5). It means that the item was strongly believed by Hank Jones, but not proved. In this case, he conjectured that Catharine was a widow. Our proposal, after talking further details with Hank, is that she probably was not.

The following record suggests that the Lein family and the Rutan family were interconnected by about 1741:

Coenraad Leen and Marytie Leen witnessed the baptism, 2 May 1741, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J., of Catherine[4], daughter of Abraham[3] Rutan (Daniel[2]) and Sara.[26] These Leens were probably Conrad Lein and Maria Marga. Lein, parents of the current Conrad Lein (cf. Conrad[1] and Conrad[2] in the Hank Jones treatment).

In 1743, on 28 or 29 May, Coenraet Lyn and Tryntje [Catharine] witnessed a baptism at the Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, Bergen Co., N.J., of Maria, daughter of Abraham Lyn and Marytje.[27] Cf. Jones child item 4).

On 19 Sept. 1744, Coenraet Leyn and Tryntje Leyn witnessed a baptism at the Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, Bergen Co., N.J.[28]

On 10 Apr. 1756 Conraed "lÿn?" and Catrina Ratan were registered as members of the Dutch Reformed Church at Pompton Plains.[29] This record strongly suggests that her maiden name was Rutan.

On 14 Nov. 1756, Coenraad Lyn witnessed a baptism at the Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, Bergen Co., N.J., of Adrian, son of Peter Van Houten and Rachel.[30] Rachel was Rachel[4] Lein.

On 31 July 1761, Coenraad Lyn and Tryntje Lyn witnessed a baptism at the Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, Bergen Co., N.J.[31]

On 24 July 1763, Coenraad Lyn and Tryntje Lyn witnessed a baptism at the Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, Bergen Co., N.J., presumably of a grandson.[32]

Conrad[4] (Jr.) signed his will 23 Sept. 1755, Saddle River Pct., Bergen Co., N.J., and a codicil was added 2 June 1763, but the estate was not proved until 12 Oct. 1769 as per the following abstract:

> 1755, Sept. 23. Liens, Coonrad, of Saddle River Precinct, Bergen Co., yeoman; will of. Son, Daniel, a gun. Wife, Cathren, all real and personal while my widow. The place where I live to be divided into 3 parts; one lot to go to Coonrad Liens (alias Rutan), a son that my wife had before I married her, and one lot to my son, Daniel, and the third lot to my son, Abraham. Son, Peter, ½ of two other small lots, and the other ½ to my son Henry. Son, John Liens, a maintainance from Coonrad Liens, Alice [sic, probably "alias"] Rutan, Daniel Liens, Abraham Liens, Peter Liens and Henry Liens. Daughter, Rachel Liens, £20. After death or marriage of my wife, the personal estate to be divided among Coonrad Liens (alias Rutan), my sons, Daniel Liens, John Liens, Peter Liens, Abraham Liens, Henry Liens, and my daughters, Rachel Liens, Margret Liens, Magdalen Liens, Catherin Liens. Executor—son, Daniel. Witnesses—Joost Beam, Joseph Bartram and Coonrad Beam.

Conrad[3]'s will suggests that Conrad[4], Daniel[4], and Abraham[4] were his senior sons (not counting John[4] for whom there seems to have been a problem—a "maintainance" was provided). The will lists the daughters separate from the sons, in this order: Rachel, Margaret, Magdelen, and Catharine.

Child of Catharine, probably born out of wedlock with Conrad Sr., given his name and the fact that Conrad Sr. treated him as a son, in his will for example:

\+ 56 i CONRAD[4] LEIN [alias RUTAN], born about 1734, married CLARISSA [CLARACY] [CLAARTJE] VAN HOUTEN, and had 11 children.

Children of the marriage to Conrad Lein (many of these children were baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church at Pompton Plains, north of the Passaic River, consistent with Conrad Lein's location in the Ramapo Tract—see Jones), in uncertain order in some cases but adhering more or less to the order of their father's will:

\+ 57 ii RACHEL[4] LEIN, born say 1736 married PETER VAN HOUTEN, and had at least seven (probably at least nine, according to Nelson) children.

\+ 58 iii DANIEL[4] LEIN, born say 1741, married MARGARETHA [MARGRIET] —, and had at least four children.

59 iv JOHN [JOHANNES][4] LEIN, baptized 16 June 1742, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J.[34] This is another strong record suggesting that Catharina's maiden name was Rutan. John was provided a "maintainance" from brother Daniel in their father's will, suggesting that John had some physical or mental disability.

\+ 60 v ABRAHAM[4] LEIN, born 12 Oct. 1746, baptized 26 Oct. 1746, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J., married MARGARET [MARGARETHA] BEEM, and had at least two children.

61 vi HENRY [HENDRICK][4] LEIN baptized 4 Dec. 1748, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J.[35] Their father's will suggests that sons Henry and Peter were next in line (but not necessarily in that order).

63 viii MARGRET[4] LEIN, born say 1750 (relative to the following two children).

[Not listed in Jones, Palatine Families of New York, Vol. 1.]

67 xii ANTHONY [ANTONIE][4] LEIN, born 6 Apr. 1758, after 23 Sept. 1755 when his father's will was first signed and in which he was not mentioned. Anthony was underage at the signing of the codicil to his father's will on 2 June 1763. He was baptized 30 Apr. 1758, Dutch Reformed Church, Pompton Plains, N.J.[38]

39. This is the earliest mention of Rosendaal in this article. Fisher, The Rutan Family in France and America, 53, "he [Daniel[2]] and his wife were living on his father's plantation which was then known as Rosendaal, named after the city of Rosendaal in Holland," stated with no source citation. And there is no known reason why Rosendaal in Holland would be meaningful to the Rutans from France. It does seem possible that Rosendaal was the name of Daniel[2]'s residence from about 1725 on, but not the earlier plantation on the Kingsland-Berry Line.

And Rosendaal appears to have been near Wyckoff. Harvey, Genealogical History of Hudson and Bergen, 39, "John and William Van Voorhys, John Rutan, and John Berdan had procured grants and were located at what is now Wyckoff, where later families named Van Horn, Halstead, Ackerman, Winter, Van Blarcom, Stur, Folly, and others located." The surnames in boldface all appear in the Romopock tracts (appendix L), suggesting that Daniel[2]'s tract there was his Rosendaal estate and hence near Wyckoff.

Brouwer born 16 June 1776).[40] He married (1) 26 Dec. 1746, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack (also recorded at Pompton Plains), Bergen Co., N.J.,[41] AELTJE [AALTJE] VAN HOORN, who was born 19 Sept. 1728 in "Weezel" [Wesel, an Acquackanonk neighborhood] and was living at marriage in Wyckhoff [Wyckoff], Bergen Co., N.J., baptized 13 Oct. 1728, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J.,[42] daughter of Barent Van Hoorn and Rachel Aeltse.[43] Aeltje must have died sometime after 1768 (her youngest child's birth) and before say 1781, as required by this next item: John married (2) before the 1781 birth of a child with this new wife ANTJE (NIX) BROUWER, who was born 1 Apr. 1738, baptized 23 Apr. 1738 at Tappan Reformed Church, Tappan, N.Y., daughter of Peter and Cornelia (De Graw) Nix (see Brouwer data below). Antje was a widow of her Brouwer husband by mid 1776 (see baptism record below for "Widow Antje Brower" and her child Jacobus Brouwer) and had birthed a child, Sara, with her second, her Rutan husband, on 10 Nov. 1781 (q.v.). This implies that she had married John[3] Rutan by early 1781 at the latest. She would have been about 43 in 1781.

On 23 Oct. 1785, Johannes Rutan and "Antye Nuks" witnessed the baptism of Sara Rutan, daughter of Hendrick Rutan and Antye Lint (I

Placeholder. Hendrick Rutan, son of David Rutan and Hillegonda Webbers, was baptized 23 June 1771, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City.[45]

Re Hendrick: Keegan, Second Index has Hendrick born "1762/71," son of David Rutan and Hillegond Webbers, and married to Antye Lent. [p. 9]. Also, Keegan has [p. 7] David[3], son of Paul[2] and Elizabeth Foshay, and married (1) Catherina Bord, married (2) Hillegond Webbers. But we have established that David[3] (Paul[2]) had children with Catherine Bord from 1766 to 1774. And the preceding paragraph shows that Hendrick was born in 1771, not 1762. Therefore, David who was father of Hendrick could not have been married to Catherina Bord at the same time. So Keegan is wrong.

N.B., I have David Banta married to Hillegond Webbers elsewhere.

Vetting notes, for the above: From the footnotes I have provided, it is clear that I was able to vet the births or baptisms of seven of the eight children. Only Petrus eluded me. I was also able to vet the father Abraham Brouwer's birth and (approximate) death (based on the "widow" record), and his spouse's name. I vetted Antje Nix's baptism from the Kelly book of Tappan baptisms. Her marriage to Abraham Brouwer in 1758 is probably an estimate based on the eldest child's birth (David Brouwer, born 7 Oct 1759, appropriately named for his paternal grandfather). Oddly missing from this Brouwer data is any mention of the Rutan marriages of (1) John[3] to widow Antje Nix Brouwer, or (2) Daniel[4] to Jannetje Brouwer, Antje's child from her first marriage.

But it all fits when we assemble the Brouwer and Rutan components: As regards John[3] Rutan's second marriage, they married after Antje (Nix) Brouwer was declared a widow in the 16 June 1776 baptism record of her son Jacobus Brouwer. And they married before early 1781, based on their child Sarah[5] Rutan's 10 Nov. 1781 birth. For this marriage range of 1776–1781, Antje's daughter Jannetje Brouwer (born 1765) would have been about 11–16, and John[3]'s son Daniel[4] Rutan (born 1756) would have been about 20–25. Daniel[4] married Jannetje, probably after her mother Antje married his father 1776–1781 and brought a nubile young woman into the presence of an unrelated nubile young man, and before the 9 Aug. 1787 birth of the young couple's first child, John[5]. If they did not marry until say late 1786, then Jannetje would have been about 21, and Daniel[4] about 30. But this unusual circumstance argues against its validity. Perhaps it was just a little too weird. More likely, John's son Daniel[4] married Rachel Berdan with none of this familial baggage, and the Daniel who married Jannetje was from some other family, not too intimately connected.

The Van Riper genealogy in Nelson's History of Paterson and Passaic Co., N.J., in his treatment of the Van Riper family, documents the adoption of the place name, first van Rypen, from Rypen in North Jutland, modifying usually into Van Riper:

> In April, 1663, Jurianen[1] Thomasse (Uriah, son of Thomas) from Rypen, in North Jutland, sailed from Holland in T'Bonte Koe, "the Spotted Cow," in company with eighty-seven other passengers—men, women and children—in quest of fortune in the New Netherlands.

In a footnote to the above, Nelson states:

> The descendants of Juriaen Thomasse were among the last of the Acquackanonk settlers to adopt a family surname, but for a century or more rang the changes on Juriaense, Thomasse, Aeltse, Gerritse, Jansse, Harmsse, etc., etc.

Juriaen Thomasse had son Aelt. Aelt–Juriaen Thomasse (to use Nelson's nomenclature) had daughter Rachel, who was thus Rachel Aeltse. Here is Nelson's treatment of her (which matches the records we have of her, child no. 5):

> V. Rachel, m. Barend van Hoorn, both being of Acquackanonk, Nov. 17, 1727. Issue: 1. Aeltje, b. Sept. 19, 1728, at Wesel; m. Johannes Ruthan, Dec. 26, 1746; he was b. at Rosendale; at the time of his marriage he lived in Bergen county, and she lived at Wyckoff; . . .

Rosendale, Roozendaal, Rosendal, etc. is a problem location in Rutan genealogy. There is currently a Rosendale, Ulster Co., N.Y., which is sometimes taken for this mysterious location, but Rosendale, N.Y., is a 19th-century creation. The following explanation is probably the correct one, although no authority is cited:

> At the time of his [Daniel[2] Rutan's] marriage to Antje [sic] Spier, March 4, 1710, Daniel was 26½ years of age. Shortly after this he and his wife were living on his father's plantation which was then known as Rosendaal, named after the city of Rosendaal in Holland. This area became known as Rosendale. It was on this plantation the couple raised their children.

Here is the Van Naerden entry for Johannes (errors in red):[48]

265. Johannes <Daniel> Rutan, who was born 1725 at Rosendaal, Ulster County, New York and died 1787 at 62 years of age.

This last is wrong: Sara Ratan was born 10 Nov. 1781 to Johannes Ratan and Antye Nix, baptized 13 Dec. 1781, Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, Bergen Co., N.J. (q.v.).

Known children (facts in red from the Van Naerden genealogy, unvetted):

\+ 68 i JOHN [JOHANNES][4] RUTAN, baptized 26 Nov. 1749, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., married (1) MARIA —, and had two children, married (2) JANE [JANNETJE] BLAUVELT, and had at least six children.

\+ 69 ii ?SAMUEL[4] RUTAN, born 1752, married MARGRIETJE BANTA, and had two children

\+ 70 iii BARENT [BARNET][4] RUTAN, born 1753, Wykhoff, married ANNATJE VAN RYPE [RYPEN] [RIPER], and had seven children.

\+ 71 iv ABRAHAM[4] RUTAN, baptized 18 Feb. 1754, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., might have married REBECCA KASINE, and had at least one child.

[Major Placeholder: Two competing Daniels. First, we show that they cannot be the same person: In 1787, each had a child born and baptized but with different women: John[5] with Jannetje Brouwer, and Daniel[5] with Rachel Berdan. The childbirth years for Jannetje Brouwer, 1787–1805, overlap the childbirth years for Rachel Berdan, 1780–1803.]

\+ 72 v DANIEL J.[4] RUTAN, born 7 Mar. 1755, baptized 15 Apr. 1756, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J, married JANNETJE [JANE] [JENNY} BROUWER, and had five children. It is a strange fact that his putative father John[3] married her mother, Antje Nix Brouwer. But that doesn't force us to believe John[3] was his actual father.

[Major Placeholder: The other Daniel: I'm going with this one to avoid the strange familial situation the other Daniel forces. I believe the additional arguments listed below justify this choice. The problem then becomes: where do we place the other Daniel[4]?]

\+ 73 DANIEL[4] RUTAN, married RACHEL BERDAN, and had nine children. This Daniel seems like the one who fits because: (1) putative brother

Thomas[4] married Christina Berdan, Rachel Berdan's sister. (2) His putative sister Catherine[4] and husband Henry Foreman are mentioned as witnesses to baptisms of one (possibly two) of Daniel[4] and Rachel's children. (3) Some of his descendants (Catharine[5] and her husband William Joline, for example; also Susan[5] and her husband Joseph Lemoine) live in the vicinity of Leah[4] Rutan (next) and Samuel T. Moore.

\+ 74 vi LEAH[4] RUTAN, born about 1762, married SAMUEL T. MOORE, and had at least six children.

\+ 75 vii THOMAS[4] RUTAN, born about 1763, married CHRISTINA [CORSTYNTJE] BERDAN, and had four children.

76 viii CATHERINE[4] RUTAN, born 1767, married 31 May 1787, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City,[49] HENRY FOREMAN.

Placeholder: Daniel Rutan, son of John Rutan and Susanna Storm, was born 17 Jan. 1799, baptized 1 Mar. 1799, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City. Witnessed by Henry Foreman and his wife, Catharine (Rutan).[50] John Rutan married 17 Sept. 1797, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City,[51] Susanna Storm.

Henry and Catherine[4] (Rutan) Foreman witnessed the baptism 1 June 1787, of a child, Daniel[5], of Daniel[4] Rutan and Rachel Berdan.[52] Daniel[4] was presumably her brother.

Henry and Catherine[4] (Rutan) Foreman witnessed the baptism 17 Jan. 1799, of a child, Daniel[5], of John[4] Rutan and Susanna Storm.[53]

John[4] was possibly her brother. Not unless John remarried Susanna Storm.

\+ 77 ix HARMAN[4] RUTAN, born 24 May 1768, married CHLOE LOBDELL, and had at least two children.

Child of the second marriage, to Antje (Nix) Brouwer (recall that she would have been about 43 at this birth):

78 x SARAH[4] RUTAN, born 10 Nov. 1781, baptized 13 Dec. 1781, Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, N.J.[54] Probably she who married 4 Dec. 1799, at "a Congretation in the Clove wantage in the County of Sussex By the Name of the Congregation of the Clove the Clove And its Vecinity,"[55] JACOB STRUBLE. He was perhaps the Jacob Struble, 87, so born about 1772, widower, a farmer born in New Jersey, who died in Oct. 1859 in West Milford Twp., Passaic Co., N.J., of "Gravel."[56]

If so, then he was son of John Jacob Struble and Anna Margaret.

N.B., the Old Clove Church still exists in Wantage, Sussex Co., N.J., as a wedding site. It was established as a Dutch Reformed Church in 1787. When its minister, Rev. Elias Van Bunshooten died in 1815, the church voted to disband. On 11 Aug. 1818 they and three other churches was organized as the First Presbyterian Church of Wantage.[57]

16. LEAH [LENA][3] RUTAN (3Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was probably the unnamed child born 1729, Second River, and baptized 9 Nov. 1729, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J.[58] She married 27 Sept. 1745, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack, Bergen Co., N.J.,[59] JOHN [JOHANNES] MEYER, born in Hackensack, N.J., baptized 12 Oct. 1729, "in the church at Hakkinsak," son of Martin Meyer and Gerretje.[60] Leah was living in Rosendal at marriage, and John in Paramus.

I was led astray by the following Voorhees genealogy, from Albert L. Stokes, The Van Voorhees Family, 1984:[61]

> 323 Jan W. Van Voorhees (Willem[3]—Albert[2]—Steven[1], son of Willem Van Voorhees and Maria Van Gelder, was born September 5, 1730, probably at Wyckoff (Saddle River), N.J. area where his parents had a large acreage since 1720. He married, date unknown, Lea Rutan, daughter of Daniel as evidenced by the baptism of their second son. Jan and Lea lived in the Paramus area all their lives. Date and place of death have not been found.

A cited source, in turn, for this family is Elias W. Van Voorhis, A Genealogy of the Van Voorhees Family in America, 1883, which has this rendition:[62]

> Jan [child no. 8, son of William Albertse Van Voorhees and Maria Van Gelden (or Van Gelder)], b. Sept. 5, 1730; d. ; m. Leah . . ., b. ; d. He resided at Wyckoff, Bergen Co., New Jersey, and his descendants write the family name "Van Voorhis." Had children:

This item is listed adjacent to two Rutan baptisms for children of William and Marytje, and of Johannes and Aaltje, respectively. Johannes is John[3] (Daniel[2]), Leah's brother. William is William[3] (Paul[2]).

64. U.S., Dutch Reformed Church Records in Selected States, 1639–1989, Paramus, N.J., Vol. I, Book 67, handwritten, 147, image 79 of 224 at <Ancestry.com>, "[child and date] Daniel | Feb. 5 | 1769 [parents] Jan W. V. Voorheese. | Lea ditto [witnesses] Abram Rutan. | Saartje ditto."

f. Jacobus, bap. Feb. 21, 1773 (twin); d.

So the underlying Elias W. Van Voorhis source does not claim that Leah was Leah Rutan. That leap was made by Albert L. Stokes, who probably made the leap based on this evidence: (1) The second male child (by Stokes's reasoning) was named patronymically for Leah Rutan's father, the maternal grandfather, Daniel. (2) The children's baptisms were entwined with those of Rutan children or witnessed by Rutans. I have supplied footnotes to the Van Voorhees baptisms to demonstrate this fact. Nevertheless, the leap to Leah Rutan is incorrect, I believe. Note that none of the baptism records state Leah's maiden surname. Also, it is not clear to me that Daniel was the second-born male. The Van Voorhis source has him as first-born. Yes, but notice the Rutans as witnesses in several of the baptisms.

Known children:

and Cornelius Meyer was perhaps brother (see below) of Johannes Meyer.

According to the Banta Genealogy, Johannes[3] Meyer's brother Isaac Meyer [Myer] had a daughter Rachel Myer who married first — Post, then married second John Durand and had child Asher Brown Durand! And Rachel Myer's brother Benjamin Myer married first Sarah Riggs![69]

81 iii LENA[4] MEYER, baptized 4 Nov. 1755, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[71]

82 iv ?CORNELIS[4] MEYER, baptized 5 Aug. 1760, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[72] I am uncertain of this child because of the I. in the father's name (and also because of the unusual use of Leentje for Lena or Leah; the other three don't use it). But Johannes J. Meyer would make sense as his father—that is, if the "I" were instead a "J".

The Paul[2] Branch

17. ABRAHAM[3] RUTAN (3Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was baptized 2 Aug. 1709, Dutch Reformed Church, Philipsburg (Tarrytown), Westchester Co., N.Y.,[77] with Abraham Rutan and his wife, Mary [Maria], as witnesses. The only Abraham and Mary this could possibly have been were the patriarchs, Abraham[1] Rutan and his wife Mary Petilion, still alive in New Jersey in 1709. They must have traveled to Tarrytown for this momentous baptism, the first grandson named Abraham. Abraham[3] died by 29 Mar. 1790, under the scenario painted here, when an administrator was appointed (q.v.) for his intestate estate, his last residence being Mount Pleasant (near Tarrytown), Westchester Co., N.Y. He married say 1754, before 14 Apr. 1755 (baptism of first child, q.v.), AELTJE VAN TESSEL [VAN TEXEL], who was born about 1732, although I do not have a record of her birth or marriage.

There was an Aeltje Van Tessel born 7 Dec. 1705,[78] baptized 25 Mar. 1706, Dutch Reformed Church, Phillipsburg (Tarrytown), N.Y.,[79] daughter of Cornelius [Cornelis] Van Tassel and his first wife Antje Storm.[80]

78. Glenna See Hill, "Family Record: Van Texel/Van Tassel, 1668–1720," NYG&B Record 120, 3 (1989): 134–136, reports a newly discovered record (in Dutch) giving family details for "Cornelis[3] van Texel (Van Tassel) of Philipsburgh (Tarrytown)" and his two wives (1) Antje Storm and (2) Wintje Crancheÿdt [Kraukheyt]. Among the six children listed for Antje is this item: "1706 den 7 deeseember sÿn mÿn 2 dochteren gebooren," with this translation: "My two daughters were born 7 December 1706." But the article further states, "by comparison with the church record it appears that Maeryttie, Antje, the two unnamed daughters (baptized Aeltje and Hester) and the first Jacobus (Jaakobes) were all born one year earlier than their father recorded."

79. First Record Book of the "Old Dutch Church of Sleepy Hollow" organized in 1697 and now The First Reformed Church of Tarrytown, N.Y., 29, baptisms, "[March 25, 1706] [parents] 115. Cornelius Van Texel, | 116. Antje his wife. } [children] Aeltje, | Hester. [witnesses] Ester Storm, | Aeltje Van Texel."

80. Carolyn Nash, "Maria Peters, Wife of Dirck Storm, and Daughter of Peter Teunissen Huytben and Dircxken Jacob Aerts," NYG&B Record 140, 4 (2009): 251, "x. Antje Storm, born by say 1674 (estimating marriage at 21) in Flatbush or Brooklyn; married by sa 1695 Cornelis Van Tassel."

But this Aeltje could not be the mother of the four children baptized 1755–1769 listed below, because she would have been 50–64 at their births.

So there must have been a younger Aeltje Van Tessel, born say 1730–1735, who bore the children listed in this sketch, from 1755–1769 in Tarrytown. A candidate who leaps out of the New York records is Altje Van Tessel, daughter of Hendrick Van Tessel and Metje Krankheyt, baptized in the Dutch Reformed Church of Fishkill, N.Y., on 6 Apr. 1735, with Williem Vantessel and Liea [Lisa?] Vantessel as witnesses.[81]

Hendrick Van Tessel and Metje Kranckhydt witnessed two baptisms on 28 May 1764, at the Fishkill church, one for a son of Hendrick Van Tessel and Maria Scot, and the other for a daughter, Sara, born 14 Apr. 1764, with only one parent listed, Altje Van Tessel.[82] This, however, conflicts with Aeltje Van Tessel of Tarrytown, clearly bearing children of different names with an Abraham Rutan there about the same time.

Abraham[3] would have been about 14 when his father and stepmother moved to Bergen County, New Jersey, in about 1723 (half-sister Maria[3] was baptized in Tarrytown in 1720 and half-sister Eva[3] in Hackensack in 1724). His brother William[3] was about a year younger and married in Hackensack in 1731, so it is reasonable to assume that Abraham[3] removed to Bergen County with his father, brother, stepmother, and half-sister. It is also reasonable that he might have married a first wife there, and had children there, then perhaps moved back to Tarrytown for his second marriage in say 1754. This hypothetical Abraham[3] would have been 21 in about 1730 for a possible first marriage about then, and perhaps a first child born say 1731.

Two records have caused speculation in the genealogy of this family:

Record 1. The baptism at the Schraalenburgh church, 15 Apr. 1739, of Abraham [Abram][4], son of Abraham[3] (Paul[2])'s brother William[3] Ratan and his wife Marjitjin [Marie] Demaree, was witnessed by Abram Ratan and Zara Demarest.[83] Importantly, Zara is not specified to be witness Abram's wife, whereas most husband-wife witness teams in this register are so identified. It was probably William[3]'s brother, Abraham[3], age about 30, who witnessed this baptism, but it is unlikely that Zara Demarest was his wife. However, she might well have been Sara Demarest, Marie's younger sister,[84] who would have been about 19 at this baptism.[85] In fact, Sara married Cornelis Van Houten at Schraalenburgh church, 13 Dec. 1739, shortly after this baptism.[86]

Record 2. The baptism at the New York City church, 26 May 1761, of Catharina[5], daughter of Gulian DeMarre [Demarest] and Susanna Rethan—that is, Susanna[4] Rutan (Abraham[3], Daniel[2])—was witnessed by "Abraham Rethan & wife Sara DeForeest."[87] So there was an Abraham Rutan

I looked carefully to see if "DeForeest" could be read "DeMoreest." It could not. On the very same line is the date "May 26" with a very clear "M". And the first uppercase "F" I found for comparison was on the married to a Sarah DeForest in 1761. (I have inspected the handwritten version of this record, and there is no doubt that the surname is DeForeest, and not DeMarest as sometimes suggested.)

Two main scenarios are suggested that attempt to reconcile these two records:[88]

The 1-Abraham Scenario. Abraham[3], born 1709, married just once, in Tarrytown in say 1754, at age about 45, to an Aeltje Van Tessel, younger than himself, say 23, so born about 1732, and had the four children with her, 1755–1769, then he died in 1790 at about 81. He would have had the children at ages about 46–60. Records exist for all these events except for the exact dates of the younger Aeltje Van Tessel's birth and of her marriage to Abraham. This is a parsimonious solution, but requires ignoring the Abraham with wife Sarah DeForest in 1761. This is because the Abraham[3] hypothesized here was having children with Aeltje Van Tassel in 1761.

The 2-Abraham Scenario. Abraham[3], born 1709, married, say 1730, Sarah DeForest, and they had a son, Abraham[4], born about 1731. Abraham[4] married Aeltje Van Tassel, born about 1731, of Tarrytown in 1754, and had the four children. Abraham[3] lived until after the 1761 baptism. Abraham[4] lived until 1790. The problems here are many: There is no record of the marriage of Abraham[3] to Sarah DeForest. Nor of the birth of Abraham[4]. Nor of the death of Abraham[3]. In addition to the missing records for Aeltje Van Tessel's birth and marriage, as in the preceding scenario.

I suggest proceeding with the 1-Abraham Scenario, which means that the "other Abraham," the one who married Sarah DeForest, is an unknown entity. I argue that this "other Abraham" seems to be a New York City item whereas the hypothetical Abraham[3] (in the 2-Abraham Scenario) very next page of the register, for "Francyntje" Brouwer. The "F" features a little slanted loop for its middle bar, exactly as in "DeForeest."

88. An amalgamation of several items in Keegan, A Second Rutan Family Index, 1, and A Third Rutan Family Index, 1, which cite Mackenzie, NJGS (New Jersey Genealogical Society), and the DAR Library in Washington DC, and identifies Sarah DeForest with Sarah Demarest, citing NJGS.

should be a northern New Jersey item. When I look over the many Abrahams Rutan in the extended Rutan genealogy, there is one who appears a more natural fit than the hypothesized Abraham[3] (Paul[2]) of (say) Schraalenburg, N.J, or surrounds. He is Abraham[4] (?Abraham[3], Daniel[2]) who started baptizing children in the New York church in 1766 (of wife Sarah Webber; however). I have no proof at all that he might have first married Sarah DeForest, for the 1761 baptism in New York, then married before say 1765, Sarah Webber.

On 29 Mar. 1790 an administrator William Ruton, of Mount Pleasant, Westchester Co., was appointed administrator for the intestate estate of Abraham Ruton, late of the same place. So this would be, in the proposed scenario, the death of Abraham[3] Rutan, managed by his son William[4] Rutan, baptized at Tarrytown on 14 Apr. 1761.[89] On 19 Sept. 1843, William[4]'s widow, Rachel, applied for a Revolutionary War pension based on his service in the New York Line, and it was granted.[90]

On 11 Mar. 1767, Johannes Van Tessel and Ragel [Rachel] his wife had a child, Leeiaa, who was baptized "late in the year", witnessed by "Abraam Ratan" and his wife. Since "Aberam Ratan" and "Aeltie" his wife were listed three pages later, in 1768, it is assumed that Aeltie is the unnamed wife in this record (no. 1941).[91]

This record item (no. 1941) has this additional note: "The month and day here must have been late in the year, as one of the children (No. 1949) is born as late as November 4th."

On 30 Oct. 1770, "Aberam Ratan," and "Aeltie" Van Tessel, his wife, became members of the "Old Dutch Church of Sleepy Hollow," the Dutch Reformed Church, Tarrytown, Westchester Co., N.Y.[92]

On 1 Apr. 1775, a judgment was filed in the case of Abraham "Ratan," defendant, in a New York state lawsuit brought by John Leveradge, plaintiff, regarding a debt.[93]

In 1779–1780, Abraham Rutan and several Van Tessels—all of Westchester Co., N.Y.—were bound together in a Revolutionary War event that did not turn out well:

> David Van Tassel: Born in Westchester County, N.Y., June 28, 1743;[94] served in Capt. Honeywell's Co., 1st Westchester County, N.Y. Militia (Col. Van Bergen) from July 1, 1779, to Nov. 5, 1780; with Lieut. Jacob Van Tassel, Isaac Van Tassel, Abraham Van Tassel, Abraham Rutan and Isaac Delameter, lay in the brush near Kingsbridge one night, gained much information, captured two prisoners, and started for the American lines, but the whole part was taken by the enemy at Croton River; David was not released until Nov. 5, 1780.—Vincent Maurice Murier.[95]

However, there appears to be an error here, confusing Abraham[3] Rutan with his son William[4] Rutan (q.v.), discussed further in his sketch. Abraham[3] Rutan, by our scenario, would have been about 70 in 1779. Nevertheless, notice that a Jacob Van Tassel and a David Van Tassel serve as baptism witnesses in the children list below.

As already mentioned, on 29 Mar. 1790, William "Ruton" of Mount Pleasant, Westchester Co., N.Y., was appointed administrator of the William Rutan and his wife Marÿtie witnessed 15 Apr. 1750, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.,[107] the baptism of Jannet Van Houte, born 30 Mar. 1750 to Cornelius Van Houte and [Marÿtie's sister] Sarah Demarest.

William Rutan and his wife Marÿtie witnessed 2 Dec. 1753, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.,[108] the baptism of Lourens Verwÿ, born 25 Oct. 1753 to Lourens Verwÿ and Trintie Demarest.

On 25 June 1758, Maryte De More [Demarest], wife of William Retan was a member (by confession of faith) of the Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh.[109]

A list of United Empire (U. E.) Loyalists who participated in the settlement in 1784 of Upper Canada was published at the centennial of the event. It contained William, Peter Sr., and Peter Jr. "Rattan," all of Adolphustown, Ontario, Canada. These are the founding members of the Canadian branch of the Rutan family, denoted by the surname spelling Ruttan here. William[4] Ruttan and Peter[4] Ruttan (Sr.) are therefore the progenitors of the Canadian branch.[110] The following is from the preface of the Centenniel celebration book:

> On the conclusion of the war, and the severance of the old Colonies from the Mother Country, these U. E. Loyalists abandoning all they possessed, moved into what is now New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, in 1783, and in 1784 a large number of them moved up the St. Lawrence and settled in the then unbroken wilderness of Upper Canada.[111]

It appears that brothers Jacob[4] and David[4] might also have emigrated to Canada, but not as Loyalists. Jacob[4], in particular, seems to have been allotted land there. Sister Elizabeth[4] emigrated to Canada as a Loyalist. David[4], however, is puzzling since he is given Abraham[4]'s clothing in his will, suggesting that he was near Abraham[4] in 1815. For what it's worth, Abraham[4]'s will clumps Elizabeth[4], William[4], Peter[4], and Jacob[4] together (and bequeaths them each 25 U.S. dollars), separate from David[4] (who is left clothing). See each entry below.

Placeholder: On 11 Jan. 1786, a John Rutan submitted an American Loyalist Claim, from Nova Scotia, but it was rejected 6 Mar. 1786, probably because there was no such person. This John Rutan claimed he was from Bergen Co. but removed to Granville, Nova Scotia after the Revolutionary War, and that he had suffered losses of £144.7.6 from 15 July 1783 to 25 Mar. 1784.[112]

The last New Jersey record known of William[3] is captured in this deed:

> 13 Dec 1785, William Rutan, yeoman, of Scrawlenburgh, Bergen Co., New Jersey to his son Paulus Rutan, for love and affection, 30 acres. Signed William (x) Rutan. Wit: David Bye and James Canness.[113]

A brief aside re the Mangel [Roll] family

From Barbara Barth's genealogy of the Rall/Roll family in the RECORD: Jan[1] Mangelsen was probably born about 1636, married by 1661 Tryntie Van Woggelum and came to the Albany area. They had six children. The first, son Mangel[2] Jansen Rall, married on Staten Island, baptized his children in New York City. The second, son Peter[2] Mangels Rall, lived on Staten Island, then upstate New York (near Schnectady), then

For example, his fifth child, John[3] Roll, born about 1704, married Elizabeth Strikhouze [Strickhäuser]., and died 1782 in Turkey (New Providence), N.J. They had a son named John[4]. The sixth child, son Jan[2] Mangelsen, or John[2] Roll, lived on Staten Island, married the Van Berkelo widow, who came with a daughter Jannetje Van Berkelo.[119] But footnote 72 of the Barth article suggests that perhaps the branch in Philipsburgh was not descended from Jan[1] Mangelsen.

The witnesses of John[3]'s baptism are not marked as married, so I will assume that they were not. Abraham[3] Rutan, half-brother of the current John[3], would be the most likely candidate for this "Abram Ratan." Re "Catharina Ratan": Assuming she was of age, so born say 1713 or earlier, narrows down the possibilities. The most obvious candidate is Catharina (Bord) Rutan, wife of John[3]'s brother Daniel[3] (see the next sketch). But she was probably born in 1740 or so, which puts her out of range. Another candidate is Catherine —, who was born about 1710, Bergen Co., N.J., and married about 1731 or 1732, Bergen Co., N.J., Daniel[2] Rutan, Paul[2]'s brother. They had one child in about 1732 before Daniel[3] died. This is the Catharine who married, secondly, probably by about 1740 Conrad [Coenraad] Lein [Leyn]. So she slots in nicely to the baptism in 1731 of the current John[3]. If so, then she and Daniel[2] married before 8 Aug. 1731.

105 ii ABRAHAM[4] RUTAN, born 10 Aug. 1778, baptized 13 Sept. 1778, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J.,[134] with John[3]'s brother David[3] Rutan and Catharina Bord as godparents.

26. DAVID[3] RUTAN (3Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was baptized 25 Oct. 1740, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[135] He married (from baptismal records of their children) CATHARINA BORD.

They had children 1766–1774.

But: Mackenzie has David[3] married to Hillegond Webbers, with son Hendrick[4], baptized 1771[136] (in New York City) who married Anna Lent. Note that this David and Hillegond Webbers would have had Hendrick while David[3] and Catharina Bord were having their children. There was also a David Bantha married to a Hillegond [Heiltje] Webbers witnessing baptisms in New York in 1770 and 1774.[137] These latter were baptisms of children of Abraham[4] (13?Abraham[3], Daniel[2]) and Sarah Webbers. Is it possible that David Rathan was actually David Bantha? After all, it was Jakob Bantha who was witness at that baptism.

inventoried in Morris Co. (q.v.)—certainly before 28 Mar. 1754, when his widow was bonded as administratrix (q.v.). So his youngest child would have to have been born—at the latest—in late 1754.

His eldest child, Daniel[4], was probably born in about 1747, as he was age 15 on 29 Nov. 1762 when a guardian was appointed.[162] Peter[3] was 21 on say 1742, based on his birth year estimate, and thus marriageable. He married by 1746 or early 1747, per his eldest child's birth, SARAH THOMPSON, daughter of John Thompson. That Peter's wife was named Sarah follows from the following estate records:

> 1754, Mar. 16. Rutan, Peter, of Morris Co. Int. Inventory, £121.13.6, incl. books, 5s.; a pair of silver clasps and band, 6s.; made by James Calwall and William Johnston.
> 1754, Mar. 28. Bond of Sarah, his widow, as Adm'x, with David Day, Esq., of Elizabeth, fellowbondsman | Lib. F, p. 164.[163]

Sarah's full name comes from Littell's First Settlers, which has this to say about Sarah Thompson, daughter of John Thompson:

> 5. Sarah married 1st, Mr. Van Sickle, of Long Hill, and had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Jacob Britton, son of William. [See Britton.] Sarah married 2d, Mr. Rutan, who had a son, Peter, who lived in Albany, N.Y. She married 3d, James Enos, or Innes, of Long Hill.[164]

163. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 3, 1751–1760, 277. James "Calwall" was James Cauldwell, whose son William married Elizabeth [Betsey] Thompson, sister of Sarah Thompson [Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 68, 414].

164. Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 414, sketch of John Thompson.

Littell's First Settlers (often "Littell" here for short) is a gold mine of information. It was published in 1852 by a member of the Littell family who lived among the families covered in the book. But it must be handled with care for there are known, even obvious, errors. For example, at one place, Littell refers to Sarah as a daughter of Thomas Thompson, but this is inconsistent with his own genealogy of the John Thompson family elsewhere in the same book, which has Thomas as a sister of Sarah, and both as children of John Thompson.[165]

Littell, in the quotation above for daughter Sarah Thompson, states (A) that she married Mr. Van Sickle before she married Mr. Rutan. It further seems to say (B) that Mr. Rutan came with a son Peter^{4}—that is, from a previous marriage. But it does not have to be read that way. I will show that even if Peter^{3} had married another woman first, his son Peter^{4} would not have been old enough to have been from anywhere else (like Albany) when Sarah later married Peter^{3}. I will take the Littell wording to mean instead that Mr. Rutan and Sarah had a son, Peter^{4}—that is, statement (B) is false. Otherwise, we would have to find a first wife for Peter^{3} Rutan, and I have found no evidence for one nor even a mention of one. However, we will revisit this possibility.

Notice that Littell does not specify that Mr. Rutan was Peter Rutan. In fact, although he sketches Peter^{2} Rutan, he gives him only one son, Abraham^{3}, and omits Peter^{3} altogether.[166] Similarly, Littell does not specify Mr. Van Sickle's first name, although he hints, as will be demonstrated, that it might be Samuel.

I now show that statement (A), like (B), is false, that Littell interchanged the first two husbands of Sarah Thompson—that she married, first, Mr. Rutan, then second, Mr. Van Sickle. Furthermore, we will find that Mr. Van Sickle was Abraham Van Sickle, not Samuel. Here are the estate abstracts for Abraham Van Sickle:

165. Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 414, children of John Thompson (son of Hur Thompson): "1. Thomas . . .| 2. Moses . . . | 3. Aaron . . . | 4. Hannah, who married Thomas Baker, and with him removed to Turkey, now New Providence, Essex county [See Baker]. | 5. Sarah [as quoted] | 6. Patience . . . | 7. Betsey married William Cauldwell, son of James, of Long Hill. [See Cauldwell]."

166. Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 366, sketch of Peter Rutan.

> 1759, Aug. 7. Sickle (van Sickle), Abraham, of Morris Co., yeoman; will of. Wife, Sarah. Only child, Elisabeth. Real and personal estate. Executors—the wife and "Ensyn" Thomas Baker, of the Congregation of New Providence in the "Borrough" of Elizabeth. Witnesses—Jonathan Elmer, Piter Rutan, Abraham Rutan. Proved Dec. 10, 1759. | Lib. G, p. 139.[167]

> 1759, Aug. 25. Van Sickle, Abraham, of Morris Co. Int. Inventory, £333.2.10., incl. 62 bush. of corn in the ear; 17 do. of buckwheat; bonds, cash and notes, £150.4.7; made by William Broadwell, Abraham Rutan, Thomas Baker and Sarah van Sickel.[168]

So Abraham Van Sickle's wife was named Sarah, and that was her name on 25 Aug. 1759, and they had an only child, Elizabeth Van Sickle. This matches Littell's description of Sarah Thompson. And the witnesses included "Piter" and Abraham Rutan, which is consistent with Sarah's being Peter[3]'s wife and Abraham[3]'s sister-in-law. This Peter Rutan had to have been Peter[2], who was alive, as we have seen, until his death 29 June 1774 in New Providence.[169] It couldn't have been Peter[4], who was indeed a son of Peter[3] as implied by Littell, because he was too young at this time, as we will see.

Notice the name Thomas Baker in these records. He married Hannah Thompson, a sister of Sarah Thompson, and hence another daughter of John Thompson.[170] He appears in several important guardianship records here.

The following records, for example, tell us about the child, Elizabeth Van Sickle, and her first guardian, Thomas Baker:

167. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 3, 1751–1760, 293. N.B., Jonathan Elmer began preaching at the New Providence Presbyterian Church on 1 Oct. 1757 [Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 148].

168. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 3, 1751–1760, 339.

169. Elmer's Records, GMNJ 19:44, deaths and burials, "[1774] Rutan, Peter, died June 29."

170. Littell, First Settlers of Passaic Valley, 414, sketch of John Thompson, his children: "4. Hannah, who married Thomas Baker, and with him removed to Turkey, now New Providence, Essex County. [See Baker] | 5. Sarah [as quoted previously]."

1762, Nov. 29. Van Sickle, Elizabeth, of Morris Co. Ward. Aged 6 years and one of the children of Abraham Van Sickle, of said Co., deceased. Guardian—Thomas Baker, of Essex Co. Fellowbondsman—William Calwall, of Morris Co. | Lib. H, p. 203; File No. 177 N.

1770, April 12. Van Sickle, Elizabeth, of Morris Co. Ward. Daughter of Abraham Van Sickle, of said Co., deceased; who makes choice of Cornelius Ludlow as her Guardian.

1770, April 12. Guardian—Cornelius Ludlow. Fellowbondsman—Abraham Rutan; both of Morris Township. Witness—Abraham Burgean. | Lib. K, p. 191.[171]

So Elizabeth Van Sickle, daughter of Abraham and Sarah Van Sickle, was age 6 on 29 Nov. 1762, implying that she was born about 1756, well after the death of Peter[3] Rutan which occurred presumably before the inventory of his estate on 16 Mar. 1754. Assuming Abraham's wife, Sarah, was Sarah Thompson, then her marriage to Mr. Van Sickle had to occur after her marriage to Mr. Rutan, say about 1755. She might have married Mr. Van Sickle earlier if Peter Rutan died nearer 3 July 1753, when he applied for a tavern license, the last known recorded date of his existence. But Peter's widow, Sarah, was made administratrix 28 Mar. 1754, suggesting that she had not yet remarried at that date, and assuming again that she was Sarah Thompson. Therefore, let's use about 1755 as a likely date for her second marriage, to Abraham Van Sickle.

Littell's First Settlers implies, but never quite states, that the Mr. Van Sickle who married Sarah Thompson was Samuel, not Abraham, Van Sickle. Under his sketch of Samuel Van Sickle, Littell has this:

Note.—Sarah Thompson, daughter of Thomas [sic] Thompson, married, 1st, Mr. Van Sickle, of Long Hill, and had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Jacob Britton, son of W l[i?]am [sic, a printing error] [See Britton]

171. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 4, 1761–1770, 454. Note that Elizabeth is described as "one of" the children of Abraham Van Sickle in this record of 29 Nov. 1762, whereas in the 7 Aug. 1759 estate record, she was the "only" child.

> She married, 2d, Mr. Rutan, who had a son, Peter, who lived in Albany, N.Y.; 3d, James Enos, or Innes, of Long Hill.[172]

The note is almost identical to the paragraph about the fifth child Sarah of John (not Thomas) Thompson, quoted previously. Notice that Littell does not explicitly state that Samuel Van Sickle was the Mr. Van Sickle whom Sarah married. The placement of the note was meant, presumably, to imply it, but cautiously. And under Samuel Van Sickle's children, Littell asks, "4. Elizabeth. (Is not this Elizabeth the wife of Jacob Britton.)" We shall present a more likely Elizabeth Van Sickle as Jacob's wife, a daughter of Abraham Van Sickle.

So Littell ambiguously made Samuel Van Sickle the husband of Sarah Thompson. To complete the evidence he offers, here is his treatment of Jacob "Brittin," son of William (which gets the relationship to Thomas Thompson correctly this time):

> 2. Jacob, who married Elizabeth Van Sickle, 3d March, 1774, whose mother was sister of Thomas Thompson, of Springfield; also was sister of Elizabeth, wife of William Cauldwell. [See Thompson & Cauldwell.][173]

As a positive check on Littell, a church record shows that Jacob "Britian" married 3 Mar. 1774, New Providence Presbyterian Church, Essex Co., N.J., Elizabeth "Sickel."[174]

Furthermore, here is the abstract of Jacob Britton's will, which verifies that his wife's name was Elizabeth, assuming the administratrix was his wife:

> 1787, March 5. Brittin, Jacob, of Morristown, Morris Co. Int. Adm'x—Elizabeth Brittin. Fellowbondsman—Kennedy Vance; both of said place. Witnesses—Sarah Campfield and Jabez Campfield, Surrogate.

Notice that this corroborates everything we have deduced about Elizabeth Van Sickle without ever invoking a man named Samuel Van Sickle. I will therefore assert that Samuel Van Sickle was not Sarah Thompson's husband. He was instead Abraham Van Sickle, and he was her second husband. We shall return to her putative third husband, James Enos [Innes] later.

Other received wisdom about Peter[3] Rutan further confuses the issues. This is from Keegan's Third Rutan Family Index, which is not a source but rather a 2010 compendium of Rutan names, with brief descriptions, and pointers to supporting materials:

> Peter Rutan, Jr – (c1720–1754) p/Abraham Rutan–Geertruy Vanderhoef m Sarah Thompson of Long Hill; Sarah moved from Morris Co. to Frankford Twp, Sussex Co. by 1774; Peter was Sarah's second husband; she m (1) James Enos (3) Samuel Van Sickle[176]

Keegan identifies Mr. Rutan with Peter Rutan, with dates that agree closely with ours, and Mr. Van Sickle with the erroneous Samuel Van Sickle. And makes James Enos, husband no. 1, not no. 3, for Sarah Thompson. I have failed so far to place Sarah in Sussex Co. in 1774. There was a Sarah Rutan, 80–90, in the 1830 census of Frankford Twp., Sussex Co., N.J., but she would have been born 1740–1750 and only a child in 1746 or 1747 for marriage to Peter[3] Rutan.[177]

The Children

From the New Jersey will abstracts we learn about three sons of this family, one of whom chose Thomas Baker as his guardian, with Thomas Baker probably serving as guardian for the other two. Notice that the first record bears the same date as the guardianship record presented previously for Elizabeth Van Sickle, also with Thomas Baker as guardian. And it appears on the same original Morris Co. record page:

> 1762, Nov. 29. Rutan, Daniel, of Morris Co. Ward, aged 15 years, and one of the children of Peter Ratan, of said Co., deceased. Guardian—Thomas Baker, of Essex Co. Fellowbondsman—William Calwall, of Morris Co. | Lib. H, p. 203; File No. 177 N.
> [Followed here by the 1761 will abstract for John Rutan of Morristown, Morris Co.—see sketch of Peter[3]'s brother, John[3].]
> 1762, Sept. 4. Rutan, John and Peter, of Morris Co. Petition of Kennedy Vance, Mica Howell, John Maxfell, Jr., William Baker, James Calwall, Thomas Cushman and Jonathan Littell, praying that Thomas Baker may be appointed Guardian of John Rutan and Peter Rutan
> 1762, Nov. 15. It is ordered that the above request be granted and that their eldest brother, Daniel, also have a Guardian appointed. | File No. 177 N.[178]

Notice that the 15 Nov. 1762 wording has Daniel, Peter, and John as brothers, hence all sons of Peter[3].

Daughter Elizabeth Van Sickle, from Sarah Thompson's second marriage, would have been in the care of Thomas Baker at the same time as the three sons of Peter[3] Rutan, from her first marriage.

Ouke Johnson Sr.

On 2 Sept. 1752, Ouke Johnson Sr., signed his will in Morris Twp., Morris Co., N.J., and it was proved 18 Dec. 1752, with Peter[3] Rutan as an executor. Except for the 3 July 1753 application for a tavern license, this is the last factual data we have for Peter. Sarah Rutan is mentioned in this record, but not her relationship to Peter. We shall see that John[4], one of Peter[3]'s sons, had dealings with an "Okey" Johnson, who might have been the same person as Ouke, or related to him:

178. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 4, 1761–1770, 369.

> 1752, Sept. 2. Johnson, Ouke, Sr., of Morris township and Co., gentleman; will of. Wife, Hannatche, sole heiress of personal estate. Legacies (money due from brother William Johnson) to William and Ouke, sons of said William, and to Sarah Rutan. Executors—the wife, John Bedell and Peter Rutan, Jr., both of Morris Co. Witnesses—John Calwall, James Totten, John Hall. Proved Dec. 18, 1752. | Lib. F, p. 81.
> 1752, July 20. Bond of Ouke, son, as Administrator of Ouke's and Catherine's estates, John Bedell, Jr., and Peter Ratan (Rutan), Jr., fellowbondsmen, all of Morris Town and County. [N.B. This paragraph appears to be about a different Ouke and his wife Catherine.]
> 1752, Dec. 21. Inventory of the personal estate of Ouke, £201.6.1., incl. a bible and other books 10s., cash and credits £140.6.10., made by James Calwall and William Parrat in the presence of Hannacha Johnson, John Bedell, Jr., and Peter Ratan (Rutan, Jr.), Executors.[179]

Notice that Sarah Rutan, whoever she was, was due a legacy from Ouke Johnson Sr.'s brother, William Johnson Sr. I also do not know who "Catherine" was. She appears to be part of the Johnson family. Hannatche (var. Hannacha), the name of Ouke's wife, was probably the Dutch form of Hannah (cf. Hannatje), not of Catherine (usually Trientje in Dutch).

Here is the actual will of Ouke Johnson Sr.:

> ... Item I give and Bequeath unto Hannatcha my beloved ad Betroothed wife all my Goods and Chattles and all my Credits Except Eleven pounds one Shilling and nine Pence which is Due to me from my Brother William Johnson.
> Item which Eleven Pound one Shilling and nine pence I Give and Bequeath unto my two Nephews william and Ouke Johnson Sons of the above

Counterfactual Version

A brief summary of this sketch is this: Sarah Thompson married Peter[3] Rutan say 1746 and had all three Rutan sons with him during about 1747–1751, assuming 2-year birth intervals. Then Peter[3] died sometime in the period 3 July 1753–16 Mar. 1754, and Sarah was there for the inventory and administration of his estate. Then she married, probably sometime during 1755, Abraham Van Sickle, and had daughter Elizabeth in about 1756.

I promised to revisit the alternative version, suggested by Littell, that Sarah married Mr. Van Sickle before she married Mr. Rutan, who came with a son Peter[4] who lived in Albany. This would require Peter's marriage to another woman who would mother the three sons. Then that woman would have to die, and Peter to remarry to Sarah Thompson, and then Peter to die sometime during the period roughly 1751 to 1755. Then Sarah would remarry to Abraham Van Sickle. This is barely possibly, but seems unnecessarily complicated given that we have no knowledge of another wife. The seeming force of Littell's implication that Mr. Rutan came with a son Peter "living in Albany" loses all its strength when we realize that Peter[4] would have been a mere child, in guardianship, at Sarah's supposed marriage to Mr. Rutan, and so probably would not yet have been living anywhere else. But it is possible.

Known children:

+ 112 i DANIEL[4] RUTAN, born about 1747 (aged 15 on 29 Nov. 1762 when a guardian, Thomas Baker, was appointed), married SARAH —, and had 12 children.

+ 113 ii PETER[4] RUTAN, born say 1749. He was underage on 4 Sept. 1762, when it was proposed that he and his brother John[4] Rutan be assigned Thomas Baker as a guardian. I believe (rather shakily at this point) him to be an overlooked Revolutionary War Patriot. See appendix. Littell says he was "living in Albany."

+ 114 iii JOHN[4] RUTAN, [Allegany John] born 16 May 1751, New Jersey, married CATHERINE JONES, and had nine children. John was underage on 4 Sept. 1762 when it was proposed that he and his brother Peter[4] Rutan be assigned Thomas Baker as a guardian. The last possible date that his father Peter[3] could have fathered him must have been after 3 July 1753, the tavern license application, and before 16 Mar. 1754, Peter[3]'s own estate inventory. Adding nine months gives the upper bound range on John[4]'s birth to be after 3 Apr. 1754 and before 16 Dec. 1754. [Be careful not to confuse this John[4] (Peter[3], Peter[2]) [Allegany John] with John[4] (John[3], Peter[2]) [Hampshire John].

29. ABRAHAM[3] RUTAN (6Peter[2], Abraham[1]) was born say 1723, New Jersey.[182] Abraham signed his will 20 Sept. 1792, Morris Co., N.J. (see abstract below), and and his will was proved 27 Oct. 1792. He died 21 Sept. 1792, New Providence, N.J.[183] He married, before his first child Samuel's birth 4 Sept. 1754 and well before the baptism of "all their children" on 15 June

182. DAR Patriot Index, Centenniel Edition, Part 3, "[Rutan] Abraham: b c 1734 NJ d a 10–27–1792 m Anna — Ens NJ." This seems to be the source for the 1734 date, but I suspect it is an estimate based on the first child's birth in 1754. It seems late compared to sibling Rachel born about 1719—the mother, Gertrude (bap. 29 Mar. 1688), would have been about 33–37 for these latter three births if they occurred as estimated. She would have been about 46 for a 1734 birth.

This is my line.

From Littell's First Settlers:

> Abraham Rutan was an Elder in the Presbyterian Church of New Providence.[187] He married, —; she died 15th Dec. 1788; they had 5 sons and 8 daughters:
> 1. John, who married, 20th March, 1774, Catherine Jones, and went to the west. [According to Keegan, this is an error. John was son of brother Peter[3], but brought up by Abraham[3]. Supported by a Bible record at GSNJ.]
> 2. Samuel married Eleanor Bedell, daughter of Jacob, and went west. [See Bedell.]
> 3. Peter, born 1757, and died 12th April, 1802, aged 45 years, unmarried.
> 4. Joseph, born 1769, married, 14th June, 1791, Hannah Baker, daughter of Thomas Baker, Jun. [sic].[188] She died 26th July, 1804, aged 34 years, and he married, 2d, Rachel Hole, daughter of Uzel Johnson's 2d wife. He died 19th March, 1809, aged 40 years.

185. Hoye, The Hoyes of Maryland, 98, has her name, incorrectly, as Elizabeth: "His wife, Elizabeth, died in 1788," but her death date is correct.

At a publick lecture held at New Providence Nov. 2d 1781 the following Votes was pas'd Viz: that Mr. Britton and Mr. Rutan have liberty to build a pew behind the old pew on the East side of the meeting house in the room and stead of the one formerly voted to them . . ."

188. Littell, First Settlers, 366. This is one of the few errors I've found in Littell. He contradicts himself at this point. On p. 19 he has, "Daniel Baker, son of Thomas Baker, Junior, and Abigial [sic] Hendricks, had children: | . . . | 3. Hannah, married Joseph Rutan, son of Abraham Rutan, of Long Hill, [See Rutan.]" By this rendering, Hannah Baker is daughter of Daniel Baker and granddaughter of Thomas Baker Jr.

5. Abraham married Hannah Shipman, daughter of Abraham, of Munroe, Morris county. He died 25th Dec. 1804, aged 30 years, and left two children, Manning and Eliza; Eliza died young; Manning married Miss Hurd, and lived at Dover, Morris county, and subsequently removed to Greenville, Montcalm county, Michigan.

6. Sally, who married, 6th June, 1775, Simeon Simpson, son of Alexander, as his 2d wife. [See Simpson.]

7. Hannah married John Cauldwell, son of William. [See Cauldwell.]

8. Mary married, 7th April 1785 Mathias Roll, and went to Ohio. [See Roll.]

9. Rosannah married, 26th Dec. 1786, Thomas Parrot, son of William. [See Parrot.]

10. Martha married, 17th Oct. 1787, Moses Camp, son of Aaron. [See Camp.]

11. Charity married John Miller, and had a son, James Miller, who lived at New Vernon, and a daughter, Anna, who married in Pennsylvania, Samuel Ayers, and lived near Rossville, Ohio.

12. Anna married, 29th April, 1799, Moses squier, son of Thomas. [See Squier.]

13. Elizabeth married, 14th June, 1791, Abraham Cauldwell, son of William. [See Cauldwell.]

James Miller, son of Charity Rutan, and John Miller, married Anna Collard, and had children: 1. John Miller; 2. Charity Miller, who married Nathaniel Bonnel, of Green Village, as his 2d wife; 3. Ebenezer Miller married Hannah Winters, of N.Y.; 4. Mary Miller; 5. Joseph Miller married Sarah Messler, daughter of John Vleit Messler; 6. James Miller; 7. Margaret Miller married Mr. Logan.[189]

We shall see that the Littell treatment is correct in all aspects, save the one exception, identified above, for putative son John.

An abstract of Abraham's will (N.B., no son John is mentioned):

This is the treatment in Littell's First Settlers, of the William Cauldwell family that intermarried with Abraham Rutan's family:

William Cauldwell, (1st child of James,) and Elizabeth Thompson, owned, and lived on lot No. 17, (addition,) adjoining Passaic River, in Morris County, immediately below Johnson's Bridge. They had children:

3. John, born 23d August, 1755, married Hannah Rutan, daughter of Abraham.

Sarah's name is often given as Sarah Manning but I have not found proof of that surname, or even a mention in the records. There was a Sarah Manning, daughter of Trustrum Manning, mentioned in his (Trustrum's) will signed in Piscattaway, Middlesex Co., Province of New Jersey, 16 Jan. 1771 and proved 15 Feb. 1779. It mentions "my beloved Wife Johannah Manning," "my Son Trustrum Manning," "my Son Joseph Manning," "my Son David Manning," "my Grandson Enoc Manning Son of my Son Joseph Manning" not yet 21, "my Grandson John Drake Son of Joseph Drake" not yet 21, "my Grand Daughter Sarah Drake daughter of Joseph Drake" not yet 18, "my Daughter Sarah Manning," "my Grandaughter Lydia Manning daughter of Joseph Manning" not yet 19, "my Son Andrew Manning," "I also give to my Daughter Sarah Manning one feather bed and furniture Suitable for it, and also one Cow and one two Year Old Heifer and a Chest of drawers now Standing in my House Six pewter Plates two Pewter platters and one pewter bason and one Black walnut Table," "I do now Stand bound for Benjamin Manning," no relation stated, for an obligation of a "Considerable Sum of Money." Executors: "friend Isaac Stolle and my Son David Manning." Witnesses: Jonathan F. Randolph Jr., John Holton Jr., James Fitzrandolph Jr.[195] No spouse or kin is mentioned for Sarah Manning, so she appears to be unmarried in 1771, hence not the wife of John[3] Rutan.

An abstract of John's will:

> 1761, Feb. 23. Rutan, John, of Morristown, Morris Co.; will of. Wife, Sarah, use of my plantation for 13 years, and then she is to have 1/3 of the same. Daughter, Sarah, £10, at her marriage. At the end of 13 years my daughters, Rachel, Elizabeth and Mary, to have £10 each. When the plantation is sold the money to be divided between my daughters, Sarah, Rachel, Elizabeth and Mary. Son, John, £30, when 21 [so not 21 in 1761, implying he was born after 1740]. Son, John, to have my plantation in Hempshire Co., in Virginia. Executors—wife, Sarah, and my friend, Elias Soullud. Witnesses—James Calwall, William Broadwell, Zacheriah Vansickel. Proved April 3, 1761.

The Abraham Rutan in the inventory record was probably John[3]'s brother, Abraham[3] Rutan.

Here is John[3]'s actual last will and testament:

> In the name of God amen I John Rutan of Morristown and county of Morris being of sound mind . . .
> Imprimis I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah the use and improvement of my dwelling house and plantation whereon I now

Placeholder. There is an estate settlement for Zachariah Van "Sickel" in Allegany Co., Md., on 10 Mar. 1835.[198] [But this is Allegany not Hampshire]

N.B. John's will mentions "my plantation in Hempshire Co., in Virginia." Hampshire Co., Va., became effective in 1754. The southern half, more-or-less, became Hardy Co., Va., in 1786 (and Pendleton Co. later was taken from the southern half of Hardy Co.). At the time, its northern boundary was the southern boundary of the westernmost part of the Maryland neck. Hampshire Co. (and Hardy and Pendleton) became part of West Virginia when that state was formed in 1863. In 1866 Mineral Co., W.Va., was taken from the western half of the remaining Hampshire Co.

N.B. Modern Mineral Co., W.Va., formerly Hampshire Co., protrudes north into the neck of Maryland at Cumberland, Md. The neck is only about 4 miles thick at this point—that is, West Virginia is only 4 miles from Pennsylvania to the north here. The northernmost point of Mineral Co. is defined by a hook in the North Branch of the Potomac River—which also defines the boundary between West Virginia and Maryland.

N.B. Patterson Creek lies in modern Mineral Co., W.Va., and runs northeast into the (North Branch of the) Potomac, east of Cumberland, Md., the county seat of Allegany Co., Md. Wikipedia states that the Patterson Creek watershed contains two-thirds of Mineral Co. (emphasis added). In a sense, Allegany Co., Md., surrounds the "peak" of Mineral Co., W.Va. (part of old Hampshire Co., W.Va.) formed by the hook in the Potomac at Cumberland, Md.

Later we will find Rutans in Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., south of Pittsburgh. Rostraver Twp., Pa., lies about 65 miles northwest of Cumberland, Md., as the crow flies. Were these the same Rutans?

From a deed in son John[4]'s sketch we learn that this plantation of 60 acres was "known and distinguished by No 4 in the Plat of Survey upon Pattersons Creek of Potowmack River," being a grant made 21 Oct. 1740 [sic] "from the Lord Proprietor to John Rutan (Father to the said John Rutan) now deceased" (q.v.).

N.B., modern Patterson Creek, on the Potomac River, is in Mineral Co., W.Va., immediately south and west across the Potomac from Allegany Co., Md. (my emphasis)

N.B. Frederick Co., Va., was organized in 1743. Hampshire Co. was formed from Frederick Co. in 1754 (so it is not clear what exactly was granted in 1740—in fact, we will find 1740 incorrect, and the correct date, 1748, makes sense).

I found the actual deed in the Virginia State Land Office Northern Neck Grants, Vol. G, 1747–1751 (Figure 21): On 25 Oct. 1748, Thomas Lord Fairfax, Proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia, deeded 354 acres of land on Pattersons Creek to "John Ratan of the county." The only county mentioned in the deed is Fairfax Co., where the deed was signed, and which abutted Frederick Co. at the time. The tract was known as No. 4 on the Plat of Survey made by Mr. James Penn. The annual rent was one shilling sterling per 50 acres. The deed does not mention the Potomac River, but Pattersons Creek flows north into the Potomac in this area. Tracts No. 1 and No. 2 are described as on "Pattersons Creek of Potomack River." And of future importance, "Abram" Johnson of Frederick Co. was granted 26 Oct. 1748 the adjoining tract, No. 5, of 309 acres.[199]

Placeholder. On 5 June 1767, Thomas, Lord Fairfax, in Frederick Co., Va., granted 200 acres in the Northern Neck of Virginia, for a certain annual rent, to Okey Johnson of Hampshire Co. "on a Branch of Meadow Run a Drain of Pattersons Creek in the s^{d} County which s^{d} land was survey'd for Abraham Rutton and a Plot thereof return'd from under the Hand of David Vance Dated October 30th: 1752 The said Abraham Rutton not Complying with an Advertisement Issued from my Office dated March 26th: 1765 requiring all Persons who had surveys in this Office Dated before the Year 1761 To pay for the same before a certain Time therein Mention'd or they should Forfeit all right & Claim to the s^{d} Survey."[200]

36. CATHERINE[3] PIER (9*Maria*[2], Abraham[1]) was born sometime after her parents' marriage of 26 Aug. 1721, say 1722, and before sister Sarah born 28 Mar. 1729 (since Catherine is the eldest daughter in her father's will). She married (according to that will) ROBERT SANDFORD [SANDVOORT].

Robert Sandford of Pequannock Township, Morris County, N.J., signed his will "no date," and it was proved 22 Aug. 1786:

From book, Splinters of the Past, 52–53, about the Martin Fredericks House:[210]

> Mention has been made of the survey of 1761 for the road (now Valhalla Road) from Stony Brook to the great road that leads to Ebenezer Farrand's Mill. The course of this road, proceeding south from Stony Brook, eventually led past, and to the west side of, the hay barracks and the house of Martin Fredericks, and thence across the brook through Peter Fredericks' land. Another reference in 1767 describing some adjacent property mentions the brook which "runs between Dwelling houses" of Martin Fredericks and Conrad Fredericks. In 1800 Martin Fredericks conveyed what was probably all of his real estate, including the 40-acre farm on which he then dwelt, to his daughter Hetty Stites. The 40-acre homestead tract was described as lying "on the East side of the Road leading from Abraham Barmores to Stony Creek" and immediately north of the small triangular lot belonging to Martin J Van Duyne.

248. And perhaps before 28 Feb. 1776, when he witnessed a baptism of his brother Samuel[3]'s child Abraham[4], assuming that the other witness, Johanna Winne, was identically Henry's wife Annetie {U.S., Dutch Reformed Church Records in Selected State, 1639–1989, Second River, N.J., Book 58, handwritten, 163, image 80 of 103 at <Ancestry.com>, "[child and date] Abram | born Feb. 28 [1776] | bapt. April 13 [parents] Samuel Ratan | Maritie Bruyn. [witnesses] Hendrik Ratan. | Johanna Winne." Arguing for this identification is the fact that both records appear on the same page in the Second River register (printed version) or adjacent pages (handwritten version).

Henry married (2) before her father's will of 3 Mar. 1795[249] (and probably before Hendrick Rutan and Syntje Toers were godparents at a baptism 19 Feb. 1792, q.v.) FRANCES [FRANCYNTJE] TOERS [TUERS], who was born 26 Feb. 1762, baptized 14 Mar. 1762,[250] Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, N.J., daughter of Gerrit and Margaret [Margritie] (Van Winkle) Toers.[251] She signed her will on 16 Aug. 1834 (q.v.), and it was proved 16 Nov. 1840.

A circumstantial argument that Henry's wife Annetie [Ann] was Johanna Winne:

Point 1. The name Johanna can be seen as a form of Ann or Annetie or even Hannah. However, this is not a usual equivalence.

Point 2. On 13 Apr. 1776, Henry Rutan and Johanna Winne witnessed the baptism of Abraham[4], son of Henry's brother Samuel[3] (q.v.). This occurred shortly before Henry and Annetie's birth of their son on 25 Sept. 1776.

Point 3. On 21 Feb. 1786, Henry[3] Rutan was made one of the guardians of Nicholas and Leah Winne, children of Abraham Winne (see appendix O for details).

Point 4. Son Samuel H.[4] Rutan married (2) Hannah [Annaatje] Winne, niece of Abraham Winne. See appendix O for details.

Hendrick Rutan and Syntje Toers were godparents to the baptism of Hendrick, son of John [Johannes] Toers (Syntje's brother), 19 Feb. 1792, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk, N.J.[252] John was mentioned in Gerret Toers's will of 3 Mar. 1795.

On one membership page of the Second River (Belleville) Church register appear both Francyntje Toers, wife of Hendrick Rutan, admitted 29 Jan. 1796, by confession of faith, and Margrietje Van Winkle, widow of Gerrit Toers, admitted 23 Nov. 1799 by confession.[253]

On 22 Feb. 1821, Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., Henry Rutan signed his will, and it was proved 9 June 1834, at which time it was stated that "the said Henry Rutan died about a month ago and and [sic] more than ten days ago"). The will mentions "my beloved wife Francyntje," "to my son Samuel one hundred dollars to his son Henry one hundred dollars to his son John also fifty dollars to his daughter Eliza . . . my two eldest grand daughters and children of my son Samuel Ann and Maria," "my son and only child Samuel," "trusty friend Henry W. Joralemon who is also who is also [sic] the son in law of my son." It appointed Henry W. Joralemon and wife Francyntje as executors.[254]

On 30 Sept. 1821, Henry Rutan and Frances his wife, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., sold to Mary Rutan [no relationship stated, but see sketch of Henry's brother Samuel[3], where it appears that Mary was Samuel[3]'s wife] of the same place, for $300, two adjoining tracts of land in Bloomfield Twp. of 12 and 2 acres, respectively, bounded by land of heirs of Nicholas "Jeralemon," formerly of John Kingsland. The deed was acknowledged the same day.[255]

In 1830 Henry Rutan, 80–90 [born 1740–1750], resided in Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., with a woman 70–80 [born 1750–1760]. Listed next was Samuel H. Rutan, 50–60 [born 1770–1780], with a woman 50–60, two boys and a girl 5–10, and one boy 10–15. On the same page is listed Samuel S. Rutan, 30–40, with a woman 30–40, one boy and one girl under 5, one boy 5–10, one male and one female 10–15.[256]

On 16 Aug. 1834, "Francess Retan" of Spring Garden, Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., signed her will, and it was proved 16 Nov. 1840. It mentions "my eldest step Grand Daughter Ann Jerolemon [sic]," "my youngest step Grand Daughter Francis Rutan," "Maria Jerolemon Jun^{r} [sic]," "appoint my friend Samuel H Rutan Executor." It also mentions two pieces of land that border Garret "Tures." Witnesses: Harriet Tuers, Henry S. Rutan, and John S. Rutan.[257] Henry S. and John S. Rutan were probably sons of Samuel H. Rutan, and hence also step-grandchildren of Frances, but from Samuel H.'s second wife. They would have been about 19 and 16, respectively, in 1834 at the signing of the will.

49. SAMUEL[3] RUTAN (12Samuel[2], Abraham[1]) was born 3 July 1752[258] (Figure 20, Bible records), and died 13 Oct. 1814[259] (Figure 20, Bible records). He married 3 May 1775[260] (Figure 20, Bible records) MARIA [MARITJE] BRUYN [BROWN], who was born 25 Nov. 1754[261] (Figure 20, Bible records), baptized Second River, 15 Dec. 1754,[262] daughter of Isaac Bruyn and Feytje Willes, and died 2 Jan. 1834[263] (Figure 20, Bible records). Samuel[3] was mentioned in Samuel[2]'s will. He is listed as a Revolutionary War patriot by the DAR.[264]

According to Strange and Garrigus, DAR Rutan Genealogy:

> Mary Rutan Bought two tracts of land from Henry and Francis Rutan [see sketch of Henry[3], brother of Mary's husband] lying in the Township of Bloomfield by deed Sept. 13, 1821 [see next deed]. In 1815, Mary Rutan sold two lots to her sons, Abraham Rutan and Samuel S. Rutan [find this deed]. From this purchase and sale of land it is to be inferred that Mary Rutan, wife of Samuel, was a widow in 1815.[265]

On 30 Sept. 1821, Henry Rutan and Frances his wife, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Mary Rutan, of the same place, for $300, two parcels in Bloomfield, the first of 12 acres and the second, adjacent, tract of 2 acres. The land description of the first tract mentions a corner

Placeholder. A competing possible husband for Mary[4] might be the father in the following record: John Van Emburgh, son of John Van Emburgh and Maria Rutan, was born 23 June 1803, and baptized 14 Aug. 1803, Second River (Belleville) church.[268] Who was she?

N.B. Note that Henry S. Rutan, born 1790, would fit next nicely. He is not mentioned in Maria's will of 14 Nov. 1833. But he had definitely died by 7 Aug. 1833, on Staten Island. Hillgond, Catrina, Isaac, and Jacob are also not mentioned in the will. So I'm tentatively placing Henry S. here, thus claiming the S. stands for Samuel, not Seguine (for which name I have found no evidence):

Fourth Generation

The Daniel[2] Branch

50. DANIEL[4] RUTAN (13*Abraham*[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was baptized 26 Jan. 173[4/]5, Dutch Reformed Church, Hackensack,[272] with Daniel Rutan and his wife as witnesses, presumably the child's grandparents. He probably married, sometime before 5 Aug. 1763 (when their first child was born), MARGARITE [MARGRIETJE] STAGG [STEGG],[273] who was baptized 24 Feb. 1743, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.,[274] daughter of Jacob and Antje (Vreeland) Stagg.

N.B. Here we recall that a neighbor to the original Rutan New Jersey tracts on the Kingsland–Berry Line was Thomas Stagg. So Abraham[3] (Daniel[2]) was probably born a neighbor to the Staggs, before his father Daniel[2] moved the family northward.

Serious problem? Yes, I think so. There is a baptism 21 Aug. 1763, Dutch Reformed Church of New York, for a son Abraham of Daniel Rutan and Willemina Bogert, with Abraham Rutan and Sara Van Gelder as witnesses. I suspect that Willemina and Willempje Bogert are two different women (cf. brother Jacob's wife).[275]

N.B., this register uses New Style dates, with the year beginning 1 Jan. There are apparently three baptisms listed under "Jan^{y} 26. 1735" (written in the parents column) at the bottom of p. 263. The first date atop p. 264 is 9 Feb. 1735.

273. Variations on this surname in the records collected here include Segg, Stefig, Stegge, and Stagg.

274. U.S. Dutch Reformed Church Records in Selected States, 1639–1989, Schraalenburgh, N.J., Vol. I, Book 73, handwritten, 55, image 37 of 227 at <Ancestry.com>, "Margrietje | Bapt. Feb 24, 1743 [parents] Jacob Stegge | Antje Fieland. [witnesses] Abraham Stegge, |& wife."

There are two circumstantial arguments in this sketch: (1) That Margarite Stagg was this Daniel's wife. (2) That Abraham D. Rutan was their child.

Concerning Margarite Stagg as Daniel[4]'s wife: We know that she married a Daniel Rutan from a 1922 genealogy of the Stagg family in Scott's History of Passaic. The parts in boldface lead to two of the sketches in this Rutan genealogy [However, I now prefer Nelson's genealogy of the Staggs, in his History of Paterson, 191–196. Scott seems to be derived from Nelson]:

> The first of the name of Stagg in the eastern part of New Jersey was Thomas Stagg, who probably lived in New Barbadoes Neck, on the edge of the Hackensack meadows, south of the present Rutherford.[276] In the early records the name is generally written Steg or Stegge. It is, however, assumed that the family is of Dutch origin . . . The children of Thomas and Margrietje Stagg were: Thomas, Jan and Willem. . . .
> Descendants of Jan Stagg–Jan, the second son of Thomas and Margrietje Stagg, was born March 17, 1674. He was a mason by trade, and his name, John Stagg, is carved on one of the stones embedded in the eastern wall of the Reformed church at Hackensack. He married (first) Maritje Bogart, and (second) Neeltje Verwey.[277] His children by his second wife were: Johannes, Cornelis, Thomas, Abram; Neeltje, . . . ; Margrita, Isaack, Jacob, Jores, . . . ; William, died young.
> Johannes, eldest child of Jan and Neeltje (Verwey) Stagg, married Hendrickie Housman or Huysman, Aug. 11, 1722. He settled on a farm near Sicomac. Their children were: Jan, Maria; Neeltje, . . . ; Abraham, Thomas, Jacobus, Cornelis, Albert and Isaac. . . .
> Isaac, ninth child of Johannes and Hendrickie (Housman) Stagg, was baptized Aug 2, 1747, and married (first) a widow, Elizabeth Banta,

276. To see what I mean, here is the opening paragraph in Nelson, 191: "The first of the name of Stagg in this part of the country of whom we have any record, was Thomas Stagg, who probably lived on New Barbadoes Neck, on the edge of the Hackensack meadows, south of the present Rutherford."

277. New Jersey, U.S., Marriage Records, 1683–1802, Vol. XXII, Marriage Records 1665–1800, Hackensack Church, 501, image 641 of 819 at <Ancestry.com>, "Stegge, Jan, wid'r of Maritie Bongaert, and Neeltie Verwey, j. d., b. Siemeka 1698 Nov. 26 | . . .| Stegge, John, y. m., b. Bergen, East N. Jersey, and Maritie Bongaert, y. d., b. Long Island 1697 Mar. 14."

> (second) Margrietje Banta, widow of Samuel Retan [see sketch of Samuel[4] Rutan ($_{15}$John[3], Daniel[2])]. Children by second wife: Samuel, baptized June 30, 1779; Hendrick Banta, born Aug. 1, 1790; and Grietje. . . .
> Jacob, eighth child of Jan and Neeltje (Verwey) Stagg, was born at New Barbados Neck, and was baptized May 22, 1715. He married, Aug. 23, 1739, Antjen, daughter of Dirck Vreeland.[278] He was a mason by trade and lived at Wesel. The children by his marriage were: Margrietje, married Daniel Retan [see this sketch, for Daniel[4] ($_{13}$Abraham[3], Daniel[2])]; Jan, died in infancy; Johannes; Antje, and Jacob, born April 23, 1761.[279]

I considered Margarite Stagg as wife of the following Daniel Rutans, with the argument in each case for accepting or rejecting the candidate:
Daniel[4] Rutan ($_{28}$Peter[3], Peter[2], Abraham[1]) of Morris Co., born about 1747. I rejected him because of his age (too young for Margarite, but not by much) and location (I have no reason to think the current Daniel ever resided in Morris Co., although he might have, of course).
Daniel[4] Rutan ($_{15}$John[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]), born 1755, and baptized 1756 in Paramus. His location is reasonable, but I rejected him because he was about 12 years younger than Margarite.
Daniel[4] Rutan ($_{13}$Abraham[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]), the current Daniel, baptized 1735 in Hackensack. I believe this Daniel was Margarite's husband because he was just few years older, and was located in Bergen Co. She, baptized 24 Feb. 1743, would have been about 19 at this marriage, assuming it was nine months or so before 5 Aug. 1763 (when their first putative child, as argued next, was born).

A supporting argument appears in Keegan's A Second Rutan Family Index, p. 7:

Jacob Steck Y.M. son of Jan Steck born at N. Barbados Neck, & living there with Antge Vreeland Y. D. of Dirck Vreeland born at Ackquegnonk, & living at Wesel }."

279. Scott, History of Passaic and its environs: historical, biographical, 36–39, images 1023–1026 of 1875 at <Ancestry.com>. Specifically, the Stagg family history appears in Vol. 2 of Scott's history, page images 666–672 of 1300 at <archive.org>, in a section called "Pioneer Families."

> Daniel Rutan – b 1742 of Acquackanonk m Margaret Stegg/Stagg in 1767; EARDP; PCHSQ.[280]

But it is flawed because we know that the current Daniel was baptized in 1735, and had to have married Margarite before 1763 if the argument for their child presented next is to hold.

Moreover, the same reference has this conflicting Daniel Rutan, p. 6:

> Daniel Rutan – (1735–1778) p/Abraham Rutan–Sarah Van Gelder m Wilhelmina Bogert; bur at Longwell Cem, Vernon Twp, Sussex Co. Note: PCHSQ has him born in 1740; MACK; JS.[281]

However, we have Welhimina Bogert married 1765, Paramus, to Jacob[4] Rutan ($_{13}$Abraham[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]), the current Daniel's brother.

Now we present the argument for Abraham D.[5] Rutan as child of Daniel[4] and Margarite: Abraham D. Rutan born 5 Aug. 1763 fits Margarite's marriage age, as just argued. Furthermore, the D. is a reasonable patronymic initial for a father named Daniel, and the firstborn male child Abraham would be named, in the classic way at this time and place, for the paternal grandfather, Abraham[3] Rutan. Note that the second male child, as we have it here, Jacob[4] Rutan, would have been named, also classically, for the maternal grandfather, Jacob Stagg. Also, the paternal grandmother, Saartje Van Gelder, and maternal grandmother, Antje Vreeland, were honored by daughters' names. The youngest daughter's name, Margarite, was, of course, a Stagg family name (her mother's). And, finally, the 1763 birth fits in nicely with the known children.

This Daniel Rutan is a good candidate for the one named on the DAR plaque, honoring Revolutionary War patriots, in the vestibule of the Dutch church of Belleville, Essex Co., N.J.

York,[317] SARAH WEBBER [WEBBERS], daughter of Frederick and Elena (Banta) Webber.

I've placed Abraham here because of the following item in Keegan's Second Rutan Index, p. 2. See the first child for evidence that this is the correct placement:

> Abraham Rutan – b 1740/43 p/Abraham Rutan–Sarah Van Gelder m. Sarah Webbers in 1761/66; FH; PCHSQ; MACK

On 26 May 1761, "Abraham Rethan & wife Sara DeForeest" witnessed a baptism of Catharine, daughter of Gulian Demarre and Susanna Rethan (Gilliam Demarest and Susanna[4] Rutan, who would be sister of this Abraham[4]).[318]

It strikes me that Abraham might have married first Sarah DeForest. That fits better here than elsewhere in this book. Note that all of the baptisms of the children (of a supposed second wife) occurred in New York City. If he were born say 1740, then he could have had a brief marriage with Sarah DeForest circa 1761 before he married Sarah Webber in 1766. But it's a tight fit. Note that this Abraham serving as a witness to his niece's baptism in 1761 (Catharina[5] Demarest, daughter of sister Susanna[4] Rutan and Gilliam Demarest) fits very nicely, all in the New York City locale.

I argue this sketch circumstantially. Point 1: Two of the children from the first two putative wives were baptized at the Totowa church. Point 2: Despite Elizabeth's origin in Monmouth Co., there is a suggestion that she married John in the Totowa church (unproved thus far). Point 3: It is likely that John[4]'s brother, Jacob[4], stood witness for the first child, perhaps the only child of Sara. Point 4: The children of the first two women do not overlap, thus making successive marriages plausible [but see Puzzle below]. Point 5: Elizabeth Lake is explicitly named in the baptismal records for Elenor, Susanna, and Catharina, as their mother, all named in John's will as his children. Point 6: Widow Rachel is explicitly mentioned in the probate records of John. I suspect that Sara Spier was married to a different John.

I am supported by the following two items (partially unvetted) in Keegan, A Third Rutan Family Index:

> John A. Rutan – (1752/3/60 [sic, means born sometime between 1752/3 and 1760]–1828) m Elizabeth Lake b 1750/60 at Totowa [married her at Totowa or she was born there?]; he was in the weaving business per his will [I find no mention of weaving in his will— he left his wearing apparel to his son Richard]; Elizabeth was from Marlboro NJ; he died in Essex Co.; Note: his parents in the Huguenot Society of NJ appl of Lester R. Acknowledged 12 Feb. 1801.[331]

On 28 Aug. 1827, John Rutan, of Essex Co., N.J., signed his will, and it was proved 9 May 1828. It mentions "my six children viz: Richard Rutan, Elenor Rutan wife of John C. T. In light of the following record, it is remarkable that the will does not mention Rachel, John's widow:

On 8 Oct. 1828, Rachel Rutan, widow of John Rutan, deceased, late of Belleville, Essex Co., N.J., in exchange for $200 and various household items (bed, Bible, stove, pots, andirons, etc.) from Richard Rutan, "Eloner" Rutan wife of John C. Puzzle: In 1765 Johannes Ratan and Sara "d%" [ditto], so apparently his wife, witnessed the baptism at the Pompton Plains church of Annaatje, daughter of Barend Spier and Immitje "d%."[335] Sarah Spier would seem to fit except for the fact that Johannes Ratan would have been only about 12 at this baptism, if he were the current John[4]. We know from Scott's History of Passaic that Barent Spier, baptized May 1733 (probably Bergen or Acquackanonk), married (1) Immetje Bord (Bant, Bond), and had three children: Abraham, baptized 26 Mar. 1753; Pieter, born 21 Oct. 1759; and Theunis, born 1 Aug. 1762.[336] We know that they also had daughter Annaatje in 1765 (witnessed by Johannes Ratan and Sara [ditto], see above). And there was an Anne listed as Barnet's child in his will. Scott also tells us that Barent had a sister Sarah. Something is not right here.

Child of the first marriage, to Sara:

with witnesses Jacobos Retan and Willimye Bogert.[337] So uncle Jacob[4] was witness. This child may have died young since he is not mentioned in the will. But Sarah is not mentioned in that will either. Again, I think this current John is the wrong John.

Claartje's baptism occurred just after that of Catharina Rutan, daughter of Abraham[3] Rutan (Daniel[2]) and Sara, witnessed by Coenraad Leen and Marytie Leen (held 2 May 1741).[357] These Leens were probably Conrad and Maria Margretha (—) Leyn, parents of Conrad Lein who married Catharine.

The Van Houten family, early to New Jersey, has been extensively studied and recorded, most notably (No, see the Nelson treatment, next) the dense 12-page treatment in Scott's History of Passaic (attributed by Scott to Charles W. Googaerd, Dec. 19, 1734. At the time of his marriage he was living at Acquackanonk, but later in life removed to Pompton, where he died Dec. 23, 1753. By his marriage with Angenietje Boogaerd, he had four children: Pieter, Willempje, born May 9, 1739; Claertje (clarissa), married Coenralt Lyne; and Jacob, born April 18, 1745. His eldest son Pieter, mentioned above, was born March 8, 1736, and married Rachel Lyne, Oct. 20, 1755; they lived in the Wanaque Valley. Their children were: Adrian, born June 3, 1759, married Vannetje Romig, and they had one child, Peter, born Jan. 31, 1789; Caty, married Simon Van Ness, of Pompton Plains; John, born July 7, 1762, married Hannah Kidney, and the issue of this marriage was: John Kidney, James, Sally, married George Tyce; Rachel, married Henry Riker; Polly, married Halmagh I. Van Wagoner. Mary, fourth child of Pieter and Rachel (Lyne) Van Houten, married Peter Fisher; Agnes, married William Murphy; Eleanor, married Theunis Ryerson; Peter, born Nov. 19, 1774; Conrad, born April 10, 1776; and Annaetje, born Jan. 31, 1781.

Helmerich, second son of Peter and Claertje (Post) Van Houten, born Dec. 10, 1709, married (first) Geertje Van Hoorn, and (second) eva, daughter of Paulus Rutan, of the Bogt. When past middle age he joined the Van Ripers, Rutans, Staggs and others, who were among the hardy pioneers who ventured into the frontier forests before the Revolution, penetrating so far west as Waywayanda, in Sussex county, and there he died. By his first wife he was the father of one child, Peter, who married and had one son Helmigh, baptized April 14, 1764, who was probably brought up in his grandmother Van Hoorn's family. By his second wife there were four children: Vannetje, Helmich, Paulus and Johannes.

Here is a better source: Nelson's, History of Paterson (which I believe to be the source of Scott's treatment):

Adrian–Pieter–Hellemeg–Roelof Cornelissen and Angenietje Boogaerd had children:

IX. (prob.) Annaetye, b. Jan. 31, 1781; the totawa baptismal record gives the mother's name as Ragel Lerroe. [I believe this is a different Rachel].[361]

On 30 Jan. 1767, Abraham "Lynn," of Saddle River, Bergen Co., N.J., signed his will and it was proved 1 June 1771. Executors were his wife, Mary, and his son, John, and John Bartram.[362] This is Abraham Lein, brother of Conrad Lein who married Catharine[3] Rutan, hence uncle of Conrad[4] Lein [alias Rutan].

On 25 July 1772, "Mary Lien Executrix John Lion Executor of the last will and testament of Abraham Lien deceased and Daniel Lien the only executor of the last will and testament of Carmadt [sic] Lien all of Wanaique," Bergen Co., N.J. (signed Mary [her mark] Lines, John Lines, and Daniel [his mark] Lines), sold to Anthony Beam (var. Beem), of the same place, a tract of 227.75 acres. The context of this deed, as made clear in it, was this: "Anthony Beem Abraham Lien and Carmadt Lien in their life time were all equally concerned in purchasing of a certain tract of land," in Bergen Co. containing 683 acres. They had divided that tract into three parts in 1743 and "released to each other and now by resurveying the same lot it appears that there has been a great mistate [sic]." So this deed presumably made a more equitable division to Abraham Beam.[363]

On 12 Oct. 1784, "Coonrat Lines alias Rutan" and "Clarche" [cf. Claartje] his wife, of "Wioming," Pennsylvania, sold to Daniel Lines, of Winogue, Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., for £150, 71.61 acres lying in Winogue "now in the actual possession of Daniel Lines and whereon he now dwelleth," being one-third of a tract (minus a 13-acre deduction) formerly belonging to Coonrat Lines deceased. The tract was part of a 683.53 tract formerly deeded to Abraham Beam, Abraham Lines, and Coonrat Lines. (Note that 1/3 of this large tract would be about 227.84 acres; that minus 13 acres gives 214.84 acres as the senior Coonrat's share; and 1/3 of that would be about 71.61 acres.).[364]

N.B. "Wioming" was probably what is now known as Wyoming Borough, Luzerne Co., Pa., judging by the will below.

On 19 June 1812, Conrad "Line" signed his will in Hanover Twp., Luzerne Co., Pa., and it was proved 25 June 1815. It mentions "my beloved wife Clarissa," "my two sons viz: John Henry," whom he appoints his executors, "the children of my two deceased sons viz. Adrian and James," "my two sons Conrad and Abraham," "my daughters (viz.) Katherine Decker and Agness Ryason, Lancy Worden and Mary Fairchild," "my son Peter."[365]

This is the earliest sibling of Clarrisa (wife of Conrad Lein) in this register. In particular, there is no baptism in 1736 for Adriaan Van Houten (or for any Van Houten), or in 1734–1738. We know that Adriaan was a member of the Pompton Plains church in Sept. 1737 (3, image 4 of 220).

Similarly, here are the unsourced comments at the Find a Grave entry for Peter VanHouten:

The Town of Ithaca now maintains the Inlet Valley Cem. (also known as Fisher's Cemetery), which it obtained in bankruptcy proceedings from the corporation which formerly ran the cemetery. I wrote the Town of Ithaca on 25 Aug. 2025 about the cemetery, asking who the "caretaker" might be. I received a long response the following day from Paulette Rosa, Town Clerk, which began with this short note:

This was followed by a long .pdf of many records documenting the takeover of the cemetery by the Town, and including some gravestone records, but with very few dates. Some of the relevant records follow:

The tract was part of a 683.53 tract formerly deeded to Abraham Beam, Abraham Lines, and Coonrat Lines. There are tax records in Saddle River Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., for Peter Lines for years 1778–1782.[422] There is a census record of some sort for Peter Lines in this same location for 1775. If he were 21 in 1778, then he was born about 1757. However, if he were 18 when he married in say 1771, then he was born about 1753.

Abstract of Peter's will:

> 1793, Aug. 5. Lines, Peter, Sr., of Saddle River Twsp., Bergen Co.; will of. Wife, Elizabeth, real and personal estate while my widow. After wife's remarriage or death, eldest son, Peter, the blacksmith shop and 1/3 of real property. Sons, Coenradt and Thomas, each 1/3 of real property. Daughters, Aulche and Catharine, each £25; to be paid by the 3 sons. Residue divided between the 5 children. Executors—brother, Abraham Lines, Richard Lines, John Collins. Proved Mar. 27, 1794. | Lib. 35, p. 49; File 2407B.[423]

On 14 Aug. 1793, an inventory was conducted of Peter's estate in Bergen County and sworn to by his executor "Abraham Lines" on 25 Apr. 1794 in Hackensack.[424]

On 4 Nov. 1806, Thomas Lines, "a Son and Heir of Peter Lines Late of the Township of Saddle river Dec^{d} but (now the Township of Pomton) in the County of Bergen," petitioned for division of the undivided lands of his father's estate, complicated by the death of eldest son Peter Lines (leaving two orphans, Elizabeth and Polly).[425]

A remarkably lengthy Widow's Pension Application File—123 pages—establishes John, his family, and his Revolutionary War service. Jane Rutan applied for the pension, and it was eventually granted. Here is a summary of its relevant contents:[438]

(1) The death dates for both John and Jane are from p. 3 of this file (image 561). Two children are mentioned on this same page, John and Catharine.

(2) On p. 4 (image 562), on 15 Sept. 1837, New York City, John Rutan, 54, swore that he was the son of John and Jane Rutan. So he was born, he swore, in about 1783. And he swore that his father had died about 33 years ago (so 1805).

(3) On p. 5 (image 563) appears a New York City affidavit, dated 9 Aug. 1847 (on evidence exhibited 6 Oct. 1845), which states that Jane died 23 Sept. 1845, New York City, "leaving her surviving four children and whose names are Catharine Rutan, Alethea Plant, Rachel Fisk and John Rutan, who are all of full age."

437. James M. Van Valen, History of Bergen County (New York: New Jersey Publishing and Engraving Company, 1900), 179, at <archive.org>. Wikipedia states that Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., existed from 1771 until 1926. It was part of the original Saddle River Twp. and named for William Franklin, Benjamin's son, and Governor of N.J. Franklin Twp. was subdivided several times, reducing in size each time, until only the area known locally as Wyckoff remained. Then in 1926 that portion changed its name to Wyckoff Twp.

438. U.S., Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land Warrant Application Files, 1800–1900, widow's file W.18846, Jane Rutan, for service of Pvt. John Rutan, 123 pages, images 559–681 of 1276 at <Ancestry.com>, pension entered into pension roll on 4 Mar. 1843 and terminated at Jane's death on 23 Sept. 1845, certificate of pension issued 25 Aug. 1847.

(4) On p. 6 (image 564) is an affidavit sworn 25 Sept. 1837 by Jane Rutan, aged 81 (so born about 1756), who declared that John Rutan died on 17 Mar. 1803.

(5) In another affidavit (images 567–569), dated 28 Dec. 1842, she specifies his service under captains John Ootwater, Peter Ward, Thomas Blanch, John Hyler, — Dimerest, and — Romain. And further that she and her husband resided in Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., "from her childehood until her marriage to him" which took place in that town. And further that she married John 2 Jan. of unknown year but that it took place before her eldest son was born, who was 55 in July last (so born about 1787). [Since the minister at their marriage was from the Ponds, N.J., church, it is possible that the marriage took place there. The Dutch Reformed Church of Ponds, N.J., is located today at 341 Ramapo Valley Rd., Oakland, Bergen Co., N.J. Wikipedia informs us that Oakland was formed from Franklin Twp. in 1902. If the Ponds church was indeed in Franklin Twp. at the time of their marriage, then it is probable that the marriage was performed there.]

(6) Catharine Rutan swore an affidavit on the same date (image 569) that she was John's daughter and that she was 50 in July last, that her brother is 5 years older, that they both live in New York City, and that her mother had a sister older than herself who is dead. [It is possible that "who" refers to her sister, not her mother, which lends credence to her being the second Catharine. If she were indeed born in 1791, then she would indeed be five years older than her brother John. The Blauvelt genealogy gives her mother an older sister, Jannetje Blauvelt, who died young.[439]]

(7) A letter (image 575) states that "Soldier married Jane Blauvelt, June 2, 1782, in Bergen county, N.J., and died March 17, 1803." (However, the "June" has a ? over it and in the margin are two notations: "Jan 1 – | Jan. 2 –."

Tap. #2914, Jan. 31, 1762. Died young." And "1356 Jannetye, born Jan. 15, 1767, bapt. Tap. #2154, Feb. 1, 1767."

(8) An affidavit of Alethea Plant, of New York City, dated 15 Sept. 1837, states John Rutan and Jane were married 1 Jan. 1782, by Rev. Dr. Vanderlender, minister of the Presbyterian Church at Ponds in N.J., and further that one of their children, now living, John, is 54 (implies he was born about 1783).

On 10 May 1785, John I. [J. in the original? See footnote] Rutan, of Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., sold to Garrit H. Blauvelt, of the same place [probably Jannetje's father], for £407, 137.5 acres "in the Patent of Ramapough," Franklin Twp., a place called Wichhalf [Wycoff?], the southern part of a large tract formerly purchased by John and William Van Voorhesen on 2 Apr. 1745, from John Hamilton, Andrew Janson, and John Burnet Esq. Acknowledged in Bergen Co. on 25 May 1785.[440]

On 1 Sept. 1789, Johannes Rutan, of Wycoof [var. Wycoff], Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., farmer, sold to Adam Snyder, of the same place, blacksmith, for £32.10, 6.75 acres in Wycoff, Franklin Twp. The property description mentions neighbors Cornelius Bogert, Adam Van Norden, and John Cairns, and the Mukensukemuk Brook. Acknowledged in Bergen Co. on 10 Sept. 1789.[441]

Children of the first marriage to Maria:

224 i MARIA[5] RUTAN, born 10 Dec. 1774, baptized 20 Dec. 1774, Dutch Reformed Church, Second River (Belleville), N.J.,[442] witnessed by Samuel Ratan and his wife. This was probably Samuel[4], John[4]'s brother.

225 ii DERRECK[5] RUTAN, born 29 Mar. 1777, baptized 28 Apr. 1777, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.,[443] witnessed by Samuel Rutan and wife, again, probably Samuel[4] (John[3], Daniel[2]).

Known children of the second marriage, to Jane:

226 iii JOHN[5] RUTAN, born 10 July 1786, baptized 23 July 1786, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[444] He was of New York City in an affidavit of 28 Dec. 1842. He was one of four surviving children at his mother's death 23 Sept. 1845.

227 iv CATHARINE [TRYNTJE][5] RUTAN, born 13 Nov. 1788, baptized 19 Oct. 1788, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., witnessed by her mother's parents.[445] She was born about July 1791, according to an affidavit she signed in her mother's Revolutionary War pension application. She was of New York City in an affidavit of 28 Dec. 1842. She was apparently unmarried in an affidavit of 6 Oct. 1845. She was one of four surviving children at her mother's death 23 Sept. 1845. Since there is a 3-year discrepancy in birthdates here between Tryntje in 1788 and Catharine in 1791, it is possible that the first Tryntje died young. However, there is no corresponding baptismal record for a second Catharine.

228 v ALETHEA[5] RUTAN, born day 1793, married (1) 12 May 1810, Dutch Reformed Church, Madison Ave., New York City,[446] ISAAC BROWER, son of Jacob Brower, mentioned as Alethea Plant in an affidavit in her mother's Revolutionary War pension application, so married (2) 3 Oct. 1832, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City,[447] JOHN PLANT. She was of New York City in an affidavit of 229 vi JANNETJE[5] RUTAN, born 30 May 1796, baptized 17 July 1796, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[449] She is not mentioned in her mother's Revolutionary War pension application.

230 vii DAVID[5] RUTAN, born 2 Jan. 1799, baptized 13 Aug. 1799, Dutch Reformed Church, New York City, N.Y.[450] There is a member, David Rutan, listed in a membership list from some time in 1832–1846 for the ME Church in New York City, on the same page as Rachel Fisk and two pages from a page that lists Catharine M. Retan and Susan Ratan.[451]

+ 231 viii RACHEL[5] RUTAN, born about 1804, New York, married JONATHAN FISK, and had six children. She was one of four surviving children at her mother's death 23 Sept. 1845.

69. SAMUEL[4] RUTAN (15John[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born 1752, and died about 1778 (before the birth of the first child of his wife's second marriage). He married MARGRIETJE [MARGARET][5] BANTA (Cornelius[4], Jan[3], Cornelius[2], Epke[1]), who was born 3 July 1748 (Banta genealogy, see below), daughter of Cornelius and Rachel (Banta) Banta. Margrietje married, secondly, as a widow, ISAAC STAGG, and had three children, born 1779–1793.

N.B. I do not, in fact, have proof of Samuel[4]'s ancestry. I place him here because he is so placed in the Banta genealogy, which I now quote to lend credence to this sketch:

> 51. Cornelius[4] Banta [Jan[3] Cornelius[2] Epke[1]] married at Acquackenonck, N.J., April 25, 1736 [sic, should be 1730],[452] his second cousin,[226] Rachel[4] Banta. They were members of the church at Acquackenonck, and in 1750 united with the church at Schraalenburgh. They lived at what was formerly called Sluckup— now Spring Valley—about two miles northwest of Hackensack. His will was dated March 27, 1787, when he was nearly seventy-nine years old. The will was not recorded, but the substance of it, as given by one of his descendants, is as follows: My wife Rachel to have the use of my real estate. Eldest son John to have my Dutch Bible. John to have equal half of land south side of my farm, with the house, barn and other privileges to the same belonging. Son Hendrick to have north half of the farm, son Weart being removed out of the United States, and having his portion which I intend to allot to him, and I do wish that the All-gracious God will bless him, &c. Movables to be divided equally between my two sons and six daughters, Cornelia, Susanna, Maria, Antie, Grietje and Lydia. £120 to the six daughters after death of my wife. Sons John and Hendrick to be executors.

The "[sic]" mark indicates a possible error in the Banta genealogy.

I follow this with the sketch of Margaret Banta from the same reference, most of which I do prove (and slightly correct—see "[sic]" marks):

261. Margaret[5] Banta married Samuel Retan, and upon his death she married[454] Isaac Stagg[455]

Issue by first marriage.

704–Cornelius Retan,[6] b. Nov. 24, 1773, m. Hette Fellow.

Issue.

1887—Margaret Retan,[7] b. Nov. 20 [sic], 1793. [Should be 3 Dec.].

1888—Samuel Retan,[7] Sept. 6 [sic], 1796. [Should be 20 Jan.].

705—Rachel Retan,[6] Nov. 23, 1775.

Issue by second marriage.

706—Samuel Stagg,[6] bp. June 20 [sic], 1779.

707—Hendrick Banta Stagg,[6] b. Aug. 1, 1790.[456]

708—Grietje Stagg,[6] b. Nov. 12, 1793.[457]

The Stagg genealogy, which I repeat here, supports this:

Isaac, ninth child of Johannes and Hendrickie (Housman) Stagg, was baptized Aug 2, 1747, and married (first) a widow, Elizabeth Banta, (second) Margrietje Banta, widow of Samuel Retan. Children by second wife: Samuel, baptized June 30, 1779; Hendrick Banta, born Aug. 1, 1790; and Grietje.[458]

Nelson's History of Paterson, 193, in his genealogy of Acquackanonk patentee John Hendrick Spier, has the genealogy of "Johannes-Jan-Thomas Stagg and Hendricktie Housman," which closely resembles Scott's:

> IX. Isaac [Stagg], bap. Aug. 2, 1747; m. 1st, Elizabeth Banta, wid., Sept. 28, 1763; 2d, Margrietje Banta, wid. of Samuel Retan.

Nelson's History of Paterson, 192, has the genealogy of "Jan-Thomas Stagg and Neeltje Verwey," and son Johannes.

He married[482] REBECCA [ANNA] KASINE, who was born 1750–1759, but I have found nothing to substantiate it (but see following note about Henry Kasine Rutan). See the argument starting in the following paragraph, where we seek also to establish her first name and her position in the Rutan family.

The following might be relevant. It is from the records of the William Paterson DAR Chapter of Paterson, N.J., and apparently pertains to Henry K.[6] Rutan (Robert[5], Abraham[4]), grandson of the current Abraham[4]:

Note that Mr. Kasine's daughter is not named.

The DAR Patriot Index, Centenniel Edition has Abraham D. Rutan, born 1763, married (1) — Kasine, married (2) Lydia Vanderbeek.[484] Indeed Abraham D.[5] Rutan (50*Daniel*[4], Abraham[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born 1763, did marry Lydia Vanderbeek, and was a Patriot, as we show elsewhere. But I have found no evidence that he was first married to — Kasine. However, he did have time for a first marriage before Lydia's, but I could not establish that he had done so.

As regards her first name, an online genealogy at <Ancestry.com> has Rebecca Kasine (1765–before 1798) married to Abraham D. Rutan, with child Robert Abramse Rutan (1793–1858). Keegan says that this Abraham is NOT the same one who married Lydia Vanderbeek. It may be the wrong Abraham, and I agree that it is, but it gives us, as a hint anyway, Rebecca as Ms. Kasine's first name.

492. GSNJ Bible 5725, with this note, "Copy from old Dutch prayer book. Now in my possession. Oct 20–1965 [signed] A. A. Rheutan."

What makes this problematic is that Antje (Nix) Brouwer married, secondly, John[3] Rutan, also his second marriage. As argued in his sketch, they married after Antje (Nix) Brouwer was declared a widow in the 16 June 1776 baptism record of her son Jacobus Brouwer. And they married before early 1781, based on their child Sarah[5] Rutan's 10 Nov. 1781 birth. I repeat the following supporting data from John[3]'s sketch:

A child, Jacobus Brower, was baptized 16 June 1776, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, N.J.,[493] to mother "Widow Antje Brower." So Antje Brouwer had lost her Brouwer husband 1775–1776.

The first child of the second marriage was Sarah[4] Rutan, born 10 Nov. 1781, baptized 13 Dec. 1781, Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, Paterson, N.J.[494]

But was John[3] the father of the current Daniel[4], the one who married Jannetje Brouwer? That is, did Jannetje's mother marry Daniel's father?

Keegan's A Third Rutan Family Index has this (which places this Daniel[4] under John[3]):

> Daniel Rutan – (1756–1820) p/Johannes Rutan–Aeltie P. Van Horn m. Jannitje Brower (1762–1858) in 1789; Jannitje (Jenny) was the daughter of his father's second wife Antye Nix Brower; Note: according to AAR this is the correct relationship; PCHSP; EARDP; AAR.[495]

He was perhaps the Thomas "Rotin" who enlisted as a private in the 2nd New Jersey Regiment according to a muster roll for Jan. 1779.[539]

Which Rachel Van Wert?

There were three Rachels Van Wert who might fit the first wife of William[4] and the facts gleaned from her gravestone. All three of these baptisms occurred at the Dutch Reformed Church, Philipsburg (Sleepy Hollow), N.Y., near the 9 Nov. 1763 (calculated) birthdate on Rachel's gravestone:

(1) Rachel Van Waert, baptized 21 June 1762,[557] daughter of Johannes and Rachel Van Waert. If the gravestone is accurate, then this could not be the desired Rachel.

(2) Rachel Van Wert, baptized 8 May 1764,[558] daughter of Willem and Lena Van Wert. We should choose her since her baptism was closest to,

(3) Rachel Van Wert, baptized 30 June 1764,[559] daughter of Martinus and Rachel Van Wert.

Keegan's query of 1966 states (see father Abraham[3]'s sketch) that she was Rachel Bower Van Wort. The widow's pension application file for the second wife, Rachel Brower, clarifies that Keegan had conflated the two wives.

Another persistent error has been to give Rachel (the first wife) the surname Cox. The index on p. 170 of The Old Dutch Burying Ground of Sleepy Hollow in North Tarrytown, New York, refers to "Rachel Cox, w. William [Ruton]." And the Find a Grave page for Rachel's gravestone (q.v.) is titled "Rachel Cox Ruton." The surname misassignment probably comes from a Rachel Cocks, baptized 11 Sept. 1763, Dutch Reformed Church, Philipsburg (Sleepy Hollow), N.Y.,[560] daughter of Jan and Rachel Cocks. This doesn't quite fit Rachel's gravestone but is close enough, considering that the birthdate deduced from the stone is a calculation.

Before returning to William's sketch, a note about Rachel's actual surname. I use the form Van Wert as opposed to Van Wort, Van Wart, or Van Waert in the records. In fact, since the "Van Name" form stands for "from Name, a place in the Netherlands," then the original form was probably Van Weert.

On 17 Oct. 1795, William "Reton" was recorded a member of the Dutch Reformed Church of North Tarrytown, N.Y.[561]

In 1810 William Ruton, 26–45 [born 1765–1784] [sic], resided in North East Twp., Dutchess Co., N.Y., with a woman over 45, two boys and one girl under 10, one boy and two girls 10–16.[562]

In 1820 William Ruton, over 45 [born before 1775], resided in Westerlo Twp., Albany Co., N.Y., with a woman over 45, two girls under 10, two boys 10–16, one male and one female 16–26.[563]

On 19 Sept. 1843, Rachel Ruton, of Cobleskill, Schoharie Co., N.Y., William's widow, applied for a Revolutionary War pension based on his service in the New York Line, and it was granted. The application file of 42 pages contains much information, including (copies of) Bible pages listing important dates and all 12 children.

Included in the pension file is this document summarizing the "service" as prisoners:[564]

The service of William "Rattan" was, first, under Capt. Jonas Orser in Col. James Hammonds's Regiment, then second and third, under Capt. Israel Honeywell in the same regiment.[565]

There are affidavits in Rachel's pension application file from: (1) Benjamin B. Ruton, who "is the son of William and Rachel Ruton, & is thirty five years of age," signed 5 Apr. 1844, New York City.[566] (2) William Ruton, who "the son of William and Rachel Ruton," signed 19 Sept. 1843, Schoharie Co., N.Y.[567] (3) Hannah Romer, who, in an affidavit signed 27 Sept. 1843, Richmond Co., N.Y.,

(4) Eleanor Brush, 76 [born about 1767], wife of Caleb Brush,[569] who, in an affidavit signed 29 Sept. 1843, New York City, > is a daughter of Jacob Van Tassell, a Lieutenant in the War of the Revolution, and is a cousin of William Ruton, a private in said war; that her said father and her said cousin were taken captive together in the War of the Revolution, and confined in prison in the City of New York.[570]

Problem: The various affidavits from relatives support William Ruton being a prisoner of war with Jacob Van Tassel, not Isaac Van Tassel as supported by records from the New York Comptroller's office. This reminds us of the item in the sketch of Abraham Ruton, William's father, which (although confusing Abraham with William) suggests that several Van Tassels were involved in the captivity event, including both Isaac and Jacob Van Tassel. I repeat that item here, making the name substitution, and note that it appears to be consistent with records exhibited in this sketch:

> David Van Tassel: Born in Westchester County, N.Y., June 28, 1743; served in Capt. Honeywell's Co., 1st Westchester County, N.Y. Militia (Col. 87. ELIZABETH[4] RUTTAN (18*William*[3], Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was baptized 2 Dec. 1733, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.[591] Paul[2] Rutan and Elizabeth Vouschie [Foseur], his wife—Elizabeth[4]'s grandfather and his second wife—witnessed her baptism. She married MATTHEW [MATEUS] VAN ORDEN, who died before her brother Abraham[4] described her as a widow in his will signed 20 Feb. 1815.

Ruttan, A Part of the Ruttan Family, which is focused on the Canadian Ruttans, has this for Elizabeth—justifying use of the Ruttan surname for her:

In 1750 or 1751, she married Matthew Van Norden. They came as Loyalist refugees to Canada and settled finally in Kingston Township. Matthew died in 1790. They had four children, each of whom drew land as a Loyalist or Loyalist offspring.[592]

From an addenda to Reid, The Loyalists of Ontario, listing the sons and daughters of American Loyalists:

Van Order [sic], Mathew of Kingston.
Margaret, m. William Howe of Kingston. OC 7 March 1807.
Patty, m. Noel Pugsley of Bastard. OC 29 Sept. 1836.
Elizabeth, m. John Burnett of Kingston. OC 16 Nov 1797.[593]

Known children:

+ 290 i MARGARET [MARGRIETIE][5] VAN ORDEN, born 19 Jan. 1752, baptized 9 Feb. 1752, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J., married WILLIAM HOWE, and had nine children.

291 ii ?PATTY[5] VAN ORDEN, married NOEL PUGSLEY, "of Bastard Township, Leeds County."

292 iii ?ELIZABETH[5] VAN ORDEN, married JOHN BURNETT, and had nine children "all born in Kingston Township; each drew 200 acres of land as a child of a Loyalist."

293 iv ?ISAIAH[5] VAN ORDEN, married ANNE MCGUIN, "a daughter of Captain Daniel McGuin, U.E.," and had two children. Could this be Jesajah Van Orden, born 3 Dec. 1774, baptized 7 Jan. 1775, Lutheran Church, New York City?[594]

The page date is 1774, but the date most closely preceding this item is 26 Nov. 1744. I assume this is an error for 26 Nov. 1774. No baptism date is given, so I assume it is the next one most closely listed 7 Jan. 1775. On the same page is the baptism of Matthew Howe, son of William Howe and wife Margareth, witnessed by Matthew Van Orden and Elizabeth.

88. MARIA[4] RUTAN (18William[3], Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was born in Hackensack, N.J., and baptized 3 Aug. 1736, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.[595] She married 9 May 1755, Dutch Reformed Church, New York,[596] HERMANUS GARDENIER, perhaps he baptized 15 Apr. 1727, First Tarrytown Church, North Tarrytown, N.Y.,[597] son of Jacob and Sarah (—) Gardenier. [An alternative is the Hermanus baptized 28 Oct. 1727, the same church,[598] son of Hermanus Gardenier and Maritie Storm, his wife.[599]]

On 17 Oct. 1762, Harmanus Gardenier and his wife Maria Rethan witnessed a baptism at the Dutch church in New York City.[600]

On 21 Feb. 1774, Maria "Raltan," wife of Harmanus Gardenier, was listed as a member of the Dutch church of New York City.[601]

The Ackerman Family

We pause for a few paragraphs to appreciate the old Ackerman family from Holland (and before that the Palatinate) that influenced the Rutan family. The American immigrant was David[1] Ackerman who arrived with his family in New Amsterdam aboard the D'Vos (The Fox) on 31 Aug. 1662. The genealogy of his family has been treated carefully over the years. I use articles in the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey for the details in this short section.

We are particularly interested here in the fourth generation represented by Gerrit [Gerret] D.[4] Ackerman (David[3], Abraham[2], David[1]). The D. is a Dutch naming practice, a patronymic indicating that Gerrit's father was David.

From GMNJ:

> Gerrit (Garret) [Ackerman], bapt. 21 Oct. 1711. Md. Lena Van Voorhis (NP:336) and d. Paramus 1773–4. Will, Aug 14., 1773–Feb. 28, 1774, n. wf. Lena and eleven ch'n: provides for keeping bro. Laurens (NJA 34:10).[617]

Grietje Rutan." And again, for a nephew's baptism 15 May. 1769, 139, "1789 [but almost certainly a transcription error for 1769] | Dobbs, William and Rachel—Walterus—May 15. | Wit: Abram W. and Grietje Rutan."

616. Find a Grave, no. 6415607, gravestone photo, Old Paramus Reformed Church Cem., Ridgewood, Bergen Co., N.J., "In | Memory of | Margaret Rutan | Wife of | Abraham Rutan, | who departed this life, | June 7th 1825; | Aged 84 years 5 months | & 22 days."

617. Charles Carroll Gardner, "A Genealogical Dictionary of New Jersey," GMNJ, 10 (1935): 46–48, 49–58 (with corrections at 12 (1937): 9–10. NP:336 refers to William Nelson, History of the City

The will abstract just mentioned shows Grietie (Margaret) and Jannetie (Jane) to be daughters of Gerret Ackerman and his wife, Lena, and mentions that Abraham W. Rutan married one of his daughters (Margaret, of course):

> 1773, Aug. 14. Ackerman, Gerret, of Paremes, Bergen Co.; will of. Wife, Lena, . . . Eldest son, John, . . . Son, David, . . . my brother Laurens Ackerman, . . . Son, Hannes, . . . Although I don't know where they apply, there are significant baptismal records indicating the closeness of the Rutan and Ackerman families, in one generation at least: On 10 Mar. 1844, Abraham Rutan Ackerman was born to Abraham and Dorcas (Romine) Ackerman, and baptized 6 Apr. 1844 at the Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[619] The same couple named a daughter Margaret Rutan Ackerman, born 12 Mar. 1826, baptized 2 Apr. 1826, in the same church.[620] That Abraham and Albert Ackerman were the same person is attested by the following will:

On 20 Sept. 1872, Albert A. Ackerman of Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., signed his will, and it was proved 30 July 1884. It mentions "my two sons Abram Rutan and David Henry," "my beloved wife Dorcas," "my two

We return now to Abraham W. Rutan.

On 8 Sept. 1760, Abraham Rutan, of Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., bought from Stephen Bogart, of the same place, for £7, a tract of 2 acres "part of Ramapag patent . . . west side of Saddle River." Wit: Roelif Westervelt and Stephen Baldwin."[622] Although this Abraham Rutan is not clearly determined, I believe him to be Abraham W.[4] because the witnesses are identical to those for the next deed.

On 8 Sept.1764, the following deed was executed between Garret D. Ackerman and Abraham Rutan, suggesting that it was about that date when Abraham married Garret's daughter, Margaret:

On 8 Sept. 1764 Garret D. Ackerman, of Bergen Co., N.J., sold to Abraham Rutan, of the same place, for £60, a tract of 20 acres, " . . . corner to William Carnes and P. Carnes. Signed Garret D. (x) Ackerman. Wit: Roelif Westervelt and Stephen Baldwin."[623]

Garret, son of John Ackerman and his wife, was baptized 10 Aug. 1777, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J., witnessed by Abraham Rutan and wife, who were probably Abraham and Margaret of this sketch.[624]

On 21 Mar. 1780, Abraham W. Rutan, of Franklin Pct., Bergen Co., N.J., bought from John G. Ackerman, of Harrington Pct., Bergen Co., N.J., for £60, a tract of 3 acres "line of Abraham Terhune." Wit: Abraham van Boskerk, Garret J. Hopper.[625]

According to Ruttan, A Part of the Ruttan Family:

> An Abraham Rattan, a Sergeant in the 3rd Battalion, New Jersey Volunteers, is listed as having gone to New Brunswick, Canada, with the great Loyalist emigration from New York City in the summer of 1783. This is undoubedly the same man and he returned in later years to New Jersey.[626]

However, from the baptismal records in the next paragraph, we see that if it was indeed the current Abraham who went to New Brunswick in 1783, then he was back in New Jersey by 1785.

Listed as a member of the Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, on a visitation about 1 May 1799: "Abraham Rutan | Margrietje Rutan } married."[627] They appear several times in the baptismal records of this church but always as witnesses, in 1769 (thrice), 1772, 1785, 1789, 1794, and 1802 (see the next item). His name is given as Abraham, Abram, or Abram W., and hers as Margrietje or Grietje.[628]

"Abr. Rotan" and Margrietje Rotan stood witness to the baptism of Margrietje, born 30 May 1802, baptized the same day, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J., daughter of Gerrit A. Ackerman and Jannetje Ackerman.[629]

On 7 Apr. 1808, the following people gave power of attorney to "our trusty friend" David G. Ackerman to sell a property of John Van Voorhis deceased and settle the estate of Adam Van Voorhis deceased: "Abraham W. Rutan & Margaret Rutan | John G. Ackerman & Elizabeth his wife | Garret G. Ackerman & Jane his wife | Abraham G. Ackerman | Garret W. The property was that of John Van Voorhis late of Bergen Co., N.J., about 137 acres in Wycoff, Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J. They agreed to "pay our equal proportion with the other heirs of the said deceased of all the just debts of Adam Van Voorhis deceased." Witnessed by Albert V. Voorhis Jr., Barnay Waldrum, David Van Voorhasen, and Abraham A. Terhune.[630]

Abraham signed his will 20 Feb. 1815, Paramus, Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., and it was proved 26 Mar. 1822. It mentions "my Nephew Albert W. 90. PETER [PIETER]^{4} RUTTAN ($_{18}$William^{3}, Paul^{2}, Abraham^{1}) was born in Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J. (see marriage record), and was baptized 19 Apr. 1742 at the Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh.[633] He died 1829 in Ontario, Canada (see memorial tile). He married 8 Sept. 1766, at the Schraalenburgh church,[634] JANE [JANNETJE] ACKERMAN, who was born in Paramus, N.J. (see marriage record), and was baptized 12 May 1751, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus,[635] daughter of Gerrit D. and Lena (Van Voorhees) Ackerman. She was sister of Margaret [Margrietje] Ackerman, married to Peter's brother Abraham W.^{4}.

Peter and his brother William^{4} were Loyalists in the Revolutionary War. They removed to Canada afterwards (1783) and tended to use the spelling Ruttan or Rattan of the surname. The Ruttan form is used consistently here. Peter^{4} was alive at the signing of his brother Abraham^{4}'s will in 1815, which mentions him (q.v.).

Peter Ruttan and Peter Ruttan Jr. came to Ontario, Canada, in 1783 from New York having been Loyalists in the Revolutionary War.[636]

When the Revolutionary War began, Peter joined the British Army of General Howe in 1776 and brought fifty men into the 4th Battalion of New Jersey Volunteers commanded by Brigadier General Cortlandt Skinner. Subsequently, Peter Ruttan raised forty men with the Huguenot Colonel Bayard and the King's Orange Rangers and served as a Captain. Ruttan may have been best known for "patronizing the Indian Chief" and other intelligence activities. Ruttan had accompanied Joseph Brant[640] on a particular mission. As a gesture of his esteem for the native leader, Peter named his son, born in 1783, Joseph Brant Ruttan.

Peter Ruttan married Jannetje Ackerman in 1766. They had eight children: Abraham born in 1769; Peter born in 1771; Mary born in 1772; Jane born in 1775; William; Joseph Brant born in 1783; John born in 1786; and David born in 1789. These three youngest sons, Joseph, John and David, were born after the family had relocated to Canada. The family sailed with other Loyalists from New York in 1783 on board the transport vessel Hope.[641]

Peter was again a Captain (second-in-command to Van Alstine), serving this time at the head of a company of 119 Associated Loyalists. Half of his people could be traced to his homeland, the border counties of New Jersey and New York. Ruttan's Company, Company 6, was originally under Michael Grass who settled at Cataraqui (Kingston) but Ruttan eventually took all of his settlers to settle with Van Alstine in township No. 4 (Adolphustown). In the old record of the Crown Lands Department, Peter Ruttan is listed for lots 19, 20 and 21 of the second concession where he settled and raised his family. After settlement, Peter Ruttan continued to demonstrate leadership. He signed letters to the governor petitioning for supplies for the settlers, and like Van Alstine, he took on the role of Justice of the Peace. Both he and his brother William were among the largest subscribers to the Methodist church built at Hay Bay in 1792.

PAUL [PAULUS][4] RUTAN (18*William*[3], Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was born 28 Oct. 1744 (baptism record and gravestone), baptized 25 Nov. 1744, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J.,[646] died 30 Apr. 1812, aged 67 years 6 months 2 days, and was buried in North Schraalenburgh Church Yard, Dumont, Bergen Co., N.J.[647] He signed his will 21 Apr. 1812, Haring [now Harrington] Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., and it was proved 8 May 1812. He married (1), say 1762 (based on his eldest child's birth, 30 Mar. 1763), JANNETJE BORD, who was born say 1746, Schraalenburgh, and died 13 June 1814 after 19 June 1809, when she signed her will and before 19 Jan. 1815, when it was proved. Jannitje married, secondly,[648] 11 Jan. 1795, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J.,[649] NICHOLAS VAN BLARCOM, and had no further children by this marriage, also his second. Paul married (2), according to his will of 1812, GENNY —. She might have been Jannetje Mabie, sister of his brother-in-law John Mabie (his sister Leah[4]'s husband), but I have not been able to verify that guess.

Backing this up is the following record of a Paul's intestate estate being settled in 1795, as would be required for Jannitje's subsequent marriage:

> 1795, Apr. 14. Rutan, Paul, of Essex Co. Int. Adm'r—Paul Rutan. Fellow-bondsman—Nicholas Van Balcrum, both of said Co. | Lib. 33, p. 500; File 8438–8439G.[650]

The administrator Paul Rutan was son Paul[5] Rutan. Nicholas Van "Balcrum" would become the second husband of Paul's supposed widow.

But this doesn't make sense. We have Paul's will of 1812 meaning that he was still alive when Jannetje remarried in 1795. Paul should have died before "widow" Jannitje married again.

Here is what surely was Paul[4]'s actual will of 1812, which matches the Paul of the Demarest genealogy in the particulars of his sisters Rachel and Leah:

> 1812, Apr. 21. Rutan, Paul*, of Haring Twsp., Bergen Co.; will of. Wife, Genny, $325, and a bed. Thomas Dobs, son of my sister [Rachel, unnamed], $75. Sister, Leah, $25. Brother-in-law, John Mabey, a suit of clothes, i.e., 1 coat, 1 jacket, 1 britches of home made cloth. Sister, Rachel, $50 but if she is dead, said sum to return "to residue hereinafter mentioned". Paul Dobs (son of Thomas), $25, when 21. House and lot where I now dwell to be sold. Any residue of estate to Jacob, William, Albert and Paul (sons of Thomas Dobs), equally as they become 21. Wife "Genny" is a puzzle. I first took her to be Jannitje, but Jannitje had married Nicholas Van Blarcom in 1795. All the other relatives mentioned—for example, sisters Leah and Rachel—are consistent with Paul

651. N.J. Calendar of Wills, Vol. 12, 1810–1813, 322.

Rutan of this will being Paul[4] Rutan. Leah is consistent with the will of brother Abraham W.[4] Rutan.

Keegan's A Third Rutan Family Index has this to say about the problem:

> Paulus Rutan – (1744–1795) p/William Rutan–Maria Demarest m Jannetje Bord of Ringwood d 1814 in 1762; they lived in Harrington; as a widow Jannetje wed Nicholas Van Blarcom at Acquackanonk in 1795; Note: GSBC record says that Paul died in 1812 and is bur at Schraalenburg; another record has Paulus married to Jennie Mabie sister to John Mabie the husband of Leah, the sister of Paulus.[652]

What is notable about this 1812 will is who it does not mention. In particular, none of his offspring are named.

On 16 Nov. 1765, Paulus and Jannitje Rutan witnessed the baptism of a child at the Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.[653]

On 3 Sept. 1779, Poulis Ratan and Jannetje Bord witnessed the baptism of a child at the Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, Paterson, Bergen Co., N.J.[654]

On 15 Mar. 1780, Paul "Retan" was issued a certificate, entitling him to $34 for services rendered during the preceding year, by the quartermaster of the forage department at Newark, N.J. He supplied over a bushel of corn and kept four horses for one night. This appears to be reimbursement for services rendered in support of the Patriot side in the Revolutionary War.[655] If so, then this is surprising given that some of immediate family were Loyalists.

Repeated from William[3]'s sketch for convenience:

On 24 May 1790, Poulis Ratan and Jannetye Bord witnessed the baptism of a child, at the Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, Paterson, Bergen Co., N.J.[658] It was their granddaughter, Jannetye[6], daughter of Johannes Toers and (their daughter) "Lybe" Ratan, born 30 April 1790.

On 7 Aug. 1791, Poules Ratan and Jannetye Bord witnessed the baptism of a son, at the Dutch Reformed Church, Totowa, Paterson, Bergen Co., N.J.[659] of Johannes F. Post and Antye Ratan.

A Theory

It appears that Jannitje and her son Paul[5], believed that Paul[4] had died in 1795. But the counterevidence is strong that he had not, that he had married again to a Genny (perhaps Jennie Mabie) and only much later died in 1812. What could explain this large discrepancy?

This particular branch of the Rutan family had several Loyalist members who removed to Canada and became founding settlers of parts of Ontario—particularly, Paul[4]'s brothers Peter[4] Ruttan and William[4] Ruttan.

"[cert. no.] 121. [provider] Paul Retan. [date] March 15, 1780. [services] Due 17 Dec ['79] for 1½ bu. corn & keeping 4 horses 1 night. [amount] 34 dollars." Provider earned interest on past due amounts.

The major removal occurred in 1783 and did not seem to include Paul[4]. In fact, I have shown evidence that Paul may have provided services to the Patriots. My theory is that this was a major split in the family which affected all members strongly. Suppose Paul[4] actually removed to Canada later, say after the 24 May 1790 baptism record which is the last I currently have for Paul with Jannitje. I have no evidence that he did, but suppose there was some deeply emotional reason why Jannitje and Paul[5] thought Paul[4] was dead by 1795, at least to them. It's a big leap, but I don't see another explanation. Roughly, the theory is that something about the Patriot/Loyalist split in the family caused this major estrangement.

In 1800 Paul Rotan resided (paid taxes presumably) in Harrington Twp., Bergen Co., N.J. on 40 acres.[660]

JACOB W.[4] RUTAN [RUTTAN] (18William[3], Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was born 19 Apr. 1753, baptized 13 May 1753, Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., N.J., witnessed by Jacob Rutan (perhaps his uncle Jacob[3]) and Hester Rutan (whom I have not identified—possibly Hester[2]?).[689] He died before the signing of his brother Paul[4]'s will, 21 Apr. 1812. He married, say 1774 based on child Maria's baptism, MARGARETHA [GRIETJE] HARING, with her surname provided by the Demarest genealogy,[690] and her given name from presumed daughter Maria's baptism record.

From Burleigh's Ruttan file on Internet Archive:

> Jacob, born 19 April, baptised 13 May, 1753 in the Dutch Reformed Church, Schraalenburgh, New Jersey, according to the Demarest Genealogy, he married Miss Margaret Haring [the Demarest Genealogy does not give her first name]. Without doubt he was the Jacob Ruttan whose name appears in the census of Adolphustown in 1794, 1795 and 1796 [I couldn't find these], with a wife, two sons and two daughters. There is no evidence that he was a Loyalist. He appears to have followed his brothers to Canada some time before 1794 [and after 1781 if the children below were his]. He was granted 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 30 August, 1797, no doubt as a settler. The land thus allocated to him was Lot 26 in the 8th Concession of the Township of Murray. In the same year Jacob and family removed to Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County. On 18 July Jacob's name appeared in the Assessment Roll of Hallowell Township, where he continued to live until his death in 1811 [which is consistent with his brother Paul[4]'s will].[691]

332 i MARIA[5] RUTAN [RUTTAN], baptized 28 Jan. 1776, Dutch Reformed Church, Paramus, Bergen Co., N.J.,[692] married OWEN ROBLIN, born about 1767, United States, and had at least one child: (1) Stephen[6] Roblin, born about 1795, Adolphustown, Lennox Co., Ont., married 16 Feb. 1859, Prince Edward, Ont.,[693] Martha Fairmont.

In 1851, Owen Roblin, 84 [85 next birthdaty], a farmer born in the U.S., resided in Adolphustown, Lennox Co., Canada West (Ontario), with Mary, 75 [76 next birthday], born in the U.S., both Methodists. Several Roblin families listed nearby, including that of Stephen Roblin, 54, born Adolphustown. N.B., Martha Ferman, 32, a servant, born Marysburgh, listed on line 24, next to Owen, was probably the woman who would marry Stephen Roblin in 1859.[694]

This does not quite agree with the following (essentially bogus) obituary:

> John Van Emburgh, of Kearny, N.J. died on Thursday, the 22d of September, aged 104 [No, 103] years. He was married five [six?] times, and had numerous children [I count 12], grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. At the age of 96 [so in 1863] he married a German girl sixteen [No, 39] years old, and within a year she presented him with twins [one child?], which, however, lived but a short time. The old man was so delighted at their birth and so fond of them that he refused to allow the twins to be buried [not likely]. He was a wealthy farmer.[728]

Children of the second marriage, to Hannah:

350 iii ELIZA[5] RUTAN, born 6 Jan 1809, baptized 12 Mar. 1809, Dutch Reformed Church, Belleville, Essex Co., N.J.[753] Grandfather Henry[3]'s will, written 22 Feb. 1821, mentioned only five children of Samuel[4]: Ann and Maria ("the two eldest"), and Henry, John, and Eliza—that is, those who had been born by that date. Although Henry[3]'s will was not proved until 9 June 1834, he had made no addendum for the fourth child of this marriage, Frances[5], born 1825 (q.v.).

was "my youngest step-Grand Daughter" in Frances (Tuers) Rutan's will of 1834, meaning that the current Frances was not married by that date. The biography of Calvin Rutan (John S.[5]) (q.v.) states that "Frances married Amos Williams, of Newark." Indeed, she married 4 Feb. 1855, Reformed Dutch Church, Belleville,[756] AMOS WILLIAMS, born about 1817, probably Newark. They had one child, a daughter, Anna F.[6] Williams, born about 1859, New Jersey (see 1860, 1870, and 1880 censuses for Amos Williams of Essex Co., N.J., born Jan. 1859 according to the 1900 census).

Note that Mary [Maria] was born out of wedlock if the marriage date 3 May 1775 for her parents—recorded in (transcriptions of) two separate Bibles—is correct. Discussion of the baptismal record

The GMNJ 4(1928):90 printed version of this baptismal record gives the father's name as Jan Ratan Jr. and omits the godmother's first name.[759] But I am fairly certain, from inspection of the handwritten Dutch version, that the first letter of the father's name is an S, not a J, by making letter comparisons on the same register page. In particular, the J of "Jun" in his name is distinctly different from the first letter of the father's name. It looks much more like the first letter of godfather Samuel's name. Also, compare the other record, for brother Abraham[4].

The godmother's name might be "Mary"—at least, the last three letters might be "ary." If I squint just right, I can almost see "Mary" there, with a mangled M, but it is a stretch. I have thought the first letter was most likely an F, but I was unable to determine who the given person might be in that case. My first thought was Francy[ntje], second wife of Samuel[3]'s brother Henry[3] Rutan, but Henry[3] had not even married his first wife, Annetie, by 1774, much less his second.

My best guess is that the godmother was indeed Mary, for Maria Stoutenburgh, wife of Samuel[2], making the grandparents of the child into its godparents. But the woman's name is too mangled to be certain. I browsed several pages of this register looking, unsuccessfully, for a matching letter.

But we don't have to know the godmother, or to question the legitimacy of the child, to fit her into this genealogy.She was a child of Samuel[3] Rutan (Jr.), and probably of Maria Bruyn, his wife, or soon-to-be wife.

Known children:

354 i MARIA[5] JORALEMON, born 6 Feb. 1802, baptized 7 Mar. 1802, Dutch Reformed Church, Belleville, Essex Co., N.J.[760] Maria was probably the "Maria Jerolemon Jun[r]" mentioned in Frances (Tuers) Rutan's 16 Aug. 1834 will, but if so she was then 32 and hence probably unmarried.

355 ii JAMES VARICK[5] JORALEMON, born 31 Dec. 1803, baptized 5 Feb. 1804, Dutch Reformed Church, Belleville, Essex Co., N.J.[761] The Varick name supports his descendancy from Theunis[4] Joralemon and his wife Mary Varick.

GARRABRANT,[777] who was born about 1787, New Jersey, and died after the 1850 census.

The following is quoted from Strange and Garrigus, DAR Rutan Genealogy:[778]

> Samuel S., son of Samuel (3), Samuel (2), Abraham (1), was born at Spring Garden, Feb. 8, 1788, and died in Newark, Oct. 1, 1834, buried in Spring Garden and reinterred in Orange, N.J. He was known as "Black Sam" from the color of hair and eyebrows. His cousin Samuel, son of Henry (3), Samuel (2), Abraham (1), was called "Capt. Sam". He had a nephew Samuel, son of Abraham. All these were living in the same place and the name Samuel was confusing; therefore, they agreed to assume a middle letter, each taking the name of his father. Consequently there was Samuel S., Samuel H., and Samuel A.
> Samuel S. married Hannah Garrabrant. Hannah Garrabrant b. March 22, 1788, and died Oct. 31, 1855, in Philadelphia, Pa. Through misfortunes Samuel S. and wife Hannah were greatly in debt and they assigned land on May 9th, 1826, to Henry N. Jeroleman and William Dow, said property to be sold an debts to be paid by Jeralemon and Dow.[779] valuable information, but I have been unable to substantiate many of its details. So, as per usual, those details are presented in red, or omitted.

On 22 Mar. 1819, John W. Brown, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., signed his will, and it was proved 7 June 1819. In it, Brown appointed "my trusty friend Samuel S. Rutan" as sole executor. Witnesses were Abraham Rutan, Garret Tuers, and Jacob Rutan.[781] Abraham and Jacob Rutan were probably his brothers.

On 22 Oct. 1824, Abraham Garrabrant, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to David Garrabrant and Samuel S. Rutan, of the same place, for $100, two tracts of land lying in Warren Twp., Somerset Co., N.J., consisting of 103 and 36 acres, respectively. Witness William Dow. Acknowledged 23 Oct. 1824.[782]

On 10 May 1827, David Garrabrant and Mary his wife, Samuel S. Rutan and Hannah his wife, and Margaret Garrabrant, all of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Isaac Bird, of Warren Twp., Somerset Co., N.J., for $1,100, two parcels lying in Warren Twp., Somerset Co., containing 103 acres and 36 acres, respectively (the two lots in the deed just above). The deed makes reference to another of 22 Oct. 1824 in which Abraham Garrabrant conveyed the "above premises" to David Garrabrant and Samuel S. Rutan "at which time Margaret Garrabrant wife of said Abraham Garrabrant was not embraced in the deed in consequence of which she is now joined with the grantors in these presents by which she relinquishes her right of dower." Acknowledged 11 May 1827.[783]

On 1 June 1827, Abraham Garrabrant and Margaret his wife, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Isaac Bird, as above, for $1,100, the tracts described in the deeds above. I believe this indenture was meant to clarify the ownership of the tracts in the deeds above. Witness: William Dow. Acknowledged 1 June 1827.[784]

The deeds above show that Abraham and Margaret Garrabrant were probably the parents of (or in-laws of) David Garrabrant and of Samuel S. Rutan's wife Hannah. Hence Hannah must be Hannah Garrabrant, as claimed by Strange and Garrigus.

[Repeated for convenience]: In 1830 Samuel S. Rutan, 30–40 [born 1790–1800], resided in Bloomfield, Essex Co., N.J., with a woman, 30–40, one boy and one girl under 5, one boy 5–10, one male and one female 10–15. Nearby were listed Henry Rutan, 80–90 [born 1740–1750], and next to him Samuel H. Rutan, 50–60 [born 1770–1780].[785]

On 30 July 1830, Henry N. Joralemon and William Dow, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to the highest bidder lands that previously belonged to Samuel S. Rutan and Hannah his wife, "late of the Township of Bloomfield," to raise money to pay off their (the Rutans) debts. The properties were assigned for this purpose to Joralemon and Dow on 9 May 1828. Samuel Brown placed the highest bid of $111. The first tract, 1.19 acres of wood land, was bounded by the lands of Samuel H. Rutan, Abraham Rutan, Gerard Rutgers, and John Francisco. The second, .54 acres of wood land, was bounded by the lands of Abraham Rutan, John Francisco, James Van Winkle and by the Morris Canal. The third, .33 acres of wood land, was bounded by lands of the heirs of Henry Van Winkle, and by lands of Daniel Van Winkle, Abraham Rutan, and John Francisco. The fourth, 1.75 acres of tillable land, was bounded by lands of Samuel H. Rutan, Abraham Rutan, Anthony Brown, John Francisco, and by the line of Abraham Rutan and Gerard Rutgers. This was acknowledged 4 Aug. 1830.[786]

Brown, of Belleville, Essex Co., N.J., for $120, a tract lying in Belleville containing 1.5 acres, "being the same property devised to Samuel Rutan and Hannah Rutan by Mary Rutan deceased."[787] So this deed gives the structure of the family, and it supports, for the most part, that given by Strange and Garrigus. However, Hezekiah is missing from this deed. Perhaps he had moved to Pittsburgh by the time of the 1846 deed.

In 1850 Hannah Rutan, 63, born in New Jersey, resided Newark, Essex Co., N.J., in the household of Nicholas Rutan, 26, a painter born in New Jersey with $2,000 real estate, Elizabeth, 24, born in New Jersey, and Luke, 1, born in New Jersey, and one other painter.[788] This suggests strongly that Hannah was Nicholas's mother.

Children (established, except for Hezekiah, by the 28 Mar. 1846 deed):

+ 366 i MARY[5] RUTAN, born 19 June 1809, New Jersey, baptized 6 Aug. 1809, Stone House Dutch Reformed Church, married WILLIAM KING, and had nine children.

+ 367 ii ANN ELIZABETH[5] RUTAN, born 13 Mar. 1811, baptized 5 May 1811, Stone House Dutch Reformed Church, married PETER VAN RIPER, and had at least eight children.

+ 368 iii ISAAC MEYER [MYERS][5] RUTAN, born 26 July 1815, New Jersey, baptized 17 Sept. 1815, Stone House Dutch Reformed Church, married ELIZABETH A. CRYGIER, and had at least three children.

+ 369 iv JANE MORRIS[5] RUTAN, born about 1817, New Jersey, married MICHAEL EVELAND, and had four children.

On 6 Feb. 1875, Hannah A. Coeyman signed her will, with her mark, in Belleville, Essex Co., N.J., and it was proved 27 Mar. 1875. It mentions "my beloved daughter Mary Ann wife of Richard M. Blamey." It appointed "my friend Theodore Sandford" executor.[795]

Catharine, 60, born in New Jersey, and Antonette, 21, born in New Jersey.[798] This item is suspect. Peter's age is off by eight years. Catharine was probably Ann, if she was still alive. However, Antonette was "Antinet" Coeyman, born 12 Jan. 1830, according to the Peter L. Coeyman Family Bible in the Rugers special collections (see next).[799] She was not mentioned in Peter's will.

Further Bible transcriptions from the same family Bible:

Samuel Cooman was born August 18th, 1815
Levi Cooman was born May 24th, 1817
Caroline Cooman was born June 19th, 1819

The following items establish that Hannah's first marriage was to a Mr. Shields (already established, however, by the Bible):

In 1860 Peter L. Coeyman, 68, a farmer born in New Jersey, with $35,000 real and $200 personal estates, resided in Belleville, Essex Co., N.J., with Hannah, 59, born in New Jersey, and Peter Jackson, 14, born in New Jersey.[800]

On 3 Oct. 1918, Lewiston, Androscoggin Co., Maine, Richard B. Blamey married Myrtle M. Lester. His parents were Richard M. Blamey, deceased, born Belleville, N.J., and Mary A. "Shield," deceased, born Bloomfield, N.J.[802]

He married 28 May 1812, United Methodist Church, Belleville, Essex Co., N.J.,[805] RACHEL KINGSLAND, who was born 5 July 1794, baptized 9 Aug. 1794, Acquackanonk church, N.J.,[806] daughter of William J. it. If it stands instead for his father, then we'd expect say, a Samuel Rutan as his father. He is usually listed (e.g., Keegan) as a son of Samuel[3]'s brother Hendrick[3], sometimes of Hendrick's first wife, sometimes of his second wife. I have not discovered the source of the name "Seguine" but have observed that there were Sequines on Staten Island when Henry S.[4] lived there. See, for example, the executor Joseph Seguine of Henry S.[4]'s will.

On 3 Mar. 1814, Margaret Kingsland, of Bloomfield, Essex Co., N.J., widow of William Kingsland, signed her will, and it was proved 20 Aug. 1814. It mentions her sons, John and William, and her four daughters: Elizabeth Stager, Mary Speer, Margaret Vreeland, and Rachel Rutan, also grandchildren: William, son of William, Margaret, daughter of Richard Stager, Margaret, daughter of John I. Vreeland, Margaret, daughter of her son John, and also Caty, wife of son John. Executors: son John and friend Samuel H. Rutan. Witnesses: William Joralemon, Abraham Rutan, Gerret Tuers.[808]

Note Abraham Rutan in this will might be Abraham[4] Rutan, putative brother to Henry S.[4] Rutan, thus supporting our suggestion that they were indeed brothers. Notice, in the sketch for Abraham[4] Rutan, that on 10 May 1819, he and Margaret his wife, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to John J. Kingsland, of the same place, a plot in Bloomfield Twp.

On 25 Jan. 1817, Henry Rutan was taken as a member of the Dutch Reformed Church of Belleville, "By Certificate" from "Protestant Episopal, Belleville." At the same time "Samuel H. Rutan & Hannah his wife" were also taken as members, but "By Confession Jan^{y}. 26. 1817."[809]

The following will has two executors who match those of a will in the sketch of Charles[2] Morgan of Westfield, Staten Island (q.v.):

On 24 Jan. 1828, Henry S. Rutan, of Westfield, Richmond Co., N.Y., signed his will. It was proved 24 Aug. 1833 and executors sworn 25 Sept. 1833. It mentions "my beloved wife Rachel," "my said wife Rachel and my three children namely, William Henry, James Madison and Mary Jane Rutan." Executors Rev. William Cole, Joseph Seguine Esq^{r}. and William Shea. Witnesses John Spragg, Ann Spragg, Betsey Weed.[810]

On 7 Aug. 1833, Bornt P. Winant was designated the guardian of the minor children of Henry S. Rutan, late of Westfield, Richmond Co., N.Y., deceased, namely, William Henry, James Madison, Mary Jane, and Melancton Freeman Rutan.[811] So Melancton had been born since the will was originally written in 1828.

On 27 July 1829, Jacob Rutan and Elizabeth his wife, of Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Nicholas N. Joralemon, of the same place, for $31.50 plus the amount of two mortgages, for two tracts in Bloomfield Twp., totaling about 1.5 acres. The first lot had been purchased by deed from Mary Van Emburgh on 1 July 1819, and the second from Walling I. Van Winkle on 5 Aug. 1823. The two mortgages are for $134 and $187.83, plus interest on each.[819]

In 1830, Jacob Rutan, 30–40 [born 1790–1800], resided in Belleville, Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J., with a woman 20–30, one boy and one girl under 5, and two boys 5–10 [born 1820–1825, James and Theodore]. Listed nearby was (probably Jacob's brother-in-law) Peter Cooman, 30–40, and also (probably his father-in-law) Jasper King, 50–60.[820] This census suggests that there might have been two other, younger children.

> Jacob was married to Elizabeth (Betsey) King the daughter of Casparus "Jasper" King and Pheobe Budd of Belleville, NJ. Jacob was the son of Revolutionary War Patriot [proof?], Samuel Rutan of Nutley, NJ. and Maria Bruyn of Belleville, NJ. Elizabeth's grandfather, David King. was a fifer and killed during the Revolutionary War. David was married to Catherine VanWinkelen, Jacob was a founding member of the Bloomfield Methodist Church in 1821 and was also married in Essex County in 1821 to Betsey. He owned and operated the Calico Leather Co. in Belleville. He died in c. 1834 with no record of his death, other than a record of him assigning his children, James and Theodore as juveniles when he died. Betsey went on to marry [proof?] Roph VanHouten. All records are present with the New Jersey Genealogical Society, and an article was written in their magazine about these families; Kings, Rutans, VanHoutens. It is believed that when the Methodist Church in Bloomfield gave up the cemetery, the

Note that Abraham D. would have been 35 at the marriage to Lydia, leaving plenty of time for a first marriage. Some have argued that he married — Kasine, perhaps Rachel Kasine, during that interval. I believe Rachel Kasine, if that was

On 31 Oct. 1832, New Barbadoes Twp., Bergan Co., N.J., Abraham Vanderbeek, 76, applied for a pension for his Revolutionary War service. It was granted as S.1130. In his application letter he mentions (image 490) that he was born 19 Apr. 1756, Hackensack, Bergen Co., where he had always resided.[826]

In Oct. 1832, Abraham Rutan, 69 [born about 1763], of Paterson, N.J., swore an affidavit for John H. Vanhouten, claiming that he saw Vanhouten engage the enemy in the Revolution at the Battle of Fort Lee on the Hudson, and that he and John were members of the same company, under Capt. John Outwater.[827]

In about 1837 (but see Revolutionary War record just above), Abraham Rutan moved from Essex Co., N.J., to Paterson, N.J., according to this record of his last pension payment on 12 Dec. 1848 for his Revolutionary War service:

> Passaic Co., N.J., 5 Sep 1848, John Keenan [s], Clerk of CCP [Court of Common Pleas], certified court satisfied Abraham Rutan was a pensioner (former private in Rev.) who resided here and died in Paterson on 11 Jul 1848 leaving a widow Lydia. On 4 Sep 1848, Lydia Rutan [x], widow, makes oath that Abraham lived in Paterson about 11 years and prev thereto in Essex Co., and appoints Thomas J. Stryker atty to collect arrears due from 4 Mar 1848 to 11 Jul 1848; sworn before Simeon Hart J.P. [s]; witness A. Parsons [s].

Trenton, 12 Dec 1848, Thos. J. Stryker [s] collected $7.07; his oath heard same date by Chas. Burroughjs [s], a Judge of Common Pleas for Mercer Co.[828]

In 1840 Abraham Rutan, 70–80, resided in Paterson, Passaic Co., N.J., with a woman 50–60, one female under 5, one male 5–10, one female 15–20, one female 20–30, and two females 30–40.[829]

In 1860 Lydia Rutan, 76, born in New Jersey, resided in Paterson, Passaic Co., N.J., with "Susan" Rutan, 51 [sic], born in New Jersey, in the household of "Jno" H. In the next dwelling was Cornelius Rutan, 28, a machinist born in New Jersey, with $800 personal estate, and with Amy, 23, and Effie, 1, both born in New Jersey.[830]

On 21 Oct. 1868, Lydia Rutan, widow of Abraham Rutan who served in the Revolutionary War in New Jersey as a private, was issued widow's pension W.3606 and Bounty Land Warrant 34849–160–55. Her pension application file is 98 pages long.[831] It includes (1) the two Bible pages in the figures already referenced, attested to by her son-in-law John Bentley (image 466). (2) An affidavit by Lydia stating that Abraham Rutan deceased drew a pension for his Revolutionary War service (image 472). Rutan who in 1800 sold land with the widow of Jacobus[4], presumably his mother (hence the J. patronymic in his name stands for Jacobus.)

In 1810 Abraham J. Rutan, 26–45 [born 1765–1784], resided in New York City with a woman, 26–45, one boy and one girl under 10, one male 10–16, and one male 16–26. Listed next to Abraham J. is John J. Rutan, 26–45 and his family, probably his brother.[852]

But, in 1810 and 1820 Abraham Rutan (or "Butan") had 3 acres of land in Harrington Twp., Bergen Co., N.J.[853] These are probably tax records, so not necessarily in conflict with the 1810 census.

Keegan's Third Rutan Index, p. 2, states (red indicates an error, or unvetted information):

On 30 May 1820, Abraham Hopper of Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., signed his will, and it was proved 24 June 1820, at New Barbadoes. It mentions "my beloved wife Charity," "my Daughter Melvina [sic] the wife of Abraham Rutan," "my daughter Maria the wife of Garret S. Hopper," "my Daughter Charity the wife of John G Hopper," "my four Grand Children Abraham Barent Cornelius and Charity the Children of my Daughter Elizabeth."[855] So Melvina and Wyntje Hopper are probably the same person, but see next.

There is a set of deeds dated 7 Apr. 1823 that clear the legacies of Abraham Hopper, deceased, and show Abraham Rutan and his wife Lavina as heirs:

1. On 7 Apr. 1823, Charity [Charytie] Hopper, widow and relict of Abraham Hopper, deceased, of Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., in exchange for $60 annually from the heirs of Abraham Hopper: Abraham Retan, Garret S. Word was received in this city early Saturday morning of the death of Samuel B. Rutan, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Voorhis, 184 Ayres street, Youngstown, O.

Mr. Rutan, left this city June 21 to spend the summer with his daughter, but due to his advanced age and the strenuousness of traveling, he had never regained his natural strength.

About three weeks ago Mr. Rutan contracted a nervous cold, which it was at first thought would develop into pneumonia. Last week he seemed to be gaining, but the end came Friday night.

Mr. Rutan was born near West Milford, Passaic county, Oct. 24, 1835, being just eighty years of age.. He was the son of Robert Rutan, a prominent Passaic county 'squire of the early eighteen hundreds. He was the last survivor of four brothers: Abram R., the well known former undertaker; Henry K., at one time a harness maker of Bank street, and Robert, of Warwick, N.Y.

Previous to 1887 Mr. Rutan was an Orange county farmer, but in that year. he came to this city and was connected with his brother in the undertaking business. Eight years ago he retired from active business.

He is survived by his widow and five daughters, Mrs. Daniel Vail, of Middletown, N.Y.; Mrs. Harry E. Bilyeu, of New York city; Mrs. Henry Hopper, of this city; Mrs. John Voorhis, of Youngstown, Ohio, and Mrs. Henry S. Sturr, of Paterson, and four sons, James D., of Greycourt, N.Y.; Albert T., Samuel M. and Robert A., of this city.

The remains arrived here Sunday afternoon. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Sturr, 160 Lawrence place. Interment will be in the family plot at Laurel Grove.[975]

Vera Pinkel DeSoto Bible, typescript at New Jersey William Paterson Chapter (DAR) Family Records, 1700–1937, Paterson, N.J.:1937, FHL 868774, item 3, DGS 8978235, 66–68, images 208–210 of 1077 (↗). This matches with two exceptions the Bible record reported in Fisher, The Rutans in France and America, 60, attributed to the Abraham D. Rutan Family Bible and the William Paterson DAR Chapter. Fisher has Lorenda's birth year as 1815, and Abraham R.'s death year as 1900. The latter is correct but has been incorrectly transcribed in one of the two transcriptions.

otherwise. I assume that the date and place of the marriage are correct however.

243. HENRY[5] RUTAN (71Abraham[4], John[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born say 1800, New Jersey, and died 1840–1850. He married 22 Dec. 1821, Sussex Co., N.J.,[1000] SARAH COURTER, born about 1800, New Jersey, and died 18 Oct. 1887 ("Mother" in the Bible record below). She married, secondly, before the 1850 census, JACOB WELSH.

In 1840 Henry Rutan, 40–50, resided in Vernon Twp., Sussex Co., N.J., with a woman, 40–50, one boy and one girl under 5, one boy and two girls 5–10, and one female 10–15. On the same census page appears "Ab[m]" Rutan Jr., 40–50 (presumably Henry's brother).[1001]

In 1850 Jacob Welsh, 49, a blacksmith born in New Jersey, resided in Manchester Twp., Passaic Co., N.J., with Sarah, 50, born in New Jersey, Margaret Rutan, 16, Rebecca, 14, George, 10, all born in New Jersey, and with Sarah Welsh, 13, and Anna, 10, the Welsh children from Jacob's previous marriage.[1002]

In 1865 Sarah Rutan, and George W. Rutan, resided in Paterson, Passaic Co., N.J., with Sarah, Mary, and William W., 5–16. Sarah could be George's mother, but the three children would have all been born approximately in the period since the 1850 census. George W. had not yet married, so far as we know. And none of these children appear in the 1870 census with George W.

In 1870 George W. Rutan, 28, a carpenter born in New Jersey, resided in Paterson, Passaic Co., N.J., with Sarah C., 70, and Mary, 70, both born in New Jersey, and both listed with the Rutan surname. They share the dwelling with A. "H." Ackerman, 40, a moulder, Sarah C., 38, Mary E., 21, George H., 14, and Elmer C., 6, all born in New Jersey.[1003] Abram N. Ackerman is shown below to be George's brother-in-law.

In 1880 George W. Rutan, 37, a machinist born in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, resided in Lodi Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., with his wife, Jane, 37, and his mother, Sarah, 80, a widow with a broken arm, both born in New Jersey of New Jersey natives. Sarah is listed with the Rutan surname.[1004]

The following is a transcription of a Bible record in the New Jersey State Archives collection (GSNJ Bible 5746). The italicized words were added in pencil to the typescript that was contributed, the Bible not identified. What is problematical about this typescript is that it claims the following children are from parents Robert Rutan and Sarah Courter. I note that everything seems to fit the family of Henry Rutan and Sarah Courter, but this requires that we ignore the opening paragraphs of the typescript (which are not part of the Bible record):[1005]

As regards the two Abrahams on the same page of baptisms, Keegan, A Third Rutan Family Index has this (emphasis added):

> Abraham D. Rutan – Rheutan (1798–1872) p/John Rutan–Rachel Vanderbeek m. Mary Storms (1801–1893) in 1818 at West New Hempstead; both from Campgaw NJ: blacksmith living in Hackensack, Bergen Co. in 1850 and in Newburgh, Orange Co. NY in 1860; both buried at Old Hook Cemetery, Westwood NJ; Note: PCHSP names him as Abram I. or P. Rutan and the son of Daniel Rutan–Jannitje Brower; he deliberately changed the spelling of the surname to Rheutan since there were so many Abraham Rutans in the vicinity; GSBC; BCGI; PDRC; 1850C; 1860C; WYCK; PCHSP.[1018]

I believe Keegan has gone with the wrong parents, although he was careful to list the other possibility. The D. also indicates that the father should be Daniel not John. The fact that the birthdate calculated from the gravestone exactly matches the baptism record is a strong factor.

married 25 Dec. 1819, New York City,[1076] WILLIAM JOLINE,[1077] who was born 1790–1800, and died in 1832 (probate file),[1078] before 8 Aug. 1836, when Catharine Joline of Bergen Co., N.J., was appointed administratrix of the intestate estate of William Joline, late of the same place.[1079]

In 1830 William Joline, 30–40, resided in Hackensack Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., with a woman 20–30, one boy and one girl under 5, and one girl 5–10. Nearby were listed Benjamin King (0110001, 0001001) and Joseph Lemoine (000101, 220101) and Samuel T. Moore (one male 70–80 and one female 60–70).[1080] The latter couple was Leah[4] Rutan (John[3]) and her husband, hence probably Daniel[4]'s sister and another reason for us to believe this is the Daniel[4] Rutan (John[3]) branch.

On 8 Aug. 1836, Bergen Co., N.J., Catharine Joline was bonded as administratrix for the intestate estate of William Joline, deceased. Her cobondsmen were Joseph Lemoine [signed Lemones], of Bergen Co., N.J., and Daniel Rutan [signed Reton], of New York City.[1081]

John descended, third generation, from a Huguenot, Andre Jolin, who arrived in America in 1686. [Wright, The First Presbyterian Congregation, Mendham, Morris County, New Jersey: History and Records, 1738–1938, 66–70]. The (unvetted) genealogy is Andre Jolin (–1743) m. Catherine Joline, the widow of William Joline, deceased. The issue is disbursement of funds from a sale of lands at Fort Lee, Hackensack Twp., where only the named persons, plus William Joline Jr., are the interested parties. Also in the file are details of the sale of lands involved, in 1849. One paper mentions a meeting 27 Apr. 1849 "at the house of Robert Arnett at Fort Lee."[1082]

In 1840 "Catherine" Joline, 30–40, resided in Hackensack Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., with a male 10–15 [born 1825–1830]. Nearby were listed Robert Van Houten [10001,010010] and John Lemoine [10001, 1101].[1083]

In 1850 "Catherine" Joline, 50, born in New York, resided in Westfield Twp., Richmond Co. (Staten Island), N.Y., in the household of "Ashir" Arnett, 22, a painter born in New York, Phoebe A., 21, born in New York, George, 3, born in New York, and Daniel Joline, 22, born in New York.[1084]

From Edwin C. Hill's The Historical Register:

> One of the first boats to ply between New York and Yonkers was the sloop "Emeline," captained by one Isaac Ruton, who had kept a tavern in Yonkers. The shares in the "Emeline" were held by the storekeepers and farmers. When Ruton obtained a controlling interest in the sloop he immediately advanced the freight rates, and the shippers, in resentment, built a sloop for themselves in 1825. It was called the "Independence," and its commander was Captain John Garrison. After running six years the "Independence" was sold, and another sloop, known as the "Ben Franklin," made weekly trips.[1094]

> On 22 June 1786, from Shelburne, David Babcock submitted, to the British government, a claim for losses totaling over £313 incurred while serving as a Loyalist in the U.S. Revolutionary War, including compensation for the cost of a block house at Slongo on the Hudson River and another at Bergens Neck, two horses and a wagon taken from him at Slongo, and pay for 212 days of service at Bergens Neck. David's affidavit states that he formerly "resided in Orange County in the Province (now State) of New York," that he joined the British Army in 1776, that in Sept. 1780 he settled at Bergen Point, and he joined a group to build the block house at Slongo, and that he remained at Bergen's Neck until Aug. 1782.[1164]

But this location on the north shore of Long Island is definitely not "on the Hudson River" so must be a different place than claimed by Babcock.

On 14 Nov. 1831, Joseph "Rattan" of Adolphustown Twp., Lenox Co., Midland District, Province of Upper Canada, a yeoman, signed his will, and presumably it was proved soon after 12 Jan. 1832 when he died. It mentions "my Son Peter Rattan," "My Son John Rattan," "my Son William Rattan," "my Son David Rattan," "my Son Richard," "my Son Charles Rattan," "my Brother John Rattan," "my Wife Ally Rattan," "my daughter Polly Rattan," "my daughter Jane Rattan," "my daughter Bersheba Rattan," "my Sons Peter, John, William, David Richard, and Charles," "my Six Sons," "I do hereby appoint my aforeSaid Wife Ally Rattan Executrix—my Sons Peter Rattan and John Rattan Executors."[1192]

Peter Rattan (Ruttan) was the eighth child of Joseph Brant Ruttan." However, he is not mentioned in his putative father's will, and there are nine children mentioned in the will. It is just possible for there to have been a tenth child born, or at least sired, after the will was signed.

pension rolls suggest that he died in late 1839. He married 14 May 1786, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic),[1202] METJE [MARGY] [MARTHA] SPIER, who was born 22 Apr. 1770, at Stonehouse, presumably also part of Paterson, baptized 8 July 1770, Dutch Reformed Church, Acquackanonk (Passaic), N.J.,[1203] daughter of Johannes and Metje (Van Giesen) Spier.

The Spier family here is described in Scott's History of Passaic and its environs:

> Frans, second child and son of Jan and Maria (Franse) Spiers, was baptized April 3, 1683, and married (first) Dircktje Cornelisse, March 17, 1705; (second) Hester De Lameter, a widow. The children by his first marriage were: Cornelius, married Feb. 28, 1735, Susanna (Suke Van Sent), widow of Johannes Van Giesen . . . The other children of Cornelius and Susanna (Vincent) Spiers were: Rachel, . . ., and Johannis, married Metje Van Giesen. Of their five children . . . Metje, married Paulus Ratan, Jr.,

The first date might be the license or decree date. The second date is from Nelson, History of Paterson and Passaic Co., N.J., 201. Also, another record, U.S., Dutch Reformed Church Records in Selected States, 1639–1989, Acquackanonk (Passaic) I, Book 54, handwritten, 153, image 79 of 220 at <Ancestry.com>, "[1786] April 29 Paulus Ratan J^{r} Y: M: | with | Metje Spier Y: D: } born and living [for him] in the "Boght" | [for her] at Stonehouse. Page 131 of this last record book, image 68 of 220, is titled "Register of notification of the banns," which suggests that the date on p. 153 is such a notifcation, not a marriage date. > a soldier of the Revolutionary War, living in the Bogt subdivision; he was the father of Johannes Ratan, who was known as Pow Ratan, he won great fame as a fisherman in his day. The elder Ratan operated a cotton mill on Boudinot (now Van Houten) street. . . ..[1204]

N.B. Totowa is now in Passaic Co., N.J., and lies directly west of Paterson. The Bogt or Boght is mentioned often in Nelson, History of Paterson and Passaic Co., N.J., as the land between the Passaic River and the Wagara tributary to it, in Paterson, N.J., at the "bend" in the Passaic River there. De Bogt means the Bend. Stonehouse is mentioned a couple of times.[1205]

From Scott's History of Passaic and its environs:

> Hendrick Doremus, son of Cornelis and Annatje (Van Rype) Doremus, lived on the ancestral farm on the Wesel road. He and his wife conveyed to Paul Rutan, of Newark township, February 9, 1799, for £225, a tract of thirty-six acres at the Notch; Rutan and Martha, his wife, conveyed the same April 21, 1808, for £168 to George Van Iderstine, of New Barbadoes.[1206]

Indeed, we have the following records which supports Scott's history except for the amount of money received by the Rutans when they sold. The amount is stated in dollars, not pounds:

On 9 Feb. 1799, Henry C. Doremus and Caty [var., Catharine] his wife, of "Acquaknonk" Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Paul Rutan of "New Ark" Twp., Essex Co., for £225, "a parcel of land situate lying & being near Notch in the said Township of Acquaknonk," of 36 acres. Its description mentions "to the foot or steep rocks of Wesil Mountain." It was acknowledged 4 May 1799 (and recorded 10 Jan. 1803)[1207]

On 21 Apr. 1808, Paul Rutan and his wife Martha, of "Acquacknunk" Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to George Van Iderstine of New Barbadoes

On 22 July 1813, Paul Rutan and Martha his wife, of Acquackanonk Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to Jacob E. Vreeland, of the same place, for $2,000, a tract of 50 acres lying in Acquackanonk Twp. Witnesses: Garret Van Houten and Paul Rutan Jr. Acknowledged 22 July 1813.[1212]

On 24 May 1814, James McCurdy, of Paterson, Essex Co., N.J., sold to Paul Rutan, of Acquackanonk Twp., Essex Co., N.J., for $665, a lot in Paterson, of 3,125 square feet. It was acknowledged the same day.[1213]

On 6 July 1819, Paul Rutan and "Mattie" (and signed Mattie) his wife of Paterson, Acquackanonk Twp., Essex Co., N.J., sold to John Robinson of the same place, for $400, a tract of 3,125 square feet in Paterson. It was acknowledged, calling the grantor Paul's wife "Mattie," on 10 July 1819.[1214]

In 1827 Paul Rutan 3 males, 4 females, 7 total, 1 under 3, 4 under 16, denomination D, resided in Paterson, Bergen Co., N.J.[1215]

In 1829 Paul Rutan 2 males, 4 females, 6 total, 4 under 16, 1 under 3, denomination ERD, resided in Paterson, Bergen Co., N.J.[1216]

A Connecticut roster of Revolutionary War pensioners, starting in 1833, lists Paul Rutan, with a note beside his name which reads, "fr. New Jersey fr. 11 Sept^{r} 1837." Then half-yearly payments are recorded in Mar. 1838 and stop in Sept. 1839. It appears that he must have died about Sept.

(Francois, Adrian, Francoys, Adrian, Adrian Post), son of Francois and Brechie [Peggy] (Hennion) Post (see Scott excerpt).

From Scott's History of Passaic and its environs:

> The children of Francoys (Franz), the son of Adrian [Post] and grandson of Captain Adrian Post and his wife Maritje (Jacobus) Post, were four sons. The eldest son was Adrian, baptized March 29, 1692, married Trynte Xanders (Catharine Sanders). He was chosen deacon of the church in 1738, and participated in 1714 in the subdivisiojn of the lands of the Bogt or Paterson tract. The children by the marriage of Adrian and Catharine (Sanders) Post were: Francois, born Feb. 26, 1718, married Brechie or Peggy Hennion, the bond being dated June 1, 1750, for his first wife. His second wife was Rachel Van Rypen, the widow of Abraham Van Winkle. He lived in a stone house which was torn down in 1815, on Lyons street, Paterson. His children by his first wife were Catrina and Johannes. The latter first married Antje Ratan and (second) a widow, Jannetje Degraw. He lived in an old stone house near East Eighteenth street and Eighth avenue in Paterson, on a farm comprising ninety acres. His children were all by his first wife, namely, Johannes, Yannetje, Francois, Poules (Paul) and Bregge (Bridget). [continues with his son Paul Post].[1228]

Placeholder. There was another Antye Rutan in Totowa baptismal records, married 8 Jan. 1792 to Joris [James H.] Doremus,[1229] but her records (1792–1808) overlap the current Antje's, married to Post (1783–1795), hence a different person.[1230] According to Scott, History of Passaic, 2:89 (Pioneer Families), in his genealogy of the Doremus family:

A Dynasty of Architects

Nicholas Warren[5] Rutan himself was not an architect, but two of his sons, Charles Hercules[6] Rutan and Franklin Elmer[6] Rutan, were outstanding in that field. And both of Charles's daughters, Eleanor Mary[7] and Elsie[7], married accomplished architects, Francis Willard Puckey and Sidney T. Strickland, respectively. The famous buildings designed by this quartet are (partially) listed in the appropriate sketches in the following genealogy.

On 1 Jan. 1849, Nicholas W. Rutan and Sarah E. his wife, of Newark, Essex Co., N.J., sold to William King, of the same place, for $1050, a lot [Repeated for convenience]: In 1850 Hannah Rutan, 63, born in New Jersey, resided Newark, Essex Co., N.J., in the household of Nicholas Rutan, 26, a painter born in New Jersey with $2,000 real estate, Elizabeth, 24, born in New Jersey, and Luke, 1, born in New Jersey, and one other painter.[1389] This suggests strongly that Hannah was Nicholas's mother.

In 1860 Nicholas W. Rutan, 35, a painter with $12,000 real and $1,000 personal estates, resided in Newark, Essex Co., N.J., with [empty], 34, and with [empty], 12, "Ch," 9, Theodore, 7, Nicholas, 5, Sarah E., 3, and Frederick, 7/12, all born in New Jersey.[1390]

As a case in point concerning Strange and Garrigus, here is their sketch of this family. I place in red everything that I have been unable to source [or is in error]:

> 6 – Nicholas Warren [Rutan] born March 22, 1824, m. Sarah Elizabeth Marsh, May 28, 1846. He died in Newark, March 22, 1873 [this date is incorrect]. She d. in Newark [this place is incorrect], Oct. 3, 1889, They had 8 sons and one daughter as follows –
> 1–Luke Tronson, b. April 6, 1849.
> 2–Wilbur, b. d. Newark, April 10, 1849.
> 3–Charles Hercules, b. March 28, 1851.
> 4–Theodore Frelinghuysen, b. Dec. 25, 1852, d. Nov. 21, 1890.
> 5–Nicholas Winfield, b. Dec. 18, 1854.
> 6–Sarah Elizabeth, b. Sept. 2, 1857.
> 7–Fred Neuman, b. Nov. 22, 1859.
> 8–Frank Elmer, b. Feb. 17, 1863.
> 9–William Lincoln, b. March 9, 1865.

The point here is that I received much guidance from Strange and Garrigus, despite their lack of sources. I leave in place just those facts for which there is public proof.

James is buried with his wife Charlotte Merrick Rutan and his 3 daughters. Daughters have markers, however no marker for James or Charlotte.

James was the son of Jacob Rutan and Elizabeth Betsey King Rutan. He was the grandson of Samuel Rutan a Revolutionary War Patriot and his wife Maria Bruyn. James' father died in c. 1834 and James and his brother, Theodore were awards of the court because of their age. James lived in Otsego, NY in 1855 and then moved back to NJ to Harrison, NJ then to Plainfield, NJ and then to Clinton, NJ where he died in 1877. James was a shoemaker and according to the 1850 census report he lived in Harrison, NJ next to his mother, Elizabeth Betsey King Rutan VanHouten, at the time, the wife of Rolf VanHouten. James and his wife Charlotte are supposedly buried in the Evergreen Cemetery in Clinton, NJ, however, there is no record that has been recorded with the cemetery nor is there a headstone present. James' Obituary indicated that he was buried there.[1443]

Abram R. Rutan passed away last night [13 Sept. 1900] at his late residence, 277 Broadway. Mr. Rutan's death was due rather to old age than disease. For a long time past, he has had but poor health and about three weeks ago was compelled to take to his bed. Unable to retain any food he gradually grew weaker until the end came. Until Monday evening last, Mr. Rutan was conscious of all that occurred about him. At that time, however, he passed into a state of unconsciousness, which continued until the time of his death.

Born in Sussex County in the month of September 1824, the deceased came to this city when a young man, and was for upwards of two score years engaged in the undertaking business. Twice married, first in his early manhood and a second time in 1887, two children survive him, Mrs. William Clerihew, a daughter of his first wife,[1557] and a boy of eleven, the son of the second. As with the Bible record supporting William's father's family (GSNJ Bible 5746),[1562] there is a Bible record supporting William's family (GSNJ Bible 5529).[1563] In both cases the supporting typescript in the associated record has problems. But the reproduced Bible pages are trustworthy. The problem with both "Bible" records is that the family is assigned in the typescript section (without Biblical support) to Robert Rutan and Sarah Courter, when it is almost certainly the family of Henry Rutan and Sarah born 27 Aug. 1830 (bio) or about 1830 (calculated from gravestone), Franklin Twp., Bergen Co., N.J., son of Nicholas and Maria [Polly] (Snyder) Ackerman, and died 27 or 28 Dec. 1890, aged 60 years, and was buried with his wife.

A biography from Find a Grave:

> Abram N. Ackerman.— The family of Ackerman dates back to the early settlement of Bergen County, and the name is frequently found in connection with its history. John, grandfather of Abram N., was a farmer, and resided at Yawpaugh, in Bergen County. His children were Lawrence, Nicholas, and James, all of whom settled in the vicinity of their birth.
> Nicholas was father of our subject, and was a farmer and master-mason by trade; resided in Franklin township until 1863, when he removed to Paterson, where he lived in retirement until his death in 1869. His wife, Polly Snyder, died in 1877. Their children were John N., for many years a justice of the peace at Hackensack, and who carries on the steam sawing-and planing-mill at that place; Abram N. and a twin-brother, George, who died at the age of nineteen years, of smallpox, while engaged in New York in a dry-goods house.
> Abram N. was born in Franklin township, Aug. 27, 1830. His early education was obtained at the district school in his native place. At the age of fifteen he began learning the carpenter's trade with Col. Andrew Derrom, of Paterson, with whom he served six years. After a few years as journeyman in New York and for Mr. Derrom, he established business for himself on Broadway, near Bridge Street, Paterson, as a contractor and builder. He then associated with him in business John Berdan, under the firm-name of Berdan & Ackerman, who withdrew after two years. He then associated with him in business partnership John J. Snyder, under the firm-name of Ackerman & Snyder, which continued for eight years. While residing in Paterson he was deacon in Rev. J. H. Duryea's church, and a member of the board of education.
> In the fall of 1868, Mr. Ackerman removed to Passaic and formed a partnership with Adrian Hopper, under the firm-name of Ackerman & Hopper, and established the steam sawing- and planing-mill (to which they subsequently added a fine brick addition), which they carried on until June, 1881, when be purchased Mr. Hopper's interest in the concern, and in 1882 controls the entire business.

He gives employment to sixteen men, and consumes some two million feet of lumber a year, making his purchases of lumber in Albany and Troy, and shipping by water to Passaic, where he has a dock-front of some three hundred feet, all in connection with his factory. He built his present substantial residence near his mill in 1869.

Mr. Ackerman has devoted himself closely to business pursuits, and by his industry and judicious management secured a fair competency.

He was formerly a deacon in the North Reformed Church at Passaic, and is a liberal supporter of church and school interests.

He was a member of the City Council of Passaic in 1875, and in 1879 was appointed street superintendent.

He married, July 30, 1848, the daughter of Henry and Sarah Rutan, originally of Sussex County. Their children are Mary, wife of E. L. Hewson, a merchant in Paterson; George H. and Elmer E., in business with their father; and one son, Charlie, died when two years old.

He has by his own exertions and careful study so far mastered the knowledge of wood-working machinery that he has built nearly half of the machines now running in his factory, among which is one of the best kindling-wood saw and splitting-machines in operation, also a very fine and ingenious set of packing-box machines, upon which two sawyers have cut as many as two hundred and twenty-five large cases in ten hours, thereby consuming a very large amount of lumber in the busy season.[1573]

John J. Snyder in the bio above was probably related. He married Mary Ann Rutan. John J. Snyder and Mary Ann Rutan joined the same churches at the same time as Abram N. Ackerman and Sarah C. Rutan. In 1856 John J. Snyder and Mary Ann Rutan, his wife, joined by confession the Second Reformed Church, Wyckoff, N.J. Abram N. Ackerman and Sarah C. Rutan, his wife, were the very next two to join the same church, by certificate from Ponds.[1574] The remarks column in this register is cropped but enough remains to inform us that Abram and Sarah were dismissed 1 Nov. 1872. This is consistent with their subsequent membership in 1881 at the Dutch church in Acquackanonk (see their death records cited above). We also know from baptismal records that both couples were still at the Wyckoff church in 1871 (see baptism record for son George Henry Ackerman below).

She married 29 May 1860 (see bio) LUCIUS CASE TUTTLE, who was born 29 Apr. 1837 (1900 census and bio), son of F. B. and Lucia (Case) Tuttle, and died 2 Jan. 1929,[1592] California, before his obit. of 4 Jan. 1929, Eureka, Calif., age 91.[1593]

From a history of Humboldt Co., Calif.:

> Lucius Case Tuttle.—Although retired from active business life, and living in retirement at Eureka, Lucius case Tuttle retains the ownership of his ranch of about ten thousand acres, situated on the South Fork of Eel river between Garberville and Harris, where he was successfully engaged in stock raising for many years, the management of which is at present carried on by his only son, Frederick A. Tuttle. At seventy-eight years of age Lucius C. Tuttle is still hale and hearty . . .
> The father of Lucius C. Tuttle was F. B. Tuttle, a native of Rutland, Vt., and of Scotch descent, who married Lucia Case, of Irish and English ancestry, who was born in Connecticut, and removed to Dutchess county, N.Y., where the son Lucius Case was born at Brrokport, April 29, 1837. The boy was only about four years old when his parents moved to Chicago, Ill., a year later settling at Plainfield, in Will county . . . the father was one of the pioneer gold seekers in California, making the journey across the plains in the year 1850, and following mining in the western state, where he built one of the first quartz mills in the state and the first in Eldorado county, later returning to Illinois, where he spent the remainder of his life.

On May 29, 1860, the son Lucius was married to Miss Leah J. Rutan, who was born in Paterson, N.J., August 17, 1837, and in 1862 they likewise started across the plains to California as the father had done, fitted out with two wagons, sixteen horses, four yoke of oxen and four milch cows, one wagon being drawn by the oxen, the other by four horses, a change of horses being made at stated periods. Leaving Illinois on April 1st, and journeying via Council Bluffs, Iowas, and Salt lake City, Utah, the party arrived in the Sacramento valley, California, on September 11th of that year, having been exactly six months on the journey . . .

Since the year 1901 Mr. Tuttle has resided in Eureka, leaving the management of his ranch to his son, and purchased J. W. Henderson's interest in the Humboldt County Bank and the Home Savings Bank, afterwards selling half this interest to John M. Vance, who became president of the Humboldt County Bank, while Mr. Tuttle held the presidency of the other institution. Some years later he bought back Mr. Vance's interest in the two banks, giving his attention to their management until selling out to the Crockers of San Francisco . . .[1594]

580. CALVIN[6] RUTAN (352John S.[5], Samuel H.[4], Henry[3], Samuel[2], Abraham[1]) was born 29 May 1841, New Jersey, baptized 26 Sept. 1841, Dutch Reformed Church, Belleville, N.J.,[1673] died 1909, and was buried in Bloomfield Cem., Bloomfield, Essex Co., N.J.[1674] He married 28 June 1865, Bloomfield Twp., Essex Co., N.J.,[1675] RACHEL ELIZABETH STAGER [STAJEN] [STAJER], who was born Jan. 1845 (1900 census), New Jersey, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth (Snyder) Stager,[1676] and who died 1905, and was buried with her husband.

A published biography of Calvin[6] Rutan supports his genealogy derived in this book:

> The old Rutan homestead, located in Belleville township, Essex county, has been in possession of the family ever since 1731,—one hundred and sixty-seven years. Samuel Rutan, the founder of the family in this section, was of French descent, and in early life went to live with an aged gentleman named Bradbury, in whose service he remained for many years. When Mr. Rutan had attained his majority Mr. Bradbury gave him one hundred acres of land, which has since been in the possession of his descendants; and the ruins of the old stone house, which was the birthplace of nearly all the Rutans, may still be seen there. Henry Rutan, a son of Samuel and the great-grandfather of our subject, would have taken part in the Revolutionary war, but was partially crippled and unable to do military duty. The disposition thus manifested stands as much to his credit as an intelligent, loyal citizen as though he actually did service in the army. His son, Samuel H. Rutan, Jr. [sic], the grandfather of Calvin, was born in the year 1776,—the year that American independence was declared, and he took part in the war of 1812 against Great Britain. He brought up two sons and two daughters,—Henry, John, Ann and Frances. Ann married Henry Joralemon, of Belleville, and Frances married Amos Williams, of Newark; all are now deceased. John was the father of the subject of this sketch. The family have always been connected with agricultural pursuits, have been people of quiet and unassuming manner, honorable lives and genuine worth, commanding the respect of all. In politics they have been supporters of the Whig party and later of the Republican, but have never been aspirants for official honors.

Calvin Rutan was born May 29, 1841, on the old family homestead, which was also his playground in boyhood and his training school for the duties of farm life. He now owns the property and is successfully carrying on agricultural pursuits, keeping pace with the improvements which are being made in farming methods and machinery. His fields are well tilled, and the neat and thrifty appearance of his place indicates his careful supervision.

Mr. Rutan married Miss Rachel E. Stager, a daughter of Richard and Elizabeth (Snyder) Stager, and they have two children: Howard, who was born June 24, 1866, and now has charge of the home farm; and Stella, born July 5, 1868. The family attend the Dutch reformed church, and in social circles hold an enviable position.

During the civil war Mr. Rutan manifested his loyalty to the government by enlisting, in 1862, in Company C, Twenty-sixth New Jersey Infantry, under Captain Samuel H. Pemberton. He served for nine months on the Potomac, under the command of Generals Burnside and Hooker, and participated in the battles of Fredericksburg and participated to the battles of Fredericksburg and Marye's Heights and a number of minor engagements. He has ever been loyal and true to his country's interests, is a public-spirited and progressive citizen and withholds his support from no enterprise designed to benefit the public.[1677]

In 1900 Calvin Rutan, 59, a farmer born May 1841 in New Jersey of a father born in New Jersey and a mother in Scotland, resided in Soho, Belleville Twp., Essex Co., N.J., with his wife of 35 years, "Rachael" E., 55, born Jan. 1845 in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, and with his son, Howard, 33, born June 1866, and daughter, Stella, 31, born July 1868, both single and both born in New Jersey. Rachael had had two children, with two surviving.[1678]

RUTAN AND RUTTAN FAMILIES

Franklin Elmer Rutan, one of the best-known architects of Pittsburgh, head of the firm of Rutan & Russell, and also one of the best-known residents of the Sewickley valley, died yesterday afternoon, in Atlantic City, where he went two weeks ago for his health. He had been suffering with kidney trouble. It was not thought, however, that there was any immediate danger and his death came as a surprise.

Mr. Rutan was born 45 years ago, in England [sic]. He received his technical education in Boston and when he graduated entered the architectural firm of Shepley, Rutan & Coolidge. This firm succeeded to the work of constructing the Allegheny county court house upon the death of Architect Richardson, who designed it. Mr. Rutan's first important work in Pittsburgh was in connection with the construction of the court house. Soon after the completion of the building he entered the firm of Longfellow, Alden & Harlow and remained there until he organized the firm of which he was at the head.

In 1896 Mr. Rutan married Miss Martha Fleming, daughter of the late Joseph Fleming. She survives, with two daughters and one son: Misses Martha and Elizabeth F. Rutan, and Franklin E. Rutan, Jr. Six brothers and one sister also are living.

Mr. Rutan was a well-known club man. He was a member of the Duquesne club, the Allegheny Country club, the Edgeworth club and the Art society of Pittsburgh. He was president in the Sewickley Monday Musical club and in the Sewickley Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member, he was chairman of the musical department.

Mr. Rutan was said to be a member of one of the oldest families in New England. In Sewickley, his late residence in Academy avenue, is conceded to be one of the handsomest in the valley.

A. B. Starr, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Lines West of Pittsburgh, left here last night in his private car for Atlantic City and will return with the body of his friend. Although definite arrangements have not been made the funeral is expected to be held from Mr. Rutan's late residence tomorrow afternoon.[1751]

Adams Evans come from the following biography in the typescript accompanying Bible 5525, Walter's family Bible, and not from the Bible pages. This typescript was contributed by Ernest Clifton Reock Jr., Walter's grandson, so I use his authority even though he is outside my usual one-generation remove:

> Walter Adams Evans (1874–1924) Walter Adams Evans was born in Glen Spey, Sullivan County, New York in 1874, the son of William Harris Evans and Drusilla Howlett Evans, both of whom had emigrated from England.[1796]
> When Walter was three years old his parents moved to Newark, N.J. By 1885, the family had moved to South Orange and included Walter and two younger sisters, Florence (1877–), and Amelia (1885–).[1797]
> From 1891 through 1893, Walter Evans, a brassworker, was listed in the Newark city directories as living at various locations in the city, but it is not certain that this was Walter Adams Evans. It is clear, however, that by 1895 Walter A. Evans was living with William and Hannah Rutan at 110 Belleville Avenue in Newark. probably as a boarder, and that he was employed as a shoemaker. Both his father, William Harris Evans, and his brother-in-law, Henry Tilley, were engaged in the same sort of work. Another member of the household was Sadie Rutan, at 18 the youngest daughter of William and Hannah Rutan.
> On April 21, 1897, Walter married Sadie Rutan. Their first child, Helen Rutan Evans, was born there on February 14, 1898. She was followed on July 25, 1901 by a second daughter, Marion Kingston Evans, and on January 7, 1908 by a third, Laura Winters Evans.
> In 1900, Walter and Sadie were renting a house at 282 Clifton Avenue in Newark, and Walter was still employed as a shoemaker. By 1905.

1796. New York, U.S., State Census, 1875, Lumberland, Sullivan Co., dw. 11, fam. 12, image 2 of 25 at <Ancestry.com>, lists John Howlett, 43, shoemaker born in England, wife, Amelia, 38, born England, daughters, Carolina, 15, and Rose, 13, born in England, Ella, 7, born in N.J., son, Arthur, 4, born in Sullivan Co., son-in-law William "Evens," 25, farmer born in England, daughter Drucilia, 21, born in England, and grandson, Walter, 11/12, born in Sullivan Co.

1797. U.S. census, 1880, South Orange, Essex Co., N.J., ED 111, r. 781, p. 207d, dw.112, fam. 115, lists "Wm" H. Evans, 30, shoemaker born in England of England natives, wife, "Lucilla," 26, born in England of England natives, son, Walter, 6, and daughter, Florence, 3, both born in N.J.

however, the family had moved to South Orange and Walter had abandoned the shoemaker's trade to become a partner with William Badenhof in a flour and feed business located at 262 Jeliff Avenue in Newark.

After moving to South Orange, Walter became involved in local politics, serving on the South Orange Township Committee. In 1908 he was elected to represent South Orange on the 32-member Board of Chosen Freeholders which governed Essex county, where he served two terms. Essex County voted in 1910 to replace its large board with a smaller governing body of nine members. Two years later Walter Evans was elected director of the first small Board of Chosen freeholders. In 1915 he was elected county Register of Deeds and Mortgages.

Sadie Rutan Evans died on April 19, 1915. A little more than a year later Walter married Helen Rachael McCandless, the daughter of Benjamin McCandless and Nellie Josephine McCandless of New York City.

In 1922, Walter sold the house in South Orange and moved to Park Avenue in the neighboring community of Maplewood. Declining health led him to move to a more rural setting in Hackettstown and then finally to an apartment in Dover, where he died on November 17, 1924. He was buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Newark.

An obituary for Sadie:

On the eve of her wedding anniversary, Mrs. Sadie Rutan evans, wife of Walter A. Evans, director of the County Board of Freeholders, died last night at her home, 107 Second street, South Orange, following a long illness. Death was due to a complication of ailments. Had she lived until tomorrow, Mr.s Evans would have been married eighteen years.

Death came at 10 o'clock, when members of the family were at the bedside. Although Mrs. Evans had been of failing health for a long time, the recent attack kept her confined to bed for a period of ten months.

Born in the city February 26, 1877, Mrs. Evans resided here until twelve years ago, when, with her husband, she moved to Sough Orange. She was the last of seven children of William H. and Hannah Winters Rutan, of 18 Taylor street, this city. She was married to Mr. Evans on April 21, 1897....

> Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters, the Misses Helen, Marion and Laura Evans, and her parents.and the interment will be made at the convenience of the family, probably at Evergreen Cemetery.[1798]

In 1900 Walter A. Evans, 25, a shoemaker born Aug. 1874 in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, resided in Newark, Essex Co., N.J., with his wife of three years, Sadie R., 23, born Jan. 1877 in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, and with daughter, Helen R., 2, born Feb. 1898 in New Jersey. Sadie had had only the one child.[1799]

In 1910 Walter Evans, 35, a flour and seed engineer born in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, resided in Newark, Essex Co., N.J., with his wife of 13 years, Sadie, 33, born in New Jersey of New Jersey natives, and with daughters, Helen R., 12, Mary K., 8, and Laura W., 2 4/12, all born in New Jersey, and one boarder. Sadie had had three children, with three surviving.[1800]

Children, all probably born in New Jersey:

859 i HELEN RUTAN[8] EVANS, born 14 Feb. 1898, New Jersey, married 6 June 1923, Newark, ERNEST CLIFTON REOCK, and had at least one child: (1) Ernest Clifton[9] Reock, born 13 Oct. 1924.

860 ii MARION KINGSTON[8] EVANS, born 25 July 1901 or 1902, New Jersey. The two Bibles disagree on the year. I suspect 1901 is accurate since it comes directly from Walter's Bible whereas the 1902 is listed in the miscellany of the other Bible.

861 iii LAURA WINTERS[8] EVANS, born 7 Jan. 1908, New Jersey.

771. LAWRENCE ACKERMAN[7] RUTAN (468*Daniel D.*[6], Daniel D.[5], Daniel[4], John[3], Daniel[2], Abraham[1]) was born 5 June 1859, Plainfield, Will Co., Ill. In 1950 Lawrence A. Rutan, 90, born in Illinois, resided in Alma, Harlan Co., Nebr., with his wife, "Anna" M., 86, born in Illinois, and with his son-in-law, Roy E. Lowe, 56, a lumberyard worker, and his daughter (Roy's wife), Helen, 47 both born in Nebraska, and with his grandson-in-law, Earl Bennett, 24, a highway mower, born in Iowa, and his granddaughter (Earl's wife), June W., 24, born in Nebraska, and their children, "granddaughters," Carolyn J., 4, and Sharron D., 2, "grandson," Garry L., 1, and "granddaughter," Jacqueline L., born Jan., all four born in Nebraska.[1801]

> He was married to Hattie M. Canham at Broughton, Ill., on September 5, 1883, and came to Seward County, Nebraska, to reside. To this union were born ten daughters and two sons. Two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Mathews, and Ruth Gertrude, preceded him in death; also five grandchildren and one sister.

In 1913 they moved to Alma, Nebr., and lived here until this spring when he with his companion, went to California, to make their home with their daughter, Lillie, where he passed away.
> In 1913 he joined the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Alma and remained a faithful member until his death, attending services regularly, until failing health kept him in his home.

Sometimes referred to as a "mosque," in fact it had a magnificent stage for concerts and other entertainments.
> A later appreciation of the building* called Puckey "a budding genius in the architectural world, and who since has planned such gorgeous things as the Harper Library at Chicago University[.] Willard Puckey, native of this city and product of the Beaux Arts in Paris, made the plans for a Moorish temple. He himself had visited the Alhambra and had sketched many of its details and had taken down memoranda of the colors there."
> As early as 1897, Puckey was employed in the office of the Wilkes-Barre architect Frederick L. Olds (1852–1912). With Olds, he furnished plans in 1909 for the five-story bank and office buiding for the People's Union Bank of Pittston. Olds and Puckney, a Pittston paper reported, "are among the leaders in their line of work in this section of the State."
> The year that the Irem Temple opened, Puckey married, in Plymouth, MA, Eleanor Mary Rutan, daughter of Charles H. Rutan, partner of the nationally known firm of Shepley, Rutan and Coolidge.

> After Olds' sudden death in 1912, Puckley moved to Chicago to form the firm of Puckley & Jenkins. He was a delegate to the 54th annual

It had been named after my buddy Lt Donald E. Whistler, who was killed while we were still at Rice Field, CA.[1936] He was on a dive bombing practice run when he got into a flat spin in his P–39 and never got out of it. This was probably La Vieille Airfield, located at the Hameau Lavielle, in the northeast part of the commune of Saint Georges d'Elle, located about 6 miles northeast of Saint-Lô and about 15 miles south of the beaches of Normandy, in particular Omaha Beach. It is no longer visible. [See Wikipedia "La Vieille Airfield."]

1936. Wkipedia "Rice Army Airfield," "an abandoned World War II airfield in Rice Valley of the southern Mohave Desert," located one mile east from Rice, Riverside Co., Calif., just south of the San Bernardino Co. line, and about 20 miles west of the Colorado River.

1937. Fowlmere Airfield is located about 8.8 miles southwest of Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, England [see Wikipedia "Fowlmere Airfield"].

called to my flight leader that I was on fire and going to bail out. As soon as I tried to transmit I could tell that my radio was out. At the same time I added full power to climb high enough for a bailout. I could barely see the ground through the cockpit smoke, so I thought I needed still more altitude. Before I knew it, my supercharger cut in at 18,000 feet. Although the smoke was still heavy, there was no fire that I could see, so I decided to head for the beachhead. I kept on full power and started a descent. Soon I was indicating over 350 MPH and before long the beachhead came into sight. A couple of Spitfires and P–47s tried to intercept me—I went through them like they were standing still.

Now I noticed the invasion fleet. It was the most awe-inspiring sight that could be imagined. As far as the eye could see to the west and to the east were wall-to-wall ships. It was almost impossible to comprehend the enormity of that colossal armada of naval craft. I suddenly realized that they might start shooting at me, so I slowed to reasonable speed and dumped my landing gear. The smoke was not as heavy as before, but I though I should fina a place to land. I turned to the east but soon ran out of the Omaha Beach area, so I turned back to the west. Every field of any size was filled with broken and upended gliders.

Finally, I saw a white wind-sock ahead. A grader was leveling the first landing strip. I buzzed him and he pulled off the runway, so I landed in a cloud of dust. I taxied in and shut down. The troops were Royal Canadian Air Force. They told me there were snipers in the area and handed me a German helmet to wear. Meanwhile, a crewman checked out my plane and told me the radios had burned up and they would not be able to fix it. They offered me fuel, but I refused after checking that I had enough to get back to Fowlmere. Shots were being fired at both ends of the strip, so I thought I had better get out of there while I was still intact.

I took off and headed north to England. Halfway across the channel I saw two P–51s also heading north and pulled up beside them. They were Royal Air Force Mustangs. I pulled into formation with them and put on the German helmet. The wingman saw it and shook his head. Soon I saw the southern coast of England and waved goodbye to the R.A.F. boys, then headed for Fowlmere. Luckily, the weather was pretty good, so I had no trouble locating the base.

After I landed and parked, my crew chief, Sgt James Walbourn and armorer Col Morris Crecelius came out to the plane. I handed them that German helmet. They were quite surprised and could hardly believe it.

The next day I was called to group headquarters and told to report to C.B.S. at London University. When I reported in, they gave me a limousine with chauffeur and put me up at a fine hotel. That evening I reported back and was told I would be on the Bob Trout newscast at 11:00 P.M. They took the names of my relatives and tried to notify them of the evening newscast. They were having difficulties with audio transmissions, so after several scotch and waters and going over my story, they decided to record it while I was still able to remember it. I then went back to my hotel, but did not get much sleep. The famous buzz bombs started coming in, encouraging me to return to Fowlmere.[1938]

Russell, a farmer, was born October 22, 1926 at Wilsonville, Nebraska to Herbert and Nettie Faubion Rutan. He attended school there for three years in a one room school house starting the first grade at age four, then moved to Melba, Idaho with his family in 1934. He went to Melmont and Glendale schools and graduated from Melba High School. He farmed until enlisting in the United States Marine Corps on January 2, 1945, and served during the final days of the Okinawa Campaign with the Sixth Marine Division in World War II, then with occupation forces in Tsingtao, China.

Returning to Melba he started farming again. On June 15, 1951 he married Faye Skeen of Melba; she died May 10, 1954. There were two daughters, Yvonne and Rhonda, by this marriage. On September 15, 1955, he married Patricia Schwartz of Caldwell. A daughter Debbie and a son David completed the family.

They farmed in the Melba area until 1975, except for one year (1958) at Eagle and one year (1959) at Homedale.

The Paul[2] Branch

914. NEAL GRANT[9] RUTAN [RUTON] (874Theodore Hazard[8], William Vermilye[7], William Vermilye[6], Benjamin Brower[5], William[4], Abraham[3], Paul[2], Abraham[1]) was born 19 Aug. 1950, Toronto, Ont.[1967] He married about 1991 ANUPPA GEORGE CALEEKAL [CALEEKAL–RUTON], who was born 11 Aug. 1956,[1968] daughter of John Caleekal George and Achamma Mathew. John George was an expert on ornithology and at one time Professor of Zoology at the University of Guelph, Ont., and author of over 400 scientific publications.[1969] Anuppa is also a published scholar.[1970]

Kerala Christian Naming Conventions and Anuppa's Family

The following was provided by Anuppa Caleekal–Ruton:

John Caleekal George (J.C.George) first born male takes his name from his father. His father Dr. Caleekal John George (C. J. George) was also a renowned Indian zoologist who did his higher education at The Imperial College in England in Entomology in 1925. His father's name was Johanann George Caleekal.

1967. Email from Neal Ruton, 19 Feb. 2025, "I am 74 years old, born in Toronto Ontario on August 19, 1950. I moved from Toronto to Guelph in 1970 to complete my undergrad degree and never left. I reside in Guelph, which is approximately 100 km west of Toronto, with my wife Anuppa Caleekal-Ruton and our daughter Tania John."

1968. Email from Neal Ruton, 23 Feb. 2025, "If needed, here are the birth dates of Anuppa and Tania. Anuppa George Caleekal – August 11, 1956 | Tania John – December 13, 1984."

1969. Benjamin W. C. Rosser and Mohan Viswanathan, "In Memoriam: John Caleekal George, 1921–2005," The Auk 123(2006):279–280 (→), "The authors...thank...Dr. George's daughter, Anuppa Caleekal-Ruton, for assistance in preparing this article."

1970. For example, "Anuppa Caleekal-John and Michael S. Goodstadt, "Alcohol Use and its Consequences Among Canadian University Students," Canadian Journal of Higher Education 13(1983):59–69, (→).

They are Orthodox Christians from Kerala, India belonging to the Mar Thoma Church when St. Thomas is said to have built a church in Kerala and brought Christianity to Kerala, in 52 A.D.

The names among Mar Thoma Christians are patrilineal from the father's side if the first born is male.

If the second born is also male then it is patrilineal from the mother's side. So patrilineal and matrilineal names take turns depending on the order of birth and the sex of the child. For example, if the third born is the first female born as is the case of Anuppa, then she takes the first name of her father's mother Annama which is Ann, Anuppa's church name. Anuppa"s full maiden name is Anuppa George Caleekal. Her middle name is George after her dad's last name and Caleekal is her last name after her dad's middle name.

The name Caleekal is the name of the house which her father's side comes from, translated from Malayalam is said to denote the "Stone house."

Anuppa's mother Achamma is daughter of Mr. Puthenpurakal Jacob Mathew. Puthenpurakal is the name of their house which becomes part of their name. Mr. Puthenpurakal Jacob Mathew's father was known to be Mr. Israel. Apparently Mr. Israel's family came as Christians originally from the region of Old Persia. Many such families arrived in Kerala and they intermarried only with each other and were restricted to marry Christians who were not from these families from Old Persia. Jacob Mathew was said to be the first in his family to marry outside this tightly knit Christian community from Persia. He married another Marthoma Christian native Keralite who is Anuppa's maternal grandmother. Very little is known of these Christian families who came from the middle east and made a life in Kerala.[1971]

This branch of the Rutan family spells the surname Ruton and pronounces it roo-TOHN (as opposed to roo-TAN). Cf. Dick[10] and Burt[10] Rutan (roo-TAN).[1972]

Child (step-child):

1971. Email from Neal Ruton, 22 Feb. 2025, in response to my query about naming conventions, Neal asked Anuppa, and Anuppa contributed the text quoted here.

1972. Email from Neal Ruton, 19 Feb. 2025, "Yes the name is pronounced as you have it—roo-TOHN."

935 i TANIA[10*] JOHN, born 13 Dec. 1984,[1973] a child of Anuppa's first marriage.[1974]

He married[1976] say 1985 CHERYL —, and had two children before Steven's parents died in 2015.

Children:

936 i MADISON[10] RUTAN [RUTON], born say 1990.

Possible information: Linked In has a Tyler Ruton, CPA at Fidelity Canada in Toronto, (→), a young man apparently in the same field as his father Steve Ruton, who also worked in finance, according to Linked In, (→), at Bank of Montreal in his career.

1973. See note 1968.

1974. Email from Neal Ruton, 21 Feb. 2025, "John is the surname of Tania. She is the biological daughter of my wife Anuppa from her first marriage and my step-daughter since she was 6 years old, 34 years ago."

1975. Canada, Selected School Yearbooks, 1901–2010, at <Ancestry.com>, Steve Ruton, yearbook date 1983, White Oaks Secondary School, Oakville, Ont., Canada, with photo. Also in yearbooks for same school for 1979–1982. Canadian students start secondary at 12–13 and finish at 17–18. I took his age as 17 in 1983 to get my estimate of his birth as 1966.

1976. Canadian Phone and Address Directories, 1995–2002, at <Ancestry.com>, Steve Ruton, spouse Cheryl, address 2188 Parkmount Blvd., Oakville, Ont., L6H 6T4, phone no. 905 337 9300, years at residence 2001 2002.
